

THURSDAY.

Doing His Best.

Being a deputy game warden is no snap. I. A. Munkers, one of the Linn county deputies, is one of the most efficient in the service, and none anywhere have covered the country better, and yet he has secured no violators of the law. He has examined dozens of hunters, but in every case nothing was found, but some other kind of bird than those prohibited. He doesn't believe there has been any such violation of the law as some are claiming. If there is he and the other deputies have been unable to find it. Such reports may be a good deal like reports generally, exaggerations.

Last evening there were eight more hunters licenses issued than at the same time a year ago.

Linn County Council.

There will be a meeting of the Linn County Business Council P. of H. at Grand Prairie Grange Hall on Saturday, Oct. 6, at 10 o'clock p. m. A delegate from all Granges is earnestly requested to be present.

W. H. McELMURRY, President. MAE PALVER, Secretary.

DR. M. H. ELLIS,

Physician and Surgeon. Albany, Oregon. Calls made in city and country. Phone Main 38.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn County.

Sassana Jungwirth, plaintiff vs. The Oregon and California Railroad Company and The Union Trust Company of New York defendants.

To the Union Trust Company of New York, the defendant above named.

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the amended complaint of the plaintiff above named in the above entitled court, now on file with the clerk of said court, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said amended complaint as hereby required the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said amended complaint, to wit: for a decree declaring the plaintiff to be the owner in fee simple of the whole of the hereinafter described premises, directing and requiring you to make, execute, duly acknowledge and deliver to plaintiff and other deed instead of a former destroyed conveyance said premises to plaintiff, and in default thereof that said decree stand as a deed, and for such other relief as to the court seems proper and for the distribution of this suit. Said real property above mentioned is described as follows, to-wit: The South half of the South East Quarter and the South East Quarter of the South West Quarter of Section Eleven in Township Ten, South of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian in Linn County, Oregon, containing 120 acres.

This summons is published in the ALBANY DEMOCRAT once a week for six consecutive weeks by order of the Hon. C. H. Stewart, County Judge of Linn County, Oregon, on the 29th day of August, 1906 and the date of the first publication hereof is August 31, 1906.

H. BRYANT & SON, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

BURGLARS AT HARRISBURG.

Two Places Entered. Not Much Taken.

During last night burglars entered two places at Harrisburg:

One was the store of May & Senders, where the burglar or burglars got inside by cutting a hole down through the roof in a peculiar kind of a way. The only things discovered gone this morning were two suits of clothes, there evidently being two men in the burglary.

The other place was the S. P. depot, where the safe was blown open and a few dollars taken, the exact amount not being known, but it is small.

Nothing was heard of it until this morning, when the harm was discovered. The tools used in the two affairs were taken from a local blacksmith shop.

Five Passenger Trains at Once.

It sounded like a railroad center at the depot this noon, with four S. P. passenger trains and the C. & E. train in the yards at one time. The morning overland arrived from the south in two sections and the Portland train from the north in two sections, crowding the yards for half an hour. It almost made the heads of the hotel men, mail carriers and reporters swim.

Will Phillips went to Portland this morning. Dr. M. M. Davis came over from Corvallis this afternoon.

117 students had registered at the U of O. last evening.

The Jewish day of atonement begins tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank W. Benson of Roseburg is visiting Mrs. Dudley Holland.

The Portlands continue to win: yesterday beating San Francisco 4 to 1.

E. C. Rogers, of Lebanon, went to Philomath this afternoon on a few days visit.

J. B. Roberts, of Sheild, father of E. C. Roberts, has moved to Albany to reside.

Mrs. J. F. Powell and child returned this noon from a visit with Philomath relatives.

Mrs. L. E. Hamilton last evening entertained her S. S. class of boys in a pleasant manner.

Dr. J. L. Hill went to Salem this morning, doubling up this week on his medical lectures.

Among the new college students is Miss Nona Miller, of Shelburn, a sister of County Clerk Miller.

J. S. Rankin, of the S. P. freight depot and family, went to Portland this morning on a few days visit with relatives.

Wallace Baldwin, former superintendent of the Albany water works, now of Corvallis, was in the city this afternoon.

E. C. Clement, the postal inspector and r. f. d. organizer, and C. B. Clement, commercial traveler, were in the city today.

Miss Myra Brown, city manager of the Eugene Pacific States office for many years, has resigned, being succeeded by Miss Nellie Wood.

The pheasants will have to look out next Monday. John Neeley has just bought one of those new pneumatic shot guns, the third he had here.

Prunes in some places are falling to the ground faster than they can be saved, and some will be ruined, but a big crop will be saved and dried, and the output will be big through the valley.

M. J. Roche, the passenger agent, of Portland, well known in Albany, is being slated for the presidency of the national association, to meet in the east in October.

Mr. W. Angus Currie, of Portland, an Albany young man many years ago, was in the city last night and this morning went up the C. & E. where he has some mining interests.

A Barnes yesterday found an envelope containing a letter signed by August and a $5 bill, with nothing to show the owner. So it was advised and last evening the owner called for it. Fortunately in having fallen into honest hands.

The case against Emil Etter, of Eugene, charged with violating the local option law, was dismissed. A man named Rimard, who had been arrested for being drunk and disorderly, was the complaining witness. He skipped and came north into Linn County.

J. O. Carter, the railroad man, and daughter left this morning for Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Carter was reported to have been seriously ill, at Vancouver, but was in Albany the next day and didn't know much about it himself.

The millinery opening at the Bazaar has been a great success, both in display and interest. The sales of the first day were the most in the history of the Bazaar for the first day, when people generally are simply looking around.

On account of the state convention coming at the time of our regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will meet in their hall Friday at 2:30. A good attendance is desired as we want to lay our plans for the coming year's work. Do not forget it will be rally day. Bring some one with you.

A tallyho party of the ladies of the U. P. church left this afternoon on a visiting trip with country members on both sides of the Calapooia, going to the homes of J. S. Robison, and W. J. Fisher on the west side, and John Fisher and Wert Albers on the east side.

Earl England returned this noon from Independence, where he has been during the hop picking season. The big Krebs yard has finished for the season, and most of them are all done, though there is a little picking left in one or two yards. The season there was a live one.

Louis Steinbach, a Roseburg bartender, yesterday was fined $100 for assaulting Policeman Kirk and $40 for assaulting Jos. Ligggett, night clerk at the Hotel Roseburg, who had protested against his profane language. He was said to have struck two waitresses who took Ligggett's part, and when the officer came Steinbach, a six footer, at once floored him. He submitted to the marshal.

Portland shook up San Francisco again yesterday 2 to 1, and has a pennant in her grasp.

Warrants for Five

Chauncey L. Williams, of Halsey, was in the city today with his head somewhat disfigured. He has rented his place to a family named Curtis. Yesterday he went there to store a threshing machine, claiming to have reserved the right, when he was refused the privilege, and according to his version the entire family jumped upon him, giving him a live beating.

A warrant was issued out of W. L. Thompson's court for the arrest of five of them, and Sheriff Smith left this afternoon to make the arrest.

The Conference.

The annual conference of the M. E. church is in session in Portland. Rev. McDougall of this city is on the committees on domestic missions and conference relations. The Oregonian says: Rev. B. F. Rowland, Presiding Elder of East Portland district, pleaded for funds for entering the fields that are awaiting church in Benton and Lincoln counties, where, in a radius of 20,000 square miles, he declared, there is hardly a house of worship and the people are without the gospel or Sunday schools for their children.

96 Boxes of Strawberries.

Owen Beam this noon received from the gardens of S. Lindsey, of Lebanon, four crates of strawberries, a rare sight for the last of September. They were fine looking berries and went like hot cakes at a fair. It is not often berries are in the market supplied by home gardeners in such large quantities at this season.

Eugene's New P. O.

The inspector of post offices is on his way from Washington to Eugene to select a site for the new building. The following bids are in: Mrs. Sanders $3850, J. M. Shelley $5,666.30, Haskell & Neas $11,500, Wm. Renshaw $12,000, L. L. Whitson $7,000, F. L. Chambers $9,500, J. T. Rowland & Co., $5,300, Mrs. F. Rostein $9,000, L. N. Koney $4,000, Elma and Norma Hendricks $15,000, L. Bilyeu $8,000.

Died Near Salem.

Mrs. W. F. Barrows died this week at the home of her son, A. C. Barrows, near Salem, at the age of 68 years. She was a pioneer of 1852, in that year settling near Halsey. In 1855 she was married to Wm. F. Barrows, who died eight years ago. Of eight children seven are living, all but one being present at her funeral. Since her husband's death she has resided with her children.

FRIDAY.

A $300 Find.

Morris Senders was walking along First street this forenoon when a green wad of paper attracted his attention on the cement walk. He thought it was an advertising scheme and came near passing it, but finally picked it up and discovered three crisp $100 bills, the looked good, and upon being taken to a bank were found to be genuine. Investigation revealed the fact that Mayor Wallace had dropped some money and the same was returned to him. A fortunate thing for the mayor that it fell into good hands. Suppose a hobo passing along and many not hobo had picked them up, it would have been good bye $300.

Portland shook up San Francisco again yesterday 2 to 1, and has a pennant in her grasp.

THE CURTIS FAMILY

Before Recorder Thompson, Ex. Of. J. P.

Sheriff D. S. Smith returned this forenoon from Halsey accompanied by William Curtis and his four muscular sons, Ellsworth, Chester, Seymour and Jay who were arraigned before Recorder W. Lair Thompson sitting as a J. P. and charged with assault with dangerous weapons, to wit: William with a club, Ellsworth with a club, Chester with a gun, Seymour with a gun and Jay with a fence board, upon the complaining witness, Chauncey L. Williams on September 26. Judge H. H. Hewitt represented them. They waived examination and were held under $1000 bonds for the father and $1000 each for each of the sons, to await the action of the circuit court. Mr. Alex Power was present and furnished the necessary bonds.

Mr. Williams was in court with his head bandaged, the result of the encounter.

Mr. Curtis has Mr. Williams farm rented. Williams wanted to store a threshing on the place, and the Curtis family objected, with the present result.

Mr. Curtis is a man of about 55 and his sons range from about seventeen to 25, pretty good looking fellows. The family is pretty well spoken of by those knowing them, but that doesn't help Mr. William's head.

1160 hunters licenses have been issued in Lane county.

Lawyer J. F. Yates, of Corvallis went down the road this morning.

Eugene's city council is wrestling with pavement and park propositions.

A Benton county sale: E. S. King to H. K. W. Taylor 34.67 acres near Albany for $2,000

Mayor Barney May, of Harrisburg, passed through the city on a trip north.

Miss Mamee Stevens has been visiting with Miss Edna Allen, of Corvallis this week.

Mrs. Rev. J. W. McDougall went to Portland this morning to join her husband and remain during the conference.

Al Waugh, a prominent resident of Toledo for many years, has moved to Olympia, Wash., where he will engage in business.

The Criterion says that with few exceptions the hunters at Lebanon have respected the game law, a creditable thing to them.

Miss Agnes Phillips, of Portland, returned home this morning after spending the summer at the home of her grandfather B. F. Purdon.

W. B. Glafke, a prominent Portland wholesale grocer, and Miss Sae Fanning, a former Telegram reporter, were married last evening in Portland.

W. E. Parker, of Plainview, was in the city today. He has just returned from a trip to Los Angeles. It was pretty warm but he enjoyed the experience.

Lasselle Bros. have shipped their first car load of prunes to the east, neatly packed for the market, the first of a seventy-five car shipment for the eastern market.

George Landreth, the barber, formerly of Albany, then of Toledo, was recently married at Grangeville, Idaho, to Mrs. Lavilla McNeill, at the home of the bride's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crawford and son Lee, of Turner, have been in the city today on a visit to the guests of Miss Perry. Mrs. Crawford is a member of the alumni of Albany College.

Howard Longbottom arrived last night from Johnston, Wash., and will attend Albany College the coming year, residing with his sister Mrs. S. C. Worroll.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simpson spent last night in Albany and this morning went to Portland. Their daughter Mrs. Cathey and daughter Margaret, are visiting at G. W. Simpson's.

The registration in the public schools is increasing rapidly, new scholars entering every day. The prospect is good for a prosperous year in the schools of the city, with good work in all the grades.

During two weeks previous to September 15, 1287 arrived in Oregon under the colonist rate. Portland got 322, 140 were for points south, the remainder scattering. The sale will continue to October 31.

Ashland Record: Miss Aileen Webber who has had charge of the department of instrumental music for the past three years, has resigned her position, and will spend a year studying in Portland.

A small wreck occurred at Junction yesterday. Two cars occupied by Greeks were tipped over by a through freight. A sick Greek in the car was not helped by the catastrophe, besides having a foot smashed.

Dr. J. C. Booth of Lebanon was in Portland this morning. He is a trustee of Santiam academy and will meet with the board in Portland to make arrangements for the completion of the transfer of the academy's property to Lebanon. With twelve grades in the high school the sentiment is that the field is filled.

John Shearer, of Oakville, was on his way to Albany yesterday when his team ran away throwing him out, bruising him some. The lines got wound around the wheel and stopped the horses, so that Mr. Shearer was able to continue his trip to the city, no damage being done the buggy.

Among the interesting places visited by Fred Dawson when in New York was the World building. It is 357-1-2 feet high, 26 stories, containing brick enough for 250 ordinary buildings 1000 windows and 500 doors enough iron for 23 miles of railroad or 43 miles of electric wire. There are eight elevators. The World, which uses 5,912 miles of paper for an edition, occupies 83 rooms and 143 are rented.

Picked Eleven Boxes.

Mrs. Ridders and daughter Lena, of Suver, were in the city today. Miss Lena carried off all the honors at the yard of Fred Stump, making a record one day of eleven boxes. Pretty good for a young lady of eighteen.

SMALL PHONE WAR.

Something Doing Across the Willamette

Yesterday some Home telephone linesmen, according to the story of a Cloverdale man, took out some of the Pacific States phones and placed in position some Home phones. The news spread. This forenoon some Pacific States men took down the Home phones and returned the Pacific States phones. There seems to be a dispute as to what is what, and who can figure on how it will end.

Only thirteen marriage licenses issued so far this month, considerably behind September of last year.

Harrisburg.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. James F. Nixon, Saturday, September 22, 1906, a twelve pound son.

Mrs. Ella Mendenhall left Friday last for Prescott, Arizona, in answer to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her sister, who resided in that city.

J. G. Senders was at Portland the first of the week, on a short business visit, and also to visit his daughter, Miss Lola, who is in the city, receiving medical aid. Her condition is steadily improving, to the pleasure of her many friends.

The council has made a good move in providing a number of ladders and a couple of dozen buckets for use in case of a fire. The town has had a couple of ladders for a long time, but it was deemed advisable to get a few more.

Hunting Deer.

F. T. Thayer and C. H. DeLancy have returned from the Big Bottom country, where they had a pleasant deer hunt and did some fishing. They secured three buck and Mr. DeLancy got wet to the armpit wading the creek.

They heard from Henry Broders and Fred Schultz, who were hunting in the neighborhood. A report was that not being able to shoot any deer they had been trying to get some with nets.

At the College.

Students are getting into the schools slowly this year, both here and elsewhere, probably due to the rush of work on the farms of the valley. They are registering at the college continually, a fine class of students, and the indications are that the attendance will be approximately one hundred and ten or fifteen more than last year.

Work has been begun in earnest and the different departments are getting down to business.

After Twelve Years.

Twelve years ago John Gible, of the St. Charles, dropped a $5 gold piece on the floor of the office of the hotel. It rolled somewhere and disappeared. No amount of hunting resulted in its finding. This morning while the counter was being moved preparatory to putting in a new floor Jack Miller, the carpenter, picked up a $5 gold piece under the edge of the counter, well out of sight. It was undoubtedly the one lost twelve years before.

Selling Deer Before Killed.

Lebanon Criterion: Last week we published an item about a Portland sportsman making arrangement to ship deer before he killed them. Rumor has it now that it was not a Portland man at all but a couple of Albany College professors, who were on their way to the Cascades. A tall, handsome, young college professor on his way home when accused of it very modestly denied it, or that he even was on a hunting trip at all. He had a big gun with him however.

High Pork.

Corvallis Gazette: At a public sale held near Halsey a few days ago, and which was attended by a Corvallisite, Poland China sows sold for $40 each; shoats weighing 50 or 70 pounds brought $6 or $7; stock sheep for $5 and $5 and cows for from $20 to $30. The fact that struck the Corvallis man as remarkable was that sows brought more than cows, and shoats more than sheep.

Death of F. M. Powell.

F. M. Powell, a prominent pioneer of 1841, died at Brownsville Thursday night, at the age of 71 years. He was stricken with paralysis a few days before. He was a man highly esteemed, and leaves many to mourn his death.

MARRIED.

Meiser-Faylor.

Mr. Martin Meiser, of Dallas, and Mrs. Bertha Faylor, of Albany, were united in marriage, last evening, Sept. 27, at Dallas, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Sangor, of the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Meiser will begin housekeeping at once in their home there.

The groom is a son of Mr. J. H. Meiser, of this city, a young business man of splendid character and popular ways, and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Dorris, of this city, a bright young woman well liked by everybody. They have the best wishes of many.

Mrs. Elmer Dannals, of this city, sister of the bride, returned this noon from the wedding.

Died.

Mrs. G. M. Smith died last evening of consumption at her home near Knox's Butte after lingering illness, at the age of 25 years. She leaves a husband and many friends to mourn her death.

The funeral will be at 2 o'clock tomorrow after noon.
