Tires at Baltimore's. Bicycles at Baltimore's. A shipment of Tires fresh from the Factory at Baltimore's. Miss Mattie Sutton, nurse, 916 E First, Albany. Phone Red 2051. Boiled Ham, Saratoga Chips, Pickles, Olives, Swiss Limberger, Cream and Roquefort cheese at The Oregon Market. Rawling's has the exclusive agency for Remington ribbons and Carbon paper. Don't forget he does good printing. Glass, all sizes and kinds, for sale at the Albany Planing Mill, cheaper than anywhere else in Albany. Skillfully set if desired. Plenty of old potatoes at W. A. Eastburns. Female help wanted at the Magnolia Laundry. First water melons of the season at the Elite. Try one. Do not confine your taste to two or three flavors of frozen delicacies. We make them all at the Elite. Mrs. William V. Baltimore today left at the DEMOCRAT office about the finest box of blackberries ever seen this side of the Mars. They are California Mammoth, a large luscious berry, with a fine flavor. The rooms at the Hotel Revere are kept open. Last night there were 22 guests there, and it will continue to be. Mr. Pfeiffer has no intention of running the hotel but it will probably be a month or two before a permanent arrangement is made. Henry Struckmeier, of Crabtree, was in the city yesterday afternoon with a bunch of alfalfa four feet long. He has cut between 3 and 4 tons to the acre of it and will have two crops during the season, which means a paying food for stock.

The Last Boat.

Oscar Olsen, of the O. C. T. Company left today for Portland, river navigation having ceased for the summer, the Oregonian making her last trip this week. The season has been a good one. The regret is that it does not last longer, and would if the government would do the right thing with the Upper Willamette.

Col. Craven Here.

Col. J. E. Craven formerly manager of the Kansas City Times and the Denver Times, arrived this morning to make arrangements for the showing here of Clark's American Biograph, a series of moving pictures of the San Francisco strike, the Evelyn Thaw trial, and other striking scenes, next Monday evening.

Lee Edwards, of Marshfield, a former Albany barber, has been in the city today, after a visit with his folks near Brownsville. He left this afternoon for Portland on a visit with his sister Mrs. Troutman, and on business. He reports Marshfield as a very lively place, growing rapidly.
Emery Wallace after a residence of seven years at Oakland, California, has joined his wife and son, who have been visiting here for a while, and will make Oregon their home. They were in the big earthquake. Mr. Wallace is one of the old-time base ball players of Albany, a nephew of Mayor Wallace, and Mrs. Wallace is a sister of Mrs. Frank M. Powell.

High Corn.

E. M. Perfect, of North Albany, last evening brought a stalk of corn to Albany that attracted attention. It is 8 feet four inches tall and well developed, showing remarkable growth for so early in the season. Mr. Perfect is from a corn country, and declares that it can be raised here as well as anywhere, particularly on the bottom land.

Delightful and Refreshing.

On next Monday night, July 22, Clark's Biograph Company will give a most delightful and refreshing performance at the Opera House. This particular company has been playing all the larger cities and receiving criticisms from the press and our theatre going folk is promised a charming evening's program and something out of the ordinary.

Practice Sold.

Dr. W. A. Trimble has sold his office and practice in this city to Dr. H. J. Kavanaugh, of Portland, who has had charge of them for several months. He is a brother of District Attorney Kavanaugh, of Portland, a bright young man of fine medical attainments. Dr. and Mrs. Trimble will go to Long Beach for an outing and then go east for six months to a year for special study. Dr. Trimble has been here just ten years in August and will leave in August. He has built up a fine business and will leave many friends here.

The Boys and Girls Home.

W. T. Gardner, superintendent of the boys and girls home of Portland was in the city yesterday afternoon this morning going to Mill City to make an investigation of a case there. The home will have some one up the valley regularly every month or two. It is doing a splendid work among the juveniles and deserves the support it is receiving.
