John G. Wooley, the famous temperance man, one of the most eloquent men in the United States, will speak at the opera house on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, under the auspi es of the Good Citizenship League, in favor of local option and against the amend-ment. There will be no admission fee.

IN ALBANY YET.

The Oregonian yesterday contained nn interesting item about the body of Dr. Lim Tong, the Albany Celestial druggist, who recently died in this city. According to it the body of a Chinaman had been placed on board an Asiatic steamer for shipment. The sailors supposed it was that of the rich Al-buny doctor, and had hidden it, so the Coolie sailors could not break open the cofin and steal the money generally deposited in such cases, whereas it was learned that it was only the body of a laborer who had just enough money left to get home dead, and that the body of the Albany doctor was in the receiving warchouse at Portland wait-ing shipment. As a matter of fact Lim Tong's body had been placed on board an Asiatic

As a matter of fact Lim Tong's body As a matter of fact Lim Tong's body is at Fortmiller Bros., undertaking parlors, with only about thirty cents in his mouth. Mr. Fortmiller on his recent trip to Portland made arrange-ments for the shipment on the 26th of the month. Leung Jew Hing, the Portland Celestial, looking atter the matter, re-turned to Portland this morning. No one knows anything about how much Lim Tong left, but it was considerable.
