HOT SPRINGS BURNED.

Many Building Destroyed and Four Lives Lost.
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 25.—(Special)—Fire devastated a large district in this city this morning. Many hotels, public buildings, and a hundred houses were burned. Four lives were lost and the fire loss will exceed $2,000,000.

Railroad Bill Passed.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 25. (Special).—The Railroad rate commission bill passed the house this morning.

Fighting Resumed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—A dispatch from Sachetun, dated February 24 says: The Japanese in superior numbers forced the Russian detachment at Tsinkhetchen to abandon their base at Beresneff Hill. The battle has been desperate on both sides. The result is not yet known.

Another Assassination

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Warsaw correspondent of the London Morning Leader wires that Prince Vasilchkyk has been murdered. The Prince, who has won for himself great hatred because of his active work against the students and strikers of Warsaw in his capacity of head of the military, was labeled No. 2.

Washington Gets It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The House today concurred in the Senate amendments to Representative Jones' bill dividing the State of Washington into two judicial districts and the bill now lacks only the signature of the President to make it a law.

Oregon Does Not.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Mitchell bill dividing the State of Oregon into two judicial districts is dead. Representative Williamson has worked long and earnestly to secure favorable action on this bill in the House and just before his indictment secured favorable report from the committee on judiciary.

IN AND AROUND ALBANY.

The crowd is testing the capacity of the hotels.

Corvallis and Lebanon are connected by the Independent lines.

Sauer kraut and sweet pickles just received at Walter M. Parker's.

The government weather prediction is tonight and Sunday fair. The river is 5.5 feet.

Attend the ball at the Lawson Dancing Academy, Friday evening, March 3rd, 1905.

Brownsville this week has had in competition a free Quaker medicine show and a revival.

On account of the big W. O. W. gathering the regular meeting of the Order of Lions will not be held tonight.

The Senate of Albany College is somewhat of an august body itself. One toast last night was 37 minutes long.

The Women of Woodcraft of Brownsville are preparing to present Nevada, a play in Albany several times, in a week or two.

Mr. Geo. L. Thompson, in the hospital, upon whom an operation was recently performed for appendicitis, continues to improve.

Mrs. H. W. Locke of Portland will open a new and up-to-date line of millinery in the near future in a part of the building occupied by the furniture store of N. D. Pratt & Co.

Scio News: A little child of T. Rice of Albany, this week fell on a sharpened lead pencil, which penetrated the throat. Dr. Prill was called, but found no great amount of damage done.

Some fine concert music on the street this afternoon by the Salem and Oregon City bands. More to-night. The W. O. W. are relieving the goods. Seven bands in these days when many bands have disbanded, is good.

Albany people wishing prompt and efficient work in drayage business of any kind, heavy or light will find the drays of Mr. W. R. Birks, of the Albany Transfer Co. capable of good work, with satisfaction guaranteed.

Prof. Robinson is showing himself to be the right man for the presentation of Queen Esther. He has put the play on several hundred times and his instructions are thorough. The best of all cantatas Albany people will give it big houses.

The O. A. C. basket ball team arrived this noon and tonight will play the Albany girls' team their second game. Two of the regular O. A. C. team are ill, and their places will be filled by subs, who, though, are said to be just about as good. The game promises to be a fast and close one.

Albany's Opportunity.

People who have never witnessed a real metropolitan continuous polite vaudeville show will do well to visit the Opera House tonight. Eight special acts will be introduced in rapid succession. 15 cents admission up stairs, 25 cents down stairs.

MISFITS.

A Mixture of Things and Thoughts

Scott vs. Mitchell red hot again.

The Woodmen of the World have hold of the ax today.

Good weather is appreciated for the big Woodmen gathering.

The Portland papers are having a bout as much base ball agony as if the game were on.

Things have changed. It cost only $7,000 to discover America, including the cost of the entire fleet.

Albany girls say they will answer their own letters from the east, without any assistance from any commercial club secretaries.

"What fools do sometimes accumulate $10,000 or more," says the Journal, and, what a lot of fools do not. Some do and some don't. The money hasn't anything to do with it.

A young man took his best girl to church and stopping at the end of one of the back pews turned to the usher and said, "I guess we can squeeze in here." "Yes," said the usher with a smile, "I guess you can, but probably it would be better for all concerned to wait until you get home."
