

Around the Depot.

A freight car arrived this morning on its way north, which had been broken into by hobos, who tore open a large number of boxes, evidently after something to eat, of which they got only a little. One of the boxes was for Munkers & DeVaney, of this city.

Educational Exhibit.

The preparation of our Lewis and Clark educational exhibit is unquestionably the most important special duty that confronts the teachers and friends of education in Linn county at this time. It is a responsibility that all must share.

The support of every teacher and progressive citizen is solicited to make the exhibit a success. May we not be "weighed in the balance and found wanting." Our exhibit will come directly into comparison with that from other counties and states of the union. The educational department of the exposition desires to make a carefully graded exhibit from the primary grades of the public school to the University.

Each school district in the county is cordially invited to send something for the exhibit. Local interest and local pride will certainly stimulate each to do its best.

The Christian Revival.

The services yesterday were well attended throughout. The sermon last night on "Religion" has excited comments in many circles today. Evangelist Harlow believes in a religion in harmony with the known laws of the mind.

With Mahara.

Louise M. Loston, "the American Nightingale" as a member of Mahara's Minstrels is something pleasant to contemplate by theatre-goers, especially those particularly interested in musical affairs.

Was a Theatrical Treat.

The Rivals was presented at the opera house Saturday night to a large and very much pleased audience. This splendid old play of Sheridan's was given in an artistic way with the Jeffersons, sons of the great Joe Jefferson of Van Winkle fame, in the leading roles.

President Lee spent Sunday at Lebanon. Mrs. Sarah Pierson Adams came over from Corvallis.

Miss Adah Ward is in Salem the guest of her brother Frank. Mrs. F. M. Westfall returned this noon from a trip to Portland.

Miss Lizzie Chesney has gone to Portland to stand the winter. Mr. C. E. Starnard, of Brownsville, was an Albany visitor today.

Mrs. Frank E. Toews and son returned Saturday evening from their Kansas trip. Miss Velle Irving, of Portland, is visiting in Albany, her home for many years.

Rev. and Mrs. W. P. White left this afternoon for Newport for a week's recuperation. Lawyer B. F. Jones, of Toledo, went to Salem today in the interest of a dylking law.

W. W. Allingham, of St. Johns, is here, the guest of his father-in-law, Mr. Scott Ward.

DEATH OF EDWIN STONE.

Badly Burned and Perhaps Murdered.

A CASE ENVELOPED IN MYSTERY.

Mr. Edwin Stone, manager of the Corvallis and Eastern Railroad Company left for Newport and Seal Rock Saturday with a view of purchasing some property at Seal Rock of Mr. Nice. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Weatherford and Mr. E. J. Sealey, the latter going in connection with a creamery proposition. The party went to the Abbey House. In the evening Mr. Weatherford and Mr. Stone were both shaved at the barber shop. Mr. Weatherford went to the hotel to bed, and Mr. Stone after being shaved accompanied by the barber and Mr. Ed. Sullivan, of Newport, went to Williams' saloon, where Mr. Stone treated, drinking only a part of a glass of wine. While there a hobo, who had been hanging around the town, struck him for some money, and was told by Mr. Stone that he had none for him. Then Mr. Sullivan accompanied Mr. Stone to his room in the Abbey annex, opposite the main hotel, Mr. Stone undressed, turned the lamp down and retired, asking Mr. Sullivan, a friend of many years, to close the door after going out. Two Heppner men having a room directly under Mr. Stone's room between 12 and 1 o'clock heard a noise above them and then a sound of a body. It excited their suspicion, and they went out on the street, found a man who went back with them. They smelled fire as they ascended the stairs, gave the alarm at the Abbey House, and upon going to the room of Mr. Stone, found it full of smoke and Mr. Stone lying on the floor badly burned. The bed clothes were burned some as well as the carpet, but it was a smothering fire. Mr. Stone said to Mr. Weatherford:

"I would like to know who got away with me" and soon became unconscious, not regaining consciousness. The kerosene lamp had been knocked off the stand, exploding, the oil scattering over the floor. Mr. Stone was burned on the forehead and other parts of the head, on the abdomen and on the legs. The skin was partially skinned off the forehead, and it is possible there had been a blow struck there, one arm was black from the grip of a hand. Dr. Carter attended him and came to Albany with him on a special train about 4 o'clock. Dr. Davis was called yesterday and Drs. Ellis and Wallace this morning after his death. An examination revealed the fact that the skull was uninjured, but there are signs of a blow of some kind. The strange hobo, who had been seen in the saloon, was hanging around the annex and claimed to have taken room there, but this was found to be untrue. He is also said to have taken Stone's coat from the room, which was recovered. Mr. Stone's vest and pants were both placed in his bed out of sight upon retiring.

It is possible that the hobo stranger will be arrested charged with the murder of Mr. Stone. He is under the eyes of Sheriff Ross and will be watched. Edwin Stone was born in Wisconsin 55 years ago. In 1884 he crossed the plains with an uncle, then 14 years of age. He went to Canyon City, where he worked in a butcher shop. Then he went into the mines in Montana, going from them into Missoula, where he engaged in the general merchandise business. One of his clerks was A. E. Hammond. The two formed a partnership. Mr. Stone was elected county treasurer, and becoming interested in politics, retired from the mercantile business. He worked awhile in different capacities for the Northern Pacific. When Mr. Hammond secured the Oregon Pacific road and reorganized it, Mr. Stone was made manager, a position he afterwards filled until his death. A poor boy he worked his way up. The deceased leaves a wife and one son, Will Stone, W. F. agent at Eureka, Calif. The latter is expected here Wednesday morning, when arrangements for the funeral will be made. He was a member of the Elks, being the present Exalted Ruler of the Albany Lodge, and of the Knights Templars A. F. & A. M.

J. C. Hammell, of the Hotel Corvallis, was in the city today. He is a cousin of Jack Hammell of this city. Mrs. J. H. Simpson, of Corvallis, and Mrs. Nutting, of this city, went to Portland this morning to hear Melba tonight.

W. R. Burks has returned from a trip to his former home near Sheridan, leaving 16 inches of snow on the ground. Mrs. Metzger and son returned this noon from a visit with Salem friends. Mr. Lawrence Metzger is now working in Ryan's barber shop of the capital city.

F. A. Falkenburg, head consul of the Woodmen of the World, one of the ablest fraternal men in the U. S., is lying dangerously ill at Los Angeles, with Bright's disease of the kidneys, and is not expected to live. Roy Duffin, a boy in the boys and girls' school at Portland, escaped last week and came up the valley. He was found by Chief of Police McClain yesterday and has been taken back to the school. He was formerly of Corvallis.

Mr. Lowell Tweedale, with Bille Taylor, the confectioner, of Salem, spent Sunday in Albany. The Democrat man appreciates a box of Bille's best candies. There is nothing like having "acted" with a first-class confectioner in early days.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young and daughter Isabelle, left this morning for Portland, from which place they will go to San Francisco this week. Mrs. Young and daughter will go east to visit the former's mother, and Mr. Young will return home.

President Charles Coopy came up from Portland last night to complete the arrangements with subscribers of stock. He expects to make things hum in the mill this year. A fine flag with the name of the mill upon it was raised over the mill today. Everything possible is being done to begin work on the proposed factory.

UNION SERVICES

Close After a Fruitful Season.

The union evangelistic services closed last night with an immense meeting at the Methodist church, which was packed, with some standing. Rev. W. P. White preached the closing sermon, an able one on the inspiration of the Bible causing many to think seriously. There were thirteen confessions.

The meetings have been very successful both from the standpoint of the numbers of confessions and the splendid spiritual results among the church members of the churches interested, who have been united in a fellowship that means much for the future of religion in Albany.

The work is not yet completed, part of the churches not having had their services of admission to membership, but the results so far as can be given now are: the Baptists, 45 to 50; Methodists, 25; Presbyterians, 18; United Presbyterians, 18; the others about 10; a total of about 115 who will be added to the churches.

TUESDAY.

An Interesting Lecture.

Evangelist W. E. Harlow has been urged to deliver his lecture on "The New Thought" and has consented to do so on Thursday evening. Our own minds are about as little known and understood as any thing in the universe. Hypnotism, spiritualism, faith cures, christian science, etc., which are looked upon as mysteries or miracles all appear in a new light when studied scientifically. The real power of mind over body can be known and is being investigated. Mr. Harlow is up with the foremost thinkers in these lines and his clear pointed way of presenting things, with his excellent use of simple illustrations will make many things clear even to those who have not thought along these lines. We are all anxious to sift truth from error in all lines. The lecture will be at the Christian church, at the very low admission price of 25 cts.

Lane Objects.

The people of Lane county are considerably disturbed over a bill introduced by Representative Cavender providing for the changing of the boundary line between Lane and Linn counties in such a manner that Linn county will secure some of the Blue River district, formerly in this county. A petition has been circulated in Lane county against it and it will be fought from their standpoint.

Rev. G. W. Nelson received a dispatch today that his father, Andrew Nelson, had died in that city, and left for there this afternoon. Andrew Nelson was 81 years of age and had been a resident of Seattle for 30 years, going there from Nebraska and Kansas. He leaves four sons and two daughters.

AN S. P. CHANGE.

The Dining Car Service to Be Begun.

Mr. Chris Vandran, proprietor of the depot hotel today received notice that beginning tomorrow a regular dining car service will be begun on the Southern Pacific. Under this service the noon train and afternoon train will stop only ten minutes just long enough for the extensive business of the city.

It is reported that there will be a change in the running time of the afternoon train. Manager Calvin yesterday, in Eugene, according to the Guard, stated that another train, a fast flyer, would soon be put on the road, stopping only at large points, and that an additional train will be put on between Eugene and Portland, the present Albany local having all the business it can attend to.

The San Francisco-Portland line is to be improved generally, with a much faster service.

A Maccabee Surprise.

He and Mr. Allen are endeavoring to settle their suit with A. J. Cranwell, who recently bought three stores which he sells as fast as possible and then settles with his victims. Another former Albany man came very near getting hold of one of his stores. With books padded showing big sales he easily gets men to buy and thus is said to do considerable of a business. Ross and Allen have filed their answer in the suit against them.

The Christian Revival.

The special service are maintaining good interest and there are persons added to the church at every service. The house was well filled last night. Visitors were present from the churches in Eugene and Brownsville. The subject for tonight is "Rebuilding the Walls." The music will be of the same high order. The people are invited.

Oregon Industries.

The Daily Recorder: John McKinney will establish a foundry at Woodburn, Or., that will employ from 25 to 30 men. W. E. Miller will erect at once a two story hotel building in Wasco, Ore. It will cost $20,000 and have all modern conveniences. A business mens committee of Klamath Falls, Or., has started to raise a bonus of $100,000 for the building of the so-called Wood railroad by the Klamath Development Co. A change of ownership in the Ashland Iron Works removes a disagreement as to the policy to be pursued and the company will now rebuild on the extensive grounds owned by it near the railroad track in Ashland. A large amount of money will be expended on the new plant.

Mahara's Minstrels.

One of the big novelties in Minstrelsy this season and a leading feature with Mahara's Minstrels is the appearance in the first part of twelve handsomely costumed lady vocalists. This double sextette of ladies are graduates of the famous Dunavin Musical College, where all high grade colored musicians are educated. It is an acknowledged fact that the singing features of this organization compares favorably with the finest operatic companies in existence and surpass in excellence of harmony all so-called Minstrel vocalists. It has always been the endeavor of Mahara Brothers to excel in singing features, and these ladies aided by twenty male voices in grand chorus certainly prove that the management has struck the keynote which pleases and also invigorates the life of minstrelsy. In Albany next Friday night.

Albany College will not have an orator in the intercollegiate contest. It should have had. Mr. Carl Hodes today moved into his new home in the third ward recently purchased by him.

The government weather prediction is tonight and Wednesday fair. The river is falling and is 6 feet above low water. Two Eugene boys 11 and 12 years of age skipped out last night and came this way.
