A Ship Cartured.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 7. — The British steamer Sishan, from Hong Kong, has been seized by the Japanese off Niu Chwang. The Shishan carried a cargo of cattle and flour intended for Port Arthur.

Some Repub ican Harmony. Washington, Oct. 7.-A special to the Washington Post from Madison, the Washington Post from Madison, Wis., says:

The action of the "stalwart" faction in substituting ex-Governor Scofield on the ticket for S. A. Cook, withdrawn, has led to the threat of LaFollette Republicans that they will put it up to Chairman Cortelyou of the National Committee, to call the ticket off, or they may turn the state over to Parker.

More of It.

New York, Oct. "7.—A Washington dispatch to the Times says:

It is reported here that the President has decided to appoint Timothy L. Woodruff of New York as Postmaster-General. No confirmation of this report can be obtained here. The appointment of Woodruff was determined upon in order to placate the Platt following in New York.

The Nebraska Afloat

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—The battleship Nebraska, destined to be one of the finest fighting machines afloat and already showing in every detail that she will come up to expectations, slid gracefully into the water promptly at two minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A Mine on Fire

Coquille City, Or., Oct. 7.—The great Beaver Hill coal mine is afire from top to bottom, and it is doubtful if anything short of total destruction can be averted, One million dollars is at stake.

At 7 o'clock yesterday morning there was a 'slight explosion caused by an electric spark of a moter on the sixth level. The motorman and bucker were slightly burned. Several sets of timbers quickly caught fire as the result of the explosion.

A Butte Sulcide.

A Butte Suicide.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 7.—A special to the Miler from Harlem, Mont., says:

Dr. C. A. McNulty, a well known physician of this city, committed suicide by shooting himself in his room in the New England Hotel Wednesday right. He fired, a bullet through his heart. It is not known just when the deed was committed, as the doctor's death was not discovered until this morning.

MISFITS.

A Mixture of Things and Thoughts

There is song in life full of peace and

The country is in the grip of the foot ball man today.

The direct primary law evidently already has the gout.

Carrie Nation is in jail again. What she needs is a balance wheel.

A Paris man has a remedy for baffling old age. He evidently has bugs in his head.

Speaking of Albany: people who want a good home with splendid educa-tional advantages.

The President says: "We have nothing to conceal," but all the heads of different departments have been in structed to give out no information.

The Albany Methodists very properly own their own church and it is all paid for. The church is progressive and prosperous and will continue to thrive under the new pastor yet to be named.

A Benton county man asked the board of equalization for a small reduction of of equalization for a small reduction of $25 on his assessment, and got it, but it lead to investigation and his assessment was raised $1200 on property he was trying to cover up.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Ex-District Attorney J. N. Hart, of Dallas, will leave tomorrow for Baker City to go into partnership with Ex-Senator Smith.

Robert G. Smith of Prineville, a former Linn county man, is running a restaurant in Bend, now a thriving and bustling business center.

The population of Ashland has been increasing so fast a special census of the city will be taken this fall in order to secure the exact figures. Ashland is one of the most prosperous cities in the state.

Instead of foot ball over across the mountains in Prineville two games of base ball are being played today. Four Prineville hunters recently killed five bears in a hunt around the lava beds of the Cascades.

Miss Bessie Turrell died in San Francisco on Sept. 26. She was a daughter of Geo. Turrell and a sister of Walter Turrell, formerly of Albany, now of Tacoma and Seattle, and resided in Albany for awhile, a woman of splen-did character and attainments.
