THE W. C. T. U.

County Institute Being Held in This City.

The Linn County W. C. T. U. convened in this city this forenoon, the program being somewhat changed on account of the wreck at Halsey, preventing Mrs. Additon and several others from being here at the morning session but several were here and a department conference was had.

Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of this city, the county president, is in the chair, with Mrs. Rev. Richmond, of Seio, officiating as secretary.

This afternoon's session opened with a praise service, followed by a symposium in charge of the President.

Mrs. Richmond led the discussion on the best methods of work for local unions to be followed by Mrs. Jennie Gaff on narcotics, a question box by Mrs. Additon and a meeting of the executive committee.

MARRIED.

Parker-Ellison.

Mr. D. L. Parker and Miss Grace Ellison were united in marriage at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's father J. W. Ellison, in the presence of sixty or seventy relatives and intimate friends. A ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. White in an impressive manner. The bride was accompanied by her father. The couple stood under a pretty canopy of calla lilies and other flowers. Miss Mary Parker, a sister of the groom held the bride's bouquet, which was afterwards thrown and caught by Miss Mabel Cockerell.

The rooms were tastily decorated in Oregon grape and ferns.

A wedding repast was served by Misses Belle Ward, Letha Patton and Daisy Swann, and Mrs. W. A. Anderson and Mrs. Dell Burkhardt.

The display of wedding gifts was large and choice, a splendid collection in expression of appreciation.

The groom is a clerk in the store of L. E. & H. J. Hamilton, a young man of exemplary character, the bride for a number of years assistant bookkeeper in the store of S. E. Young and Son, a splendid young lady.

They left on the delayed Portland express for Portland. Upon their return they will reside for awhile with Mrs. Virgil Parker, until they move into the property recently bought by Mr. Parker, one of the Hackleman cottages.
