STARVE THEM OUT!

Why not starve the germs to death? Scott's Emulsion will do it.

The germs of consumption are an invading army numbering millions upon millions; they must all be fed or they will soon die of starvation. A lung a little below "par" in vitality is just to their liking.

Why not put new life into it? Scott's Emulsion feeds the lungs. It fills the blood with nourishing food for all the weak parts. Good food means life. Life means resistive force.

Germs cannot live on healthy tissue. Scott's Emulsion and good fresh air drive out the germs of consumption.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

Port Arthur or Bust

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Associated Press learns on excellent authority that the Japanese army today received orders to renew its attack on Port Arthur and to take the main fortification at any cost.

Out of Ammunition

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Post's Shanghai correspondent cables that, according to reliable information received there, the guns at Port Arthur have been silent for the past few days owing to a lack of ammunition. This sudden turn for the worse in the condition of the fortress has been caused by the recent blowing up of the most important magazine by Japanese shells.

No Change.

IN THE FIELD, Nov. 24, via Fusan.—The reports circulated during the past week in the Eastern papers and probably telegraphed abroad to the effect that General Kuropatkin, in making a general advance had pushed back the Japanese left a distance of three miles, are wholly unfounded.

The situation remains entirely unchanged during the last month.

MISFITS.

A Mixture of Things and Thoughts

The foot ball will be given a thorough drying.

Idiotic hazing scrapes continue to be reported.

There is more taffy out of the stores than in them.

Character is just a little better than anything else.

Try some home furniture varnish. All the drug stores keep it.

Some of the biggest liars in the world are reporting for the war in the east.

The army and the navy are slugging each other back in Philadelphia today.

Kuroki continues to be very much alive. Few generals get near enough to the firing line to get hurt.

The land fraud case in Portland rather indicates that some people in taking up land swear to almost anything.

The DEMOCRAT will again remark that men who sell things from door to door are not tramping the streets for their health.

Judge Parker will continue to practice law notwithstanding the Oregonian has figured out that he will not succeed at it. He already has $10,000 worth of business in sight.

This is a cold hearted world. Down at Salem while an Albany man was being carried from the field some Willamette girl rooters shouted:

"Kill another. That's the way to get rid of them."

The city council of Dallas threatened to place a license of $100 on the insurance companies doing business in that city, and at once received a notice that the rate in that city would be reduced. They had the animal by the horns.

The oily tongued stranger has been in the city selling a furniture varnish for two dollars a bottle if he could get that much, if not, less. Probably worth about 25 cents. A reliable preparation can be secured at the drug stores for 60 cents.

A well known young man of Eugene passed through the city yesterday with a face black and blue, looking as if he had been in a street fight, but he had not. The bruises were emblems of football glory. He had simply been in some educational scrimmages.

HOME AND ABROAD.

There will be a good roads convention at Salem Dec. 13, 14 and 15.

Til Ford, the wealthy Salem lawyer, recently fell on the floor at the Willamette Hotel, in Salem and one of his thighs was fractured.

The Big Bend bank at Davenport, Wash., has failed by reason of making too many big loans to mining interests in which the officers were interested.

The Eugene band will give a big concert next Tuesday evening, assisted by Miss Yoran soloist, Miss Dorris pianist, J. J. Hughes clarinet and M. O. Warner cello.

Binger Hermann, ex-commissioner and W. A. Richards commissioner of the general land office are disputing each other down in Portland in the very loud fraud case.

A Colfax, Wash., man, Charles Martin, practiced shooting at a target for ten days steadily and then shot his man, Frank Parker, but it took four shots. It should not be very difficult to prove deliberation in that.

Most anything can be expected from Eugene. Things are reported down to that pass that hobos are held up for what little money they may have concealed. Such a case is said to have occurred yesterday.

Chicken Dinner.

The Ladies of the Catholic church will give a dinner at the residence of Father Metayer on Wednesday November 30th, commencing at 5:00 p. m. Chicken and other edibles of a tempting nature will be served. The house will be thrown open to visitors and many who have expressed a desire to see its interior, will have a chance to do so. During the evening a program of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., will be rendered. Admission including supper will be 50 cents. The public are cordially invited.

What better Xmas present could you ask than a portrait by W. B. Stevens' artist? This exceptional offer positively closes Dec. 10.

The cheapest portraits anywhere else cost $1.98. With each $1.00 purchase at W. B. Stevens' store you get a $3.00 grade for 78 cents.

Ask for your coupon at Stevens'.

It will be too late after Dec. 10 at Stevens'.
