The two juvenile missionary societies of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon enjoyed a hay rack ride to a grove this side of Jefferson, where they spent several hours in picnic style. They were chaperoned by Rev. Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Scott and Mrs. E. E. Montague, with Mr. R. S. Wilkins as their driver. They returned home in the evening.

A Pleasing Recital.

The M. E. church was filled last evening on the occasion of the annual recital of the pupils of Miss Eva Felix. The program showed the splendid training received. Seven performers were under thirteen, displaying splendid talent for ones so young.
The program consisted of Tallman's Festival March by Leona Propat and Lena Senders, Becker's Passion Flower by Gertrude Reeves, Hovarth's Serpentine Dancer by Robert Williamson and John Huston, Wohlfahrt's Sunshine Polka by Hazel Thompson and Roberta Veal, Haydn's Gipsy Rondo by Lena Senders, Goerdeler's Polka by Winnie Austin and Ethel Gourley, Loeschorn's Dora Bella by Frances Nelson, solos My Little Queen and Good Night by A. M. Hammer, Polonaise, Dances of the Cranes and Picnic in the Woods by Louise and Merle Nimmo, Dreyschock's Gavotte and Musette by Grace Brownell, Rondoletto and May Bells by Hazel Broders, Orth's Wheel Whirl by Lena Senders and Rustle of Spring by Frances Nelson.
The program was greatly appreciated and the young performers received many compliments.

After 22 Years.

Mr. John Starns, of this city, has returned from Corvallis, where he has been on account of the illness of his aged father. For the first time in 22 years all the members of the family and twelve grand children were present, making a complete family reunion of the father and mother and three sons and five daughters, who reside at Corvallis, Walla Walla, Thorp and Dixie, Wash., Lane, Linn and Crook counties and Rufus, Or.

Will Be Ordained.

A meeting of the Presbytery of the Willamette was held in the Presbyterian church this afternoon for church business.
Tonight a session will be held for the ordination of Rev. Geo. T. Pratt, who recently graduated from the Auburn theological seminary. Rev. Louis M. Anderson, a former fellow student in Albany college, will preach the sermon. Rev. Griswold will offer the ordination prayer and Rev. E. J. Thompson will make the charge.

A Union Anniversary.

The 26th anniversary of Laurel Lodge Knights of Pythias No. 7, and the 13th of Alpha Temple No. 1 Rathbone Sisters was celebrated last night in a union session. A live time was had with a fine literary and musical program and some choice refreshments. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion. Like all K. P. affairs it was a success and quite entertaining.

WANTED.—50 cords of big Oak wood, sticks must be at least 4 inches in diameter, also 50 cords of body fir, big chunks. The wood may be either in 2 or 4 foot lengths, but must be FULL MEASURE. Bids for furnishing all or a part will be received up to June 12 by F. J. Miller, Albany Iron Works, or by A. C. Schmitt, First Nat'l Bank.

For the Fair.

Through the Women's Lewis & Clark committee a fine lot of flowers and plants this afternoon were sent by express to Portland for the opening day of the fair. Some fresh vegetables and fruits were also shipped for the opening day. Among the things exhibited will also be a dozen Black Minorca eggs, raised by the fowls of W. E. Baker, the eggs weighing an even 36 ounces.
F. M. French and W. A. Eastburn went to Portland this morning to assist in completing the placing of the Linn county exhibit in position. It will be ready to be seen tomorrow noon when the fair opens, a credit to the banner county of the valley, covering the splendid resources of this county well.
The mining exhibit from this county will be a good one. To add to the ore already on the ground Judge Stewart has just received a vial of gold dust from G. B. Whitcomb, of the Big Bottom country, and some pretty wire ore from the Albany mines has been secured.
