

Branching Out.

St. Johns Review: President I. E. Richardson of the Eclectic Business University was in the city Wednesday in the interest of the Night School to be conducted in St. Johns this winter. He desires to meet the young people on Thursday afternoon and evening of next week—4 to 9 p. m. President Richardson is a man of much experience, and requires the highest standard of work. He places his students in the best positions. He will be assisted by Prof. A. A. Welch. His Portland office is 435 Worcester building. The people of St. Johns should take much interest in this school. Those interested should write President Richardson at once, and be sure to meet him next week when he comes to our city.

Died in Portland

Mrs. Junkin, known as Grandma Junkin, died in Portland yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ollie Jackson Stevens, at the age of 82 years. She was a pioneer, a resident of Linn county for many years, residing near Tangent. Her husband died many years ago. H. C. Jackson, of Sheed is a son, and Glen Junkin, of this city, a grandson. She was beloved by all knowing her. The remains were brought up this noon and taken to Tangent for burial.

Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

OPENING DAY.

A General Attack on China.

This was the opening day for upland birds, and the fields were full of hunters from daylight, when the crack of the Winchester and Marlin and Stevens, etc., began. Hunters have done well to get their limit, but there are rumors of some far in excess of the ten.

While a good many birds had been killed before hand there were plenty left, and great sport is reported.

Albany sent out a crowd. Prominent nimrods were also present from other places. Portland sent up quite a delegation, among them being Max Shillock of the Telegram, N. F. Sargeant, C. A. McCargar, L. E. Trent, H. D. Sill, H. H. Fish, Geo. H. Jeffries and J. R. Posson. E. D. Griggs and E. R. Wheeler, prominent Tacoma shots, came over here to get a few birds, and begin the midst of the sport.

A tariff law went into effect in Japan today.

S. N. Steele went to the Bay this afternoon.

Carl Hodes, of Portland, has been in the city on a visit.

Ed. Zeysa, carpenter at the asylum, went to the Bay today.

Mrs. Rev. Pratt and child left this noon for their home at Glendale.

The National Association retail druggists convened in Atlanta, Ga. today.

Dr. E. J. Thompson went to Independence and Corvallis this afternoon.

Judge Burnett, of Salem, was in the city this afternoon on a visit with his mother.

Jack Allen, in full dress suit, left this noon for Philomath, on telephone business.

The appointments of the M. E. conference in session at Portland will not be announced until tonight.

Toledo Leader.—W. E. Peterson, assistant C. & E. agent at Albany, visited his parents—also her—in Toledo last Sunday.

Walter Bilyeu returned to Portland this morning to resume his dental studies. He will graduate next spring.

A pleasant social event was a China shower in honor of Miss Jessie Cox who next Wednesday will become Mrs. Harry Lovell.

A sale of stuff on the poor farm has been made and the farm will be rented out, the lessee to board the inmates at a price to be agreed upon.

Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco left today on a three months European trip. Probably to escape the awful political tangle in San Francisco.

Rev. and Mrs. Babcock, of Salem, were in the city this afternoon on their way home from Newport, where they have been spending their honeymoon.

Mrs. A. C. Westgate Saturday evening entertained a number of young people in a pleasant manner in honor of her brother, of California, who is here on a visit.

Miss Goodin, one of the teachers in the Prineville schools, left this morning for that city, accompanied by Helen Oakes Elkins, after a visit with County Treasurer Elkins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sloan will leave tomorrow morning for Ellsworth, N. Dak., on a visit with their son Burr Sloan, the agency carpenter, expecting to remain three months.

Mr. Dave Hazen, of the Portland Telegram, came up Saturday evening, and took a ride with Mr. W. L. Marks through the country. Mr. Hazen is not a hunter, except after hewes, and did not go out today after birds.

R. G. Littler spent Sunday in Albany the guest of his brother, Dr. Ward Littler. He is a member of the West Coast Engineer Co., installers of telephone systems and electric light plants, which is doing a fine business.

Members of the M. E. conference came up to Salem this forenoon to conduct the dedication services of the new Kimball theological seminary, and will return to Portland this evening to complete the work of the conference.

The DEMOCRAT recently ran a want ad. for the Co-operative Land Co., Andrus Building, Minneapolis, Minn. It is now learned that the government has declared the concern fraudulent, an investigation revealing its fake character.

William Sproule, who has been freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific on this coast, today began working for the Great Northern Smelter trust at $50,000 a year. Mr. Sproule has been in Albany several times. He is succeeded by H. A. Jones.

A dispatch from Scio to the Salem Statesman says an electric railway will be built in the near future connecting Scio with Salem, that from Scio the line will extend up Thomas creek and Crabtree, tapping the fine belt of timber there, of which heavy purchases have been made the past month.

Mrs. Dr. Thomas, of Mollalla, returned this morning from a visit with Mrs. E. A. Parker, her sister, at Cottage Grove, and left for home this afternoon. Mrs. Thomas was one of the charter members of the Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church organized fifty years ago, when she was fifteen years of age. As she looks to be only about forty five it is difficult to realize the fact.

Mr. Winfield Scott Churchill and Miss Anna Rhoda Smith were united in marriage Sunday, September 30th, at 10:00 a. m. at the Congregational parsonage in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends, by Rev. G. W. Nelson. The young people are both native Oregonians. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Churchill, of Plainview and is a young man of excellent character and industrious habits. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, of Tangent, is a young lady of handsome bearing and real worth. After a short honeymoon spent among relatives and friends, the young couple will make their home on a farm near Plainview, Oregon, where they will be at home to their many friends who wish them the greatest happiness and highest prosperity.

Paul Rader in Town.

Rev. Paul Rader, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, spent yesterday in Albany, accompanied by Mrs. Rader. He preached an able sermon at the U. P. church in the forenoon on Christian Manhood, and delivered a pointed address in the afternoon at the Christian church, emphasizing a pledge to read: "I will vote for no man in whatever party who is known in any way to be favorable to the liquor traffic," and giving a history of the temperance movement from 1811, when Dr. Benjamin Rush started a reform against a habit so common all the ministers drank and many became intoxicated up to the present time. In 1840 Father Matthew swept Ireland with his temperance pledge and came to the United States. In 1855 New York State went dry and all New England, but the civil war with its demand for revenue came and the liquor tax made a new era. Mr. Rader stated that the blind pig in every dry county in the state would be attended to.

In the evening he spoke a few minutes at the Presbyterian church.

After Roseburg Franchise.

Lawyer C. L. McNary, of Salem, passed through the city yesterday on his way home from Roseburg, where he has been to secure a franchise for the Willamette Valley Co. The meeting of the city council Monday evening was the hottest in the history of the city. The old company is making a red hot fight against the franchise. The matter was postponed, but it is said the franchise will probably be granted later.

A Dollar for a Bottle.

A Corvallis man put a friend onto how he could get a bottle of liquor for a dollar, and in fact got it for him, receiving the dollar. The man who was a farmer put it in the straw in the rear of his wagon, but while he was hitching up the friend who had sold it to him stole it. This made the farmer mad and he complained to the proper officials and there was immediately an arrest and something done. The farmer continues to be thirty.

Fine Crop of Prunes.

The prune crop has practically been saved. Lassell Bros. report very little loss, no more than usual. The crop altogether is a big one and a credit to the valley as a fruit growing section, and shows what it can do in a good year. It is possible there may be yards that have not been properly attended to that are short, but will put a good deal of a fine one, and will put a good deal of money in circulation in the valley.

Prince Pointed for Them.

Among the Portland hunters who secured a few birds out in the fields around Albany were Dr. Jos. D. Sternberg, Lawyer Charles Sternberg, and Dr. Armstrong, a prominent physician, who got a string of seventeen birds about evenly divided. Dr. Sternberg brought with him his blooded bird dog Prince, whose picture was shown in the Sunday Oregonian, who did good work.

A peculiar case occurred at Salem this week. Sam Castro was arrested on the charge of assaulting C. A. Barrows at the fair ground a week or two ago. The evidence showed that Barrows did the assaulting, and Castro was discharged and Barrows arrested and fined $10.

SCALY ECZEMA ALL OVER BODY

Eruptions Appeared on Chest, and Face and Neck Were All Broken Out—Scales and Crusts Formed—lowa Lady Has Great Faith in Cuticura Remedies for Skin Diseases.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I had an eruption appear on my chest and body and extend upwards and downwards, so that my neck and face were all broken out; also my arms and the lower limbs as far as the knees. I at first thought it was prickly heat. But soon scales or crusts formed where the breaking out was. Instead of going to a physician, I purchased a complete treatment of the Cuticura Remedies, in which I had great faith, and all was satisfactory. A year or two later the eruption appeared again, only a little lower; but before it had time to spread I procured another supply of the Cuticura Remedies, and continued their use until the cure was complete. It is now five years since the last attack, and have not seen any signs of a return. I have taken about three bottles of the Cuticura Remedies, and do not know how much of the Soap or Ointment, as I always keep them with me; probably one half dozen of each.

"I decided to give the Cuticura Remedies a trial after I had seen the results of their treatment of eczema on an infant belonging to one of our neighbors. The parent took the child to the nearest physician, but his treatment did no good. So they procured the Cuticura Remedies and cured her with them. When they began using Cuticura Remedies her face was terribly disfigured with sores, but she was entirely cured, for I saw the same child at the age of five years, and her mother told me the eczema had never broken out since. I have more faith in Cuticura Remedies for skin diseases than anything I know of. I am, respectfully yours, Emma E. Wilson, Liscumb, Iowa, Oct. 1, 1905."
