MONDAY. P. O. RECEIPTS

Continues to Increase Healthily.

Notwithstanding the bad business weather of the month of November, and the demoralization of affairs generally by the bridge going out at Jefferson with a two week's blockade, the business of the Albany post office during November showed a healthy increase, being $987.77. That of November of last year was $942.68. The increase over October, a big month was $1.24. Every month this year without an exception there has been a good increase in the receipts, a fact which speaks for itself in connection with the business of Albany.

Chas. Bilyeu went to Portland this morning.

Lawyer C. E. Sox went to Portland this afternoon.

Conrad Meyer Jr. returned to Mt. Angel this morning.

Jesse Kirk, a noted Klamath Indian, died last week.

Misses Kate and Sally Cowan spent Sunday with Lebanon relatives.

Lawyer Gale S. Hill was in Salem this forenoon on legal business.

E. T. Merrill went to Eugene this afternoon on timber business.

H. A. St. Earl went to Grants Pass this afternoon on mining business.

Miss Hazel Pfeiffer returned to St. Helens Hall, Portland, this forenoon.

G. B. Whitcomb, mayor of the Big Bottom country, has been in the city.

J. A. Shaw this forenoon returned to Portland after a Sunday visit at home.

Wayne Stanard and Elvin Crutehfield returned this morning from a Sunday visit at Brownsville.

Mrs. Eli Romire, of Milton, arrived this noon on a visit at the home of Eugene Palmer.

J. O. Goltra, of Portland, has been in the city on a visit at the home of his father W. H. Goltra.

The Midland Opera Co. spent Sunday in Albany while on their way to Monmouth to play in the Lyceum course.

Henry Morgan, formerly of this city, is now with a vaudeville troupe, and will soon be up the valley, playing Albany among the towns.

Frank Toevs, of the Hazelwood Creamery left this morning for Portland and thence into Eastern Washington, to be gone until at least Christmas.

Misses May Norwood, Etta Carter and Leta McCullough, of the public schools, returned this morning from a Sunday visit with Halsey relatives.

Frank Scott, an Aberdeen letter carrier, passed through the city this noon on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, of Tangent.

Mr. Will Lindau, of Astoria, and Mrs. Maggie Hornschi, of Oregon City, left for home yesterday after a visit with their mother Mrs. Fred Grimm.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron, parents of Mrs. Guy Knapp, have returned from Bpkers City to Albany to reside, and rejoice at being back in the Willamette country.

Mr. Hugh Cummings, of the Wigwam, has sold his fine Hambletonian roiter, three years old, to Mr. Colgate, a prominent Portland man, for $250, and the pretty animal will now make his home in Portland.

Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, of Portland, returned home this afternoon after a two week's visit with Albany relatives. She and Mr. Wakefield in a few weeks will leave on a trip to Europe and Palestine and Egypt.

Coach Bezdek, of the U. of O. and Coach Norcross, of the J.A.C. will play with Seattle, in the Christmas and New Year's games between Seattle and Multnomah, to be played at Seattle and Portland. Bezdek will be at full and Norcross at quarter. Multnomah will have to get a move on.

Rev. W. P. White went to Shedd this afternoon to speak tonight in the rally week series of meetings of the U. P. church, on the relationship of pastor and people. Last evening Prof. Horner of the O. A. C. gave an Egyptian missionary talk, with stereopticon views secured by him on his recent trip.

The city election is in progress this afternoon with a contest in each ward. First—J. L. Tomlinson and J. J. Whitney. Second—S. A. Dawson and M. F. Cameron. Third—Wm. Hand and W. S. Richards. A fair vote is being polled.

The Senators and A. C. L. S. of Albany College will play a game of football on Thursday, Dec. 13 for the championship of the college. The lineups are being arranged, promising an even contest, with lots of spirit.

At a meeting of the Supreme Pyramid Builders Saturday evening, at the office of Dr. J. L. Hill, S. S. Spencer, of Eugene, was elected secretary to succeed the original official, who has resigned, and Dr. C. W. Lowe, of Eugene was elected supreme past pyramid builder.

The Christmas opening of the Ladies Bazaar Saturday evening drew a big crowd. The splendid display of holiday goods was admired and the fine music furnished by Parson's orchestra, in Albany young men's orchestra, was greatly appreciated.

Jack Leonard, after spending Sunday at home, returned to Jefferson this morning to resume work on the S. P. bridge. In about ten days the bridge will be permanently improved, so that there will be no more danger of high water. The false work is already down. It is not probable that the S. P. will again be delayed by this bridge being in trouble.

Card of Thanks.

Through the medium of your paper we desire to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the many friends for their kind assistance, sympathy and comforting words in this our great trial and bereavement. EUGENE PALMER AND FAMILY.

ELK'S MEMORIAL. A Program Full of Interest.

The opera house was full yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the memorial service of the Elks in honor of those departed. During the past year Cornelius Sullivan and Frank Miller were those to leave.

E. J. Seeley, exalted ruler, presided. Mrs. Edna Brandberry executed one of Beethoven's masterpieces, Sonata Pathetique, skillfully. The Corvallis quartet, Messrs. Fulton, Allen, Bradley and Johnson were heard in a song, impressively sung. After an opening ode and some ritual work, Miss Elizabeth Harwas, leader of the St. Lawrence Catholic church choir, of Portland, was heard in a vocal solo, "Prayer," with the author of the song, Mrs. E. A. Beals, of Portland, officiating at the piano. Miss Harwas has a voice of splendid tone and compass and greatly pleased Albany people. Rev. J. W. McDougall, offered prayer and Sheriff J. H. Ross, of Toledo, was heard in a song, "Our Lord is in the Home Land," sung with good effect.

Rev. McDougall gave the general eulogy, reading from John 14. Death is not our enemy if we believe in God and his son Jesus Christ. There are two places, one at his right hand, the other from his presence, and every man chooses the one he will take, and must measure up to the standard laid down by Christ.

Another song by the Corvallis quartet and J. M. Long, of Portland, delivered the eulogy of the day. He enlarged upon the principles of the order, charity, justice, fidelity, brotherly love, which enable the departed to attain the rewards of earth's true heroes. Their vices, if they have any, are written upon the sands and obliterated.

Miss Hawras was again heard, presenting "Hear me, oh Father," and after some ritual work the benediction was pronounced by Rev. McDougall.

Linn County Council P. of H.

The meeting last Saturday was held with Harmony grange, seven granges being represented.

J. H. Scott was chosen secretary pro tem. The committee on legislation made a report favoring the repeal of the law providing for the free distribution of seeds by the Government adopted. Also that Oregon's delegation in Congress should be furnished a copy of the resolution.

The committee on education made a report that as adopted covered the following points:

- 1 Favoring a plan for a more equal distribution of the public school funds.
- 2 Union High schools in rural districts.
- 3 More thorough preparation on the part of teachers to teach the primary grades.
- 4 Repealing of the law, making such frequent changes in school text books and that when change is made the introductory rates shall be book for book.
- 5 To have but two normal schools.

The council voted in favor of changing the time for holding annual school meeting from the 3rd Monday in June to 1st Monday in March.

Also that a committee of three be appointed by the president to formulate a plan for the more just apportionment of public school funds. Committee Supt. W. L. Jackson, Marion Woods and W. W. Francis.

A resolution favoring the enforcement of the fruit laws passed by the last legislature, and that Linn County have a fruit inspector wholly its own, was passed with enthusiasm.

Resolutions of sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Palmer, in their late bereavement and hour of sadness were adopted.

C. H. Walker called attention to the coming meeting of the Linn County Horticultural society, Saturday 15 in the court house at 1:30 p. m.

Preparations are being made for a large display of Linn County's best fruit. Orchardists and others are requested to bring in their best specimens of fruit.

The ladies of Harmony grange provided a most excellent dinner.

The next council meeting will be with Tangent grange 1st Saturday in January 1907, at which time will be held the annual election of officers.

The Modern Travellers

The Modern Travellers met Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. L. E. Hamilton. Nineteen responded to the roll call, which is done with some short narration of current events, a pleasing feature. The session was of particular interest on account of a splendid narration by Miss Flora Mason of some of the events of her trip to Europe. Passing Gibraltar April 24, and arriving at Naples the 27th, just after the eruption of Vesuvius she told in an interesting way about the things seen there, up through Switzerland and Germany into France and then England with its wonderful historical monuments, so full of interest for historical students. Miss Mason had with her several hundred pictures she had gathered on the way, which added to the vividness of the illustrations.

Miss Elizabeth Irvin read a well prepared paper on French influence in literature.

High School Development.

University of Oregon Bulletin, Volume 4, Number 1, State Systems of High School Control, by Henry Davidson Sheldon, head department of Education at the University, with a Statistical Study of Four-Year High Schools in Oregon, by George W. Hug.

The Bulletin traces the development of the high school through the institution known to the New England settlers as the "grammar school," better designated today as the "Latin school," with the rise of the "academy" during the revolutionary war as a protest against the classical formalism of the old "Latin school," to the formation of the first American high school in 1821 in Boston, and the rapid growth and development since.

CITY ELECTION.

Tomlinson, Dawson and Hand Elected Councilmen.

Although there was a contest in each ward of the city a little over half a vote was cast, 631 ballots in all. Previous polls of the voters of the city showed a good increase over a year ago, but many would not turn out on an off year, as that for the election of councilmen alone is known.

Following was the vote. First ward: J. L. Tomlinson 98 J. J. Whitney 77

Tomlinson's majority 21

Second ward: S. A. Dawson 94 M. J. Cameron 79

Dawson's majority 15

Third ward: Wm. Hand 101 W. S. Richards 80

Hand's majority 21

The Knights of Pythias.

W. Lair Thompson Master of Work. W. A. McClain master of finance. Q. E. Probst master of ex.

N. F. McClain master at arms. L. D. Conn inner guard. C. S. Baldwin outer guard.

During the evening Sheriff D. S. Smith was presented with a veteran's badge in honor and appreciation of his quarter of a century's faithful membership of the order.

A New Notoriety Getter.

The DEMOCRAT has received a copy of the Washington Times, with an article headed: "Make Post Office Private Concern," marked with a red hand, indicating that some one wants it read and noticed. According to it W. D. Royce, a Chicago millionaire proposes to run the post office business, reducing the rates half, do the government's business at half price, to eliminate all sinecures, politics and the deficit and pay the government all profit above 7 per cent on the capital. One big saving would be on railroad charges, which would be cut in two at least, the present arrangement being a graft. Of course it will not be accepted, but it is suggestive just the same.

Northwestern Inventors.

The following patents were issued last week to Northwestern inventors: Washington—M. F. Brown, Seattle, means for securing logs in rafts; W. M. Davis, Seattle, telephone exchange system; T. G. Hitt, Seattle, signaling torch; W. L. Newell, Buckeye, sware for inserted saw-teeth; C. S. Upton, Walla Walla, coiler and scrubber turner.

Copies of any of the above patents will be furnished at ten cents each, by D. Swift & Co., Washington, D. C.

Bishop Scadding's Sermon

Bishop Scadding last evening at the Episcopal church pleased a good sized audience with a sermon full of excellent thoughts. He spoke upon the needs of the church, resourceful ministers, paid a liberal salary, and in his work proposes to labor for the upbuilding of the weak churches under him as well as to make stronger the big churches in the field. This was the Bishop's first visit to Albany. He will be here again, and is interested in seeing the Albany church placed on its feet.

Grace Knighton.

We, the undersigned, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind neighbors and friends who so materially assisted us during the illness and burial of our beloved daughter and sister, L. D. KNIGHTON AND FAMILY.

Grace Knighton died at the home of her parents near Peoria on Nov. 25, of typhoid fever, and her remains were buried in the Albany city cemetery. She was a member of the M. E. church south, a young lady of splendid character, beloved by many.

Dr. Mathews Dec. 5.

The second attraction in the "Church entertainment course" will take place Wednesday evening, Dec. 5th at the M. E. church Rev. Mathews, D. D. of Seattle, Wash., a very brilliant man and eloquent speaker will deliver his noted lecture, "The Girl, Four Squares."

Dr. Mathews was chosen to fill Mr. Jones' date. Many Albany people have heard Dr. Mathews and commend him highly. Everybody should hear this great man in his best lecture.

Married.

William A. Cornish, advance agent of the Big Orpheum Road Show, of Seattle, and Miss Alberta Eckert, a daughter of C. E. Eckert, of Lebanon, were united in marriage last evening at the home of and by Rev. G. W. Nelson. They will reside in Seattle, and will have the best wishes of many Linn county friends of the bride.

TERRIBLE ECZEMA ON LITTLE BOY

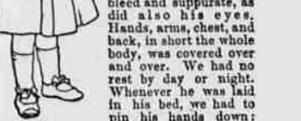

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to Prevent Scratching

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body, was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down, otherwise he would scratch his face, and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of our spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before." F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Agents, 4 to 20 Rink Alley, June 6, 1905. South Bethlehem, Pa.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Put up in 25c and 50c packages. Beware of cheap imitations. How to Cure for the Skin.
