DOUBLE LIFE

Lived by Hibbins, Alias Herbert.

PORTLAND, June 22.—Mrs. C. H. Reynolds and Mrs. Flora Hibbins met last night at the morgue. The fact was revealed that the dead man's real name was Hibbins. Herbert was a stage name. The widow never suspected the double life of her husband. He was working in a Seattle theatre.

The S. F. Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The telegraphers strike situation is quiet today. About two hundred men are out. The company is reported to have men enroute here to fill their places, but it is not expected their efforts will avail any thing.

SUICIDE

Of Nellie Callahan-Smith in California.

Mrs. Nellie Callahan Smith, a former resident of Albany, where she resided for many years when a girl and young lady committed suicide at Sacramento Calif., on Wednesday of this week. Her husband was a well known commercial traveller, and for several years travelled out of Portland, up the valley, several years ago being transferred to California. Mrs. Smith was in the San Francisco earthquake, passing through a terrible experience, and, it is said, it undoubtedly affected her in such a way that she was unable to overcome the influence. The particulars have not yet been learned. Mrs. Smith was a sister of Thomas Callahan of Corvallis, a woman beloved by those knowing her well. She leaves one son, a bright little fellow of ten or twelve years of age, and her husband, who was at Montague, Calif. at the time of her death.

A Summer Boat.

According to a Portland paper a boat is being built to run up the river as far as Eugene during the entire summer. It is to draw only ten inches loaded and have a capacity of twenty tons. It is doubtful if such a boat would pay, but it is to be hoped the effort is made to make it go. A summer boat is the proper thing.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away. Albany People Have Learned This Fact.

E. P. Reed, living at the corner of First and Geary Sts., Albany, Ore., says: "My back had troubled me so severely at times and been so lame and sore that I could not stoop or straighten again without it catching me hard. Hearing good reports about Doan's Kidney Pills I went to Foshay & Mason's drug store and got a box which I used carefully. They acted in a prompt and thorough manner and removed every symptom of my trouble. They strengthened my back and kidneys wonderfully and proved their merits so well that I do not hesitate to recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
