President Roosevelt is in favor of a oig meeting of the Hague commission after the Russian-Japanese war is over. If a commission was ever needed it is now before the war is over. is true that a session would probably do no good, but it could do no harm. The subject of peace is at least a splendid one to agitate, while the subject of war is a bad one.

Heretofore the Russians have been on the defensive, forced there by the Japanese. Now the policy has been changed and Kuropatkin is about to make an onslaught upon the enemy. He has right about faced and turned the muzzles ZJapaneseward This is satisfactory to the people of this coun-try, who have been watching the contest with intense interest. Now is the proper time for a big clash. It might decide something. It at least ought to. It is to be hoped if the two big armies meet, one or the other has to surren-The DEMOCRAT is confident it will not be the Japanese.

Some one ought to suffer for the rain wreck in Missouri resulting in the death of twenty eight people. The case is plain enough. A passenger train, as is frequently the case, passed over the road in two sections. After the first section had passed, the conductor of a freight train, thinking that it was all of the train, his orders being indefinite, or misunderstood, pulled out. put on steam and run into the second section and many lives were sacrificed just on account of gross carlessness. A railroad in the first place should have such a complete system of orders that such a thing would be impossible, and, if it does not provide for such emergencies its officers should pay for it criminally. It is time some very strict laws were passed on the subject.

The agitation of the question of a park should not stop. Albany needs a park some where, and now is the time to have one. It will be much easier now than in five years. In fact the longer the people of the city wait the more difficult it will be to secure the land. Prices are reasonable now. In a few years, though, Albany will have grown to such proportions that prices will also have advanced beyond the reach of the city, or land will all have the ages. reach of the city, or land will all have the ages. The M. E. Church Trouble.

From the Telegram.

The Alb .ny church trouble is still on, I spite rumors and counter rumors there you are. Now what is Mr. Bry-an to do, take the advice of both. If but no definite understanding has been arrived at.

In Portland Presiding Elder L. E. Rockwell, at the head of the district, daclares nothing further will be done by the Albany Methodists to prevent occupancy of their pulpit by Rev. D. T. Summerville, who has been assigned to

In Albany members of the Methodist Episcopal Church declare they will remain firm in their original refusal to receive Rev. Mr. Summerville, say the church is their own property and that they have the power to name their own pastor.

"Rev. D. T. Summerville will conduct services in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Albany," declared Rev. L. E. Rockwell, presiding elder of the Methodist district, which embraces Albany, this morning. "The members of the church at Albany are business men and women, the most prominent men of the city, and they have no desire to hold out against the wishes of Bishop Spellmeyer. They preferred a different pastor, of course, since they asked for one, but they will receive Rev. Mr. Summerville and give him their hearty support.

"The stories circulated about the condition of affairs at Albany were exaggerated. Of course, the Albany members were disappointed when they did not get the pastor they wanted, but that was not sufficient to make them hold out or receive no pastor at all. In regard to the ownership of the church property there, I think it was deeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church Corporation, and is now being held in trust. If that is the case the members of the church there could find no objection that would prevent the entry of a pastor assigned by the bishop. However, I am not sure about it. I know that Rev. Mr. Sommerville will be welcomed at Albany if he chooses to

In almost direct contradiction to the statement of Rev. Mr. Rockwell, is the following special dispatch from Albany to the Telegram:

Albany, Or., Oct. 11.—The position of the official board of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Albany in regard

Members of the board who were interviewed this morning were very rement of the matter, as soon as possible, and with that end in view they are Elder Rockwell, but they are firm in their original declaration neither to receive nor support Rev. Mr. Summer-

The sentiment on the matter is ex actly the same as at the beginning, except that such open expressions of opinion as at first are not heard.

Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely care up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred.
