

HEAD SOLID SORE

Awful Suffering of Baby and Sleepless Nights of Mother.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Skin Fair as a Lily with no Scar to Recall Awful Sore Writes Mother.

"I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease eczema," says Mrs. Wm. Ryer, Elk River, Minn., "which caused my babe untold suffering and myself many sleepless nights. My babe was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of, but nothing seemed to help; in fact, it grew worse. Her hair fell out where the sore was, and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment right away. "To please him I did so, and to my surprise by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a lily, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore, and it is over eight months and no sign of its returning."

CURE PERMANENT

"Your letter of the 19th inst. received, asking in regard to the cure of my baby some six years ago. Well, the disease has never returned to her head which at that time was a solid sore on top and down the back." Mrs. Wm. Ryer, Elk River, Minn. Feb. 25, 1903.

Died at the Poor Farm.

Two days ago an old man went to the home of Scott Ward and asked for the privilege of lying down in his barn and resting. Mr. Ward thought he had been on a spree and let him go in. He remained there until this morning. It was found yesterday that he was very sick with an aggravated case of hernia. Mr. Ward tried to get him to eat, but he would only take some hot coffee, declaring that he was not hungry. This morning by direction of the county judge he was taken to the poor farm and Dr. Myers attended to him, but he was in a bad condition and lived only a short time. The man was a cook on the Spaulding log drive, it is said being paid off at this city, and then spending considerable of his money for liquor. His name could not be learned. The man worked at the Royal Restaurant for two or three days and is said to have been addicted to opium as well as liquor.

Caught a 46-Pound Salmon.

Salmon were jumping high and running fast in Yaquina Bay this morning, and the water was covered with boats and amateur fishermen. One of the biggest catches was by Roy Nutting, of the DEMOCRAT office, who pulled in a 46 pounder after considerable of a fight. The sport is said to be great.

Runaway Boys.

Three Portland boys about fifteen years of age ran away from home this week, coming up the valley. Two of them were captured at Salem, and the other Edward Ward, continued his journey south as far as Albany, where Chief of Police McClain last night captured him and this afternoon shipped him to Portland. Few runaway boys look ahead more than a mile or two.

Loss Adjusted.

W. B. Honeyman, an old foundryman, of Portland, was in the city yesterday and completed the adjustment of the loss of the Albany Iron Works by the recent fire. The amount of loss on the patterns was approximately that estimated by the DEMOCRAT $1650, on the building $350, the total being $2000.

Died at Hubbard.

F. G. Will went to Hubbard this morning to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Will, mother of E. L. Will, of Portland, and George Will, of Salem, who died this week. Mrs. Will is highly spoken of by those knowing her as a woman of splendid character and worth.

William M. Hoag, who is in the city, informs the DEMOCRAT that he would like to dispose of his Albany property, being unable to look after it personally. He owns the fine lot at the corner of First and Lyon Street, a splendid location for a business block. When questioned he stated that he does not intend to build upon it.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon in and for the county of Lincoln.

Mary J. Tucker, plaintiff, vs. J. O. Tucker, defendant.

F. J. O. Tucker, the above named defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled cause and to file your answer on or before the 28th day of August, 1905, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as herein required, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court above named for the relief prayed for in her said complaint, namely: for a decree of the above entitled court forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plain if and the said defendant, and for such further decree, judgment and relief as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is published in THE ALBANY DEMOCRAT, a weekly news, newspaper, and of general circulation, in Linn County, Oregon, for six consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of July 7th, 1905, and ending with the issue of August 25th, 1905, under the signature of an officer made by the Hon. C. H. Stewart, Judge of Linn County, Oregon, being the county in which the same is instituted, dated the 29th day of June, 1905.

WEATHERFORD & WYATT Attorneys for Plaintiff

F. G. Powers, who recently sold his mercantile business in Tangent, left today for St. Johns, where he will be joined by his family next week, and reside. Mr. Powers has bought an acre tract at St. Johns for $1500. It has a good house, barn and some good fruit trees. Mr. Powers intends to make a specialty of poultry and eggs for the market. He believes there is a fine prospect for St. Johns. Mr. Powers was once in business in Albany, going from here to Lebanon and thence to Tangent.

Oregon's Poultry Display.

C. D. Minton, editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal and circulation manager of the Pacific Homestead, has been appointed commissioner for Oregon by the poultry department of the Lewis and Clark exposition. Mr. Minton will have full charge of the poultry exhibit from this state and will put forth his best efforts to have a large display of the feathered beauties in the coops when the show opens on Thursday, October 5, next.

Rebekah Picnic.

Don't forget the picnic at H. Bryant's Park on Tuesday, August 15, 1905, by Beulah Rebekah Lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F. There will be delicacies in abundance to nourish, delight and strengthen the inner man.

The members of the Lodge will meet at the Library Room in Odd Fellows Temple at One o'clock p. m. Members will provide themselves with such good things as moss tickle the palate and make glad the hungry.

Remember the date and place, Tuesday, Aug. 15, 1 o'clock, Odd Fellows Library, Bryant's Park.

Tuesday night a passenger, W. G. Terry, on the overland going south was robbed somewhere between Salem and Roseburg of a pair of pants containing $105.

FRIDAY.

Bay Fishing.

Parties from the Bay today report not so many salmon jumping. Most of those caught have been silversides with a very few Chinook among them. The run seems to have been somewhat of a freak, but has offered an interesting time for fishermen, and those who have made catches have had their money's worth. How long the run will last isn't known, but probably not very long. A number will go tomorrow to enjoy the sport.

Fred Weatherford is at Yaquina after big fish.

J. M. Templeton, a prominent resident of Honolulu, H. I., was in the city today on a visit with his former Pasadena, Calif., neighbor, Dr. Cynthia Ramsey, while on his way to Pasadena on a visit previous to returning to Honolulu. He has been at the Lewis and Clark fair. Mr. Templeton is an old schoolmate of Judge W. S. McFadden of Corvallis, and the late State School Superintendent E. B. McElroy, with whom he performed in a band when a boy.

Robert Douglas, the champion vegetable raiser, went to Portland this afternoon to see what is going on at the Lewis and Clark. It is doubtful if any one in the valley has furnished quite as many things as Mr. Douglas for the fair, and has more coming, some sixty or seventy pound half grown pumpkins and things like that, which will soon be ready. Mr. Douglas is entitled to a trip to the fair whenever he feels like it.

A Portland P. O. Position.

Prof. C. V. Ross, recently of the Albany schools, has secured a position in the Portland post office. Under the civil service in competition with five young men he stood at the top and landed the clerkship plum. Mr. Ross is a young man of fine attainments, and his Albany friends will be glad to know of his good fortune.

A North Fairview Strike.

Word has been received here that another rich shoot of ore has just been entered in the North Fairview mine in Bohemia. The information came by telephone, stating that the ore was very rich, showing much free gold, but did not state the width of the ore body. The company has already passed through some splendid ore bodies.—Guard. A number of Albany men have stock in these valuable mines.

Between Yaquina and Albany.

On account of the present large amount of travel between Albany and Yaquina the distances and elevations between the places will be of general interest. Following is the table, a good thing to save:
