Marshfield Times:

The excutive committee of the Marshfield publicity fund yesterday rejected Walter Lyon as secretary of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Lyon recently resigned as proprietor of the Albany Herald. He is now in Sacromento, California attending to business matters regarding the sale of his paper, where he was notified by telegraph to report to Tom Richardson at once. After a two weel's stay in Portland, Mr. Lyon will come to Marshfield and take up his duties. He will be in the new headquarters now being fitted up by the Chamber of Commerce on Front streek, No special line of work has been mapped out by the committee for Mr. Lyon to start with on his arrival here, that being left entirely to his judgment.

The members of the executive committee feel they have been fortunate in the selection made, as, with the newspaper experience Mr. Lyon has had in this state, it is thought he is well fitted for the position.
