DON MORRISON.

Famous in Athletics, Died in Portland.

At 9 o'clock last night, after an illness of several years. The world loses a splendid young man, beloved by many.

Don Morrison was born in Iowa, coming here with his father, Rev. J. M. Morrison and family, when two or three years of age, living for sometime in Eastern Oregon, then coming to the valley, finally settling in Albany. Young Morrison took the lead in the athletics of Albany College, probably being the best all-around athlete in the history of the college. At the McMinnville intercollegiate meet of '01 his score in points was the highest. He made a record in foot ball, both at half and full back, and was given a place on the all-Oregon team. Better than these, his personal character was clean, and he will be remembered for many noble qualities. His old schoolmates feel the deepest sorrow at the news of his death, which was undoubtedly the result of internal injuries received in athletics.

His sisters Mrs. Rev. G. W. Nelson, of this city, and Mrs. Bates of Corvallis, went to Portland this morning to attend the funeral, which will be at the residence of Rev. Morrison, at 575 E. Morrison St., tomorrow afternoon. He was 23 years of age, casting his first ballot at Albany in June 1904.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

E. L. Jones, the college student, returned last night from the Cascades.

Miss Jessie Cox went to Salem this morning on a few days visit with friends.

S. G. Irvine, Nye Creek's most prominent citizen, came over this forenoon on a business trip.

Miss Helene Robinson, of Eugene, arrived last evening on a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. V. Littler.

Mrs. E. Laforest went to Coburg this afternoon for a few days stay. Her mother Mrs. Barns is greatly improved.

Lawyer Tussing of Brownsville, one of the busiest lawyers in the county, was looking after business in Albany yesterday.

Mrs. J. O. Lee and Mrs. F. P. Nutting and daughters Dorothy and Violet returned this noon from two weeks at Nye Creek, pleasantly spent.

Bernie Longbottom, with the Northern Pacific, of Seattle, arrived on the overland last night on a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sam Worrell.

Miss Mable Shultz returned last night from Gearheart, where she had been to attend the annual convention of the Y. W. C. A. of Oregon Colleges. She had a pleasant and profitable time.

Hon. W. C. Hawley, congressman elect, was in the city last evening on his way home from Cascadia, and also to meet the river and harbor committee which will go to Astoria soon.

Harry and Don Holgate, former prominent young men Corvallis, were in the city yesterday on their way to Klamath Falls, their future home. Harry has a law office there and Don will study with him.

Mrs. W. E. Chandler, in business in Lebanon for several years, has made arrangements to open a general merchandise store at the cross roads half a mile west of Waterloo. She is a former Albany young lady, a sister of W. F. Read.

It Was Enjoyed.

The Lights of Frisco was presented at the opera house last night to the first audience of the season, good sized considering the number of people out of Albany at the fair grounds and picking hops. There was plenty of comedy and tragedy and all were pleased with the live presentation of the play. The play ends with the earthquake and a party home at Santa Rosa for the heroine.

A TEACHER'S SCHOOL

Now In Session at the College

The Linn county teacher's institute was convened at the college this morning at 9 o'clock, with a large attendance of teachers, nearly one hundred fifty being present.

Some of the best specialists in the Northwest are present to assist in the work.

Prof. H. C. Sampson, of Pullman, Wash., who arrived last evening, was the first speaker, delivering an address at the opening on Educational Ideals, an able effort along up-to-date lines, looking for the highest standard in the cause of education.

President Mulkey of the Ashland Normal school, lead the subject of civil government in the advanced section. This afternoon Prof. Sampson What's Worth While, Prof. Mulkey on history and Prof. Sampson on practical pedagogy, bringing out some general discussions and able thoughts.

In the primary section Miss Loretta Smith, critic teacher at the state normal, opened the work on primary reading, occupying the remainder of the forenoon after the Sampson address. This afternoon Superintendent Hayes conducted the discussion of the subject of number work and Miss Smith continued the subject of primary reading and President Mulkey child study.

Albany people will be given a treat in an address by President Mulkey tomorrow, Thursday night, at the opera house, on Hamlet. With it will be some good music. The admission will be free. Albany people should all attend.

Among others present who will take part in the institute work are Prof. Sheldon, of the U. of O., Miss Cordelia Marvin, secretary of the state library association, President Crooks, and of course Superintendent Jackson, who is entitled to much credit for the excellent organization of the work of the institute.

Rainy Season Begun.

The range of temperature yesterday was 41-75.

The rainfall for the day previous to 8 a. m. was .74 inch. It began raining here last night and kept it up during the night and day. The storm is evidently general, beginning up on the Sound two or three days ago, and coming southward through the valley and along the coast and ocean.

The river continues at 7 of a foot. F. M. French displayman.

Continues to Spread.

The Willamette Valley Co. yesterday completed the purchase of the water and light plant of Roseburg, making almost a complete line of plants between Portland and Roseburg on both sides of the Willamette. The name Willamette Co. is liable to have to be changed to the Oregon Co.

Public Sale.

There will be a public sale on Sept. 21 at 10 a. m. of surplus stock, consisting of 115 head of sheep, 10 head of cows and heifers, part fresh, 2 yearling Jersey bulls, and 45 heads of hogs, including brood sows etc.

CITY COUNCIL.

Present—Mayor, Recorder, Marshal, and Councilmen Pfeiffer, Tomlinson, Dawson and Bryant.

The following bills were ordered paid: Brandeberry & Wheeler $298.51, O. Ferguson $3.50, Will. Valley Co. $160.70, J. Whitesides $20.03, Hughes & Knox $28.50, R. Allen $34.80, R. L. White $16.00, W. H. Bowman $2.00.

Superintendent Payne recommended several cement walks, on Second, Lyon, 9th and Ellsworth streets. Ordered.

Several repairs on Ellsworth street were ordered to conform to fire ordinance, necessitating the change of flues.

Councilman Pfeiffer moved that the committee on fire and water investigate places ordered to have fire escapes and doors opening outward to ascertain if the order had been complied with, to report at next meeting.

Councilman Pfeiffer suggested an investigation of a system of hydrants for fire protection instead of the fire engines, reporting an offer of $100 a month for 75 hydrants to cover the city. Chief Engineer Kirsch favored the change. The matter was referred to the committee on fire and water. The cost to the Company would be about $10,000 the hydrants costing about $40 apiece.

The Recorder was directed to notify C. B. Settlemer to have the barn on Second street closed so that access to it will be impossible, as it was reported to be used as a nuisance now.
