

White Goods Sale.

Muslin Underwear

We consider the regular prices on our Muslin Underwear to be very low considering the high price of cotton and labor. But for this sale we have made lower prices:
 Corset Covers 7c, 13c, 19c, 39c.
 Skirts 38c, 63c, $2.98.
 Chemise 38c, 63c.
 Drawers 27c, 63c.
 Gowns 83c, 98c, $1.48.

Embroideries

5 lots of excellent Embroideries displayed on center line of tables. A description is not adequate, you will need to see them to get an idea of the good things offered. It will be to your advantage to see these goods.

Piece Goods

India Linen 7c to 26c.
 Persian Lawns 17c to 29c.
 Soft finish Cambries 19c to 39c
 12 yd bolts of Long Cloth $1.17, $1.33 and $1.57.

S. E. YOUNG & SON

The Bazaar

Dry Goods,
 Suits, Cloaks,
 Millinery,
 Shoes.

L. E. & H. J. Hamilton.

Coming Jack Frost

In winter's storm, accompanied by high winds and snow, which always produces coughs and colds, protect yourself by taking our White Pine Cough Syrup. We recommend this because we know it to be good and after taking it if you are not satisfied with results you get your money back. 25 and 50c a bottle.

Burkhart & Lee

Solid
 Gold
 Bargains

IN Jewelry, Watches
 Clocks Silverware, Cut
 Glass Hand Painted
 Ware and a fine assortment of Novelties to select from.
 AT
 F. G. WILL'S

CITY COUNCIL.

Mayors Message--Pavements--Hydrants--Officers.

Present.—Mayor Wallace, Recorder Thompson, Marsha McClain, Superintendent Payne, Driver Wilson, and Councilmen Dawson, Hand, Parker, Pfeiffer, Ralston, Tomlinson.
 The Mayor read his message, found elsewhere.
 The following bills were ordered paid: A. H. Martin $7.00, and land $1.35, Hughes & Knox $4.50, Fred Dawson $8.35, Herald $2.50, Will. Valley Co. $160.33, Albany Sporting Goods Co. $2.50, W. L. Thompson $1.00, Brande berry & Wheeler $5.00, Tomlinson & Holman $65, F. K. Churchill $6.25.
 The special committee reported in favor of an eighth standing committee on printing and supplies, and changing rule 33 to read ballot instead of vive voce.

Councilman Dawson moved that the city attorney be authorized to prepare an ordinance providing for paving First Street from the East line of Washington to the West line of Lyon and the side streets, Ferry, Broadalbin, and Ellsworth, First to Second.
 Councilman Hand spoke in favor of a line of trees along the streets of the city.
 Councilman Parker spoke in favor of a provision for requiring the telephone and electric light companies to clean up the wire and other debris dropped by them.
 Upon motion of Councilman Pfeiffer the City Recorder was directed to correspond with the Water Works Co. in reference to terms for hydrants.
 Councilman Pfeiffer spoke of the excellent financial management of the city last year in the face of reduced revenue, a practical saving of over $2000.
 The following officers were elected, after a caucus:
 Civil Engineer—J. A. Warner by acclamation.
 Night Policeman—A. Richmond, Warner received one vote.
 Superintendent of streets—Geo. M. Payne unanimously.
 Teamster—Bert Wilson, at $45 a mo.
 City Attorney—Continued to next meeting.

The Mayor announced that the teamster and night policeman were elected to serve during the will of the council.
 The Mayor announced the committee on printing and supplies—Ralston, Tomlinson, Hand.
 Councilman Ralston moved that the salary of the city attorney be $100 a year to cover all duties. Carried.
 Janitor Catlin asked for an increased salary. No action.

IN AND AROUND ALBANY

Call Main 5 for messenger service.
 Baltimore's hand loaded shells are the best.
 Call at Ellis & Sons for Lebanon canned goods.
 Compressed yeast received daily at Owen Beam's.
 Miss Kathryn Macneill, Trained Nurse, Phone Farmers 137.
 Miss Mattie Sutton, nurse, 916 E First, Albany. Phone Red 2271.
 Fresh oysters at Schubel's Market, near the Russ House.
 The Fleischmann yeast coupons are redeemable at Owen Beam's.
 Delmer Plough, of the college, has been appointed Albany agent for the Journal.
 In the Modern Pyramid Builders every one pays the same for the same benefits.
 Fresh soda water, from Cascadia, at Frank Skipton's 416 E 4th St. Phone black 921.
 One of J. E. Bridgeford's horses died this morning, a faithful animal for several years.
 Two student girls desire to earn their board and room in Albany homes. Call Albany College, Black 911.
 Oysters from the Oregon Market, served in any style at Potts' Oyster Parlors, 316 W 2nd St.
 If you join the the Pyramid Builders you do not have to pay for what some one else got for nothing.
 Ironing boards and clothes racks, the best and cheapest made, at Ed. Davidson's 739 E. 1st street.

In the Modern Pyramid Builders every one pays for what he gets and hence he can get what he pays for.
 If you join the Pyramid Builders you get an Endowment Insurance at cost with 10 per cent added for expenses.
 Glass, all sizes and kinds, for sale at the Albany Planing Mill, cheaper than anywhere else in Albany. Skillfully set if desired.
 If you join the Modern Pyramid Builders you leave your insurance money at home and help to boost your own city.
 The D. of H. will install the new officers Wednesday evening Dec. 9th. All members are requested to be present. Refreshments. By order of C. of H.
 When you want a first-class shave or haircut go to the Star Baths Barber Shop, Broadalbin St. bet. First and Second. Two chairs, no waiting.
 The Ladies of the First Baptist church of Albany will hold a "Saturday Market" at W. A. Eastburn's Grocery store on First street, on every alternate Saturday, beginning Saturday the 12th of January.

Tomlinson & Holman have received a shipment of genuine Maple Syrup direct from the producer at Clymer, N. Y. If you want something to make your hotcakes taste just right you had better see them and secure some of this genuine article before it is all gone.

A Bridge Fell.
 The bent of the Bryant bridge, leading to Bryant Park, just west of the main bridge, went down yesterday. One of the Mishler milk wagons had just crossed and the other was about ready to cross. Had the team gone down the forty or fifty it would have been almost certain death.

CONVENTION PROGRAM

The Program for the Two Sessions. Gov. Chamberlain First

The general committee of the shippers and producers convention met last evening at the office of the chairman, Dr. Ellis, and drafted the following program for the convention to be held in the opera house:
 Thursday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock—
 Address by Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain on the waterways of Oregon.
 Address by E. Hofer, president of the Willamette Valley Development League on an open river and its relations to transportation rates.
 Address on reciprocal demurrage by Hon. Ben Jones, state senator from Polk and Lincoln counties.
 Evening session, 8 o'clock—
 D. E. Yoran, observations on the Eugene convention.
 Hon. J. N. Teal, of Portland, on transportation conditions.
 Hon. R. G. Smith, of Grants Pass, on land monopoly in Oregon.
 Special music will be furnished, and ladies, as well as Albany people generally are urged to be present.
 The committee appointed the following special reception committee:
 Fred Dawson, J. L. Tomlinson, W. M. Parker, J. S. Van Winkle, W. L. Thompson, G. W. Taylor, S. N. Steele, D. O. Woodworth, Hon. A. M. Holt, Capt. F. C. Stellmacher, J. C. Irvine, E. D. Cusick, W. F. Fortmiller, E. C. Roberts, Walter Lyon, W. L. Marks, M. Senders and F. P. Nutting.
 The following have been appointed delegates from the Lebanon Development League to the Shippers' Convention: S. M. Garland, C. B. Montague, H. G. Everett, B. A. Millsap, M. A. Miller, L. P. Hubbs, Bert Cotton, Oscar Ingram, S. P. Bach, P. M. Scroggin, A. M. Reeves, N. M. Newport, G. L. Alexander, J. D. Smith.

Killed Eleven Skunks.
 Charles Berry, of Tangent, is trapping this winter on the Calapooia, where he occasionally gets a mink, in fact he has secured four within a month, for which he gets $3 to $5. He has gotten others, but not yet this season. They are worth $10 to $20. A few days ago his capture consisted of 11 skunks. He struck a den of them huddled together like hogs, and with a club made a killing. They are worth 50 to 80 cents apiece, so that amounted to something.

Lecture on Rome.
 Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell will deliver a lecture at the First Presbyterian church on next Monday evening, January 14th on the subject: The Catacombs of Rome. Mr. Mitchell spent three months in the city of Rome and has made a complete study of the Catacombs. All the proceeds of the lecture go to the endowment fund of Albany College, Mr. Mitchell giving his services on this night as his gift to the endowment fund.

Ten Rooms Needed.
 Father Lane made another trip to Portland this morning on church business. He reports the hospital in a flourishing condition. Arrangements are in progress for the management of the hospital by sisters, and this will eventually be perfected, when no doubt the much needed additional private rooms will be secured. The hospital needs at least ten more of such rooms. A number of times the rooms have been filled. The wards are not in demand for most cases.

Navelencias.
 The new sweet orange, Big ones, 30 cents a dozen.
 OWEN BEAM, Phones 51.
 Orchard! Orchard! Orchard!
 For rent, sixty acres, prunes, apples, cherries and peaches.
 H. BRYANT.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Frank O'Brien was in Halsey this afternoon.
 Surveyor Hugh Fisher went to Salem this morning.
 Hon. S. A. Dawson went to Salem this morning on a business trip.
 E. W. Cooper, returned this noon from a trip to Independence.
 Judge Hewitt returned this noon from a business trip to McMinnville.
 S. G. Taita went to Portland this morning to attend the fruit convention.
 Maurice Winter went north this morning. He remarked that Winter weather suits him.
 Mrs. E. E. Montague, and daughter, Miss Martha, are at the Bay on a winter's outing trip.
 Neal Murry returned this noon from Portland, preparatory to leaving on his California trip.
 Mrs. Dudley Holland and child returned this evening from a visit at the home of the father of the former, Hon. J. M. Shelley.
 Mrs. H. C. Chamberlain and young daughter have returned from Minnesota, where they visited relatives for some time. They will now make Albany their home.

Druggist C. H. Cusick, of Jefferson, was an Albany visitor this afternoon.
 L. B. Luper went to Independence today to be gone for a few day's on business.
 Hon. Geo. F. Rogers, mayor of Salem, member of the next legislature, one of Salem's shrewdest business men, has been in the city today.
 At the U. P. Church.
 Last evening before a good audience Rev. White preached on the cure of the diseases of sin, which can be done by the great physician. Those who have attended the series of meetings have been favored with some strong, convincing sermons, and the meetings have been of a very helpful nature to Christians, as well as convincing to others. Every night this week they will be continued.
 There will be an annual meeting of Albany Merchants Protective Association, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.
 W. A. EASTBURN, sec.
 Parties desiring to join the Pyramid Builders can do so until Friday of next week without the payment of the regular initiation fee. After that the regular fee will be charged.

Embroidery Handkerchief and Collar Sale.

The greatest line of Embroideries brought to town at the smallest prices

The Spring line of Collars
 One lot of lace and Batiste Collars at sale price 18c each
 You have paid up to 50c for these.
 One lot of turnover Swiss embroidered collars, sale price 5c each

All our 30c, 35c Handkerchiefs at 19c each
 All our 10c, 12 1-2c Handkerchiefs at 7c each

For Three Days Commencing Thursday, Jan. 10

at
FLOOD'S
 Right on the corner

Annual Clearance Sale

AT THE
Blain Clothing Co's.
 BEGINNING
 January 2, 1907.