MARRIED.

Ellis--Savage.

Mr. Harold Alonzo Ellis and Miss Stella Jane Savage were united in marriage at the Congregational parsonage, Albany, Wednesday, May 23, 1906, at high noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Nelson in the presence of a number of relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. Roy L. Ellis acted as groomsmen and Miss Pearl Savage, a sister of the bride, as bridesmaid.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ellis of this city. He is a young man of excellent character, good ability and industrious habits. The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Charlie Kiefer of Albany, is a native Oregonian and one of Albany's worthy and winsome young ladies and deservedly popular among a large circle of acquaintances.

The happy young couple will begin house-keeping at once and will reside on East Second street.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

E. C. Heckman went to Portland this morning.

Rev. J. W. McDougall went to Portland this morning.

A. Brownell was a business visitor in Salem this forenoon.

W. O. Nisley, the piano tuner, is in the city on a business trip.

Mrs. Nellie Ritchie was committed to the asylum from Portland yesterday.

Miss Bessie Irvine, of Corvallis, has been in the city the guest of her cousin, Mrs. O. P. Dannels.

Mrs. E. A. Parker, of Cottage Grove, is in the city on a visit at the home of her son W. M. Pakker.

J. A. Simpson, of Salem, has been in the city on a visit with his brother of the Magnolia Laundry.

Prof. W. H. Martin of Brownsville has moved to a farm near this city recently purchased by him.

Miss Flora Mason, of this city, has seen Vesuvius, most famous of all volcanoes, and is now doing other parts of Europe.

Lawyer R. A. Miller, of Oregon City, democratic candidate for attorney general, came up last night to attend the state grange.

Judge R. P. Boise, ex-grandmaster of the Grange, came up this noon to attend the state grange, which he rarely misses.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church last evening gave a pleasant social at the parsonage, greatly enjoyed by a large crowd of young people.

Miss Isabelle Young yesterday afternoon received a company of her young friends in honor of Helen Heston, Majorie Hermiston and Carolyn Cannon.

Judge Virgil Waters and Ex-Judge W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, will speak at the court house tonight on what local option has done for Corvallis.

The Misses Wright last evening entertained the C. U. T. E. Club in honor of Miss Hazel Rolfe, who is to leave tomorrow for her new home at Klamath Falls.

Hon. R. A. Miller, of Oregon City, democratic nominee for attorney-general, was in the city today. Mr. Miller is an able lawyer and a man popular with the people.

Thos. Heffron, of Seattle, a former Albany young man, passed through the city this noon on a trip to Southern Oregon in the interest of the Seattle Brewing and Malt Co.

C. V. Cooper, of Portland, has been in the city in the interest of the anti-woman suffrage movement. He is the gentleman referred to in a column article in last night's Portland Journal.

Last evening at the residence of C. O. Lee a pleasant farewell reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Price by their neighbors, previous to their leaving today for their new home in Portland.

Run Into an Argument.

The sorrel team of Hughes & Knox this forenoon became frightened, and breaking loose from a wagon of telephone poles took a run down Second street. At the corner of Second and Broadalbin street one of them broke up a local option argument, tipped over a box of cabbage plants and fell on the cement walk, where he was controlled without any damage to the horse. The other took a longer run and was finally captured.

Building in Albany.

The corner stone of the new Bussard block was laid last night and the walls are going up with a rush. This is Albany's first concrete block, and its construction is being watched with great interest.

On the opposite side of the street the new Kobson & Carter brick is going up, making the north end of Broadalbin street about the busiest place in Albany.

Judge Hailey in Town.

Judge T. G. Hailey, of the supreme court, came up this noon on his way to different parts of the valley in the interest of his reelection. Judge Hailey has shown his fitness for the position in a marked manner. He is an able judge and a clean man personally, besides the supreme court should be non-political.

Too Small a Yard.

The work of the S. P. at this city has been rushed so another engine had to be secured from Junction to attend to the yard. One great trouble is the fact that the yard is much too small. The depot should be moved to the proper place for it this side the tracks and more rails laid.

THE GRANGERS

Hold Interesting Sessions.

An interesting feature of yesterday afternoon's session was a discussion of equal suffrage, in which Miss Laura Gregg took the affirmative in an able manner and a Mr. Butler, of Polk county the negative in a half hearted way, evidently appreciating the fact that the crowd was against him. 9:30 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. were set as the hours for meeting.

At the evening session, open to the public, the hall was packed, a large number standing.

Henry McElmurry presided. The program was opened with a well rendered piano solo by Miss Felix, after which Mayor Wallace delivered a splendid address of welcome on behalf of the city, and was followed by Dr. Leeper for the grangers. Superintendent W. L. Jackson on behalf of the schools of the county and Prof. H. L. Hopkins on behalf of the Albany college and higher education, in which the calling of the farmer was excited and its advancement set forth. Able responses were made by Grandmaster B. G. Leedy, President P. L. Campbell of the U. O. and Mrs. Clara Waldo the state lecturer.

Interpersed were songs by the temperance quartet, Messrs. Hammer, Roberts, Kennedy and McDougall, a vocal duet by Mrs. Brandeberry and Miss Dorgan, a whistling solo by Leo Howard and a reading by Oran Harkness, all of which took, the program closing with a piano solo by Miss Felix. I. A. Mason, of Hood River spoke on cooperation, showing practical results, he was followed by Mr. Stevenson along the line of a united work together for success.

The reports of different officers showed the Grange to be in a prosperous condition. Seven new Granges were organized the past year, and there are three juvenile Granges, making 97 Granges in the state with a membership of 5500. Several resolutions were introduced and referred.

An invitation from the C. & E. for a free ride to Corvallis to visit the O. A. C. was accepted, the trip to be made Thursday at 2 p. m.

Juvenile Granges was discussed by the lecturer. They are composed of children under fourteen, a kindergarten for future work.

C. H. Walker read a fine poem of greeting as follows:

Where Willamette's crystal waters,
Ripple by a city fair,
Oregon's Grange sons and daughters,
Meet in annual convolve there.

Waters murmur joyous greetings,
As they dash 'gainst massive piers,
Linn and Benton County meeting,
Each the call to service hears.

Arms of steel link earnest Patrons
Arms that span Willamette's flood;
Loyal grangers, men and matrons,
Gladly seek the common good.

Prairies grand stretch out in beauty,
Woodlands ring with sweetest songs;
These would cheer you on to duty,
In a work where zeal belongs.

Albany's warm hearted people,
Heartiest hand-shakes have for you;
Cottage, mansion, towering steeple,
Fain would welcome Patrons too.

Merry school bells loudly ringing,
Scholars, student join the chime;
This the strain all would be singing,
"May you have a pleasant time."

And our welcome will not weary,
As you champion the right;
Help to brighten homes now dreary;
Battling wrong with utmost might.

May God bless in richest measure,
Every noble work begun;
And when homes are sought, a pleasure,
May the Great Master "well done."

The executive committee made lengthy report on the work of the order suggesting that a series of prizes be offered for proficiency in grange work. The following resolution was passed unanimsly:

Resolved that it is the sense of the state grange of Oregon in session at Albany that the present local option law should be maintained in its present form without amendment.

The election of officers was begun this afternoon and was in progress at press time. Austin P. Buxton, of Forest Grove, was elected grandmaster on the third ballot after a spirited contest. Hon. J. H. Scott of Tangent receiving a popular vote for the position. Overseer, C. L. Shaw, Albany.

A Woman In The Case!

A Woman was at the bottom of it. She said to her husband, "Why don't you go to The Blain Clothing Co's and see what kind of clothes they have, anyway, instead of paying such high prices to have them made?"

The Man came, doubting at every step. Said he didn't think we could fit him, but just wanted to look around for curiosity. We persuaded him to try on a coat, and, of course, easily convinced him that his ideas of ready-to-wear clothes were all wrong.

There are not only different sizes, but different cuts—for the Stout Man, the Slender Man, the Tall Man, the Short Man, so that it is now the exception rather than the rule not to be fitted in our ready-to-wear clothes.
