Cusick & Co., and will thus secure for the state both the fine and the costs. These costs amounted to $50.50 in the first case and $38.50 in the second, a total of $89.

AN EAGLE A FRENCH COUNT

Attacks a Child. Bird Now in Albany.

F. W. Ellis, with the Albany Dressed Beef Co., returned last night from a trip beyond Corvallis, bringing back with him a bird, which he says is a bald headed eagle. John Catlin declares it is a buzzard and that its head will turn red. In the same family of birds any way. It's bald headed for certain, three months old, and has a spread of wings of five feet. Mr. Ellis caught it on a farm four miles the other side of Corvallis. Its wings were so long for its body it was unable to get away from him. Before captured the bird attacked the three year old child of John Goos, which was playing in the yard, and tried to get it by the head with its claws to carry it off if possible, which it could not have done at its present age, simply showing the instincts of the bird. It was driven off and finally Mr. Ellis succeeded in throwing his coat over it and securing possession of it, though it fought its capture the best it knew how.

The Commissioners have already had over one hundred kicks to investigate, and, whether big or small, they have given them all the most careful consideration, doing everything possible for the people. One of the first they had was from Lebanon, and the result was a much improved service there, and this is providing true everywhere. The railroads are making their best efforts to secure better conditions.

The DEMOCRAT recently referred to the business on R. F. D. 1, Snedd, as falling below the 3,000 pieces in a month mark. The DEMOCRAT had been misinformed as to the R. F. D. It is No. 2, Shedd No. David Shearer, remains above the 5,000 mark, and under the new regulation the carrier will not have to keep count.

The Guest of Father Lane in Albany.

Monsieur C. Vicomte de Penfilleaux a prominent member of the French nobility, a resident of the suburbs of Paris, arrived this noon, accompanied by the Countess, for a visit with Father Arthur Lane. The Vicomte has been in the U. S. three months on a tour of inspection, and already has a good understanding of our language, being an apt scholar of English. A Vicomte is a French officer between an earl and a baron in rank.

A BUSY MAN

One of the busiest railroad men running out and into the railroad center of the Willamette Valley is Conductor Tom Riley of the Corvallis train. Tom makes three round trips a day, besides a logging trip west from Corvallis frequently a total of 115 miles a day. He carries from seventy to a hundred passengers a day ordinarily, and besides transfers an immense number of loaded freight cars between the east and west sides, often over a hundred cars a day. This Corvallis service has proven a very popular one, doing a good deal for the betterment of transportation conditions, passenger and freight, here. Besides these trains have done much to bring Albany and Corvallis into a closer and more friendly relationship.

Dormant Accounts.

Dormant bank accounts are being published some as provided by a law of the last legislature. The Portland First National has about 300 balances that have lain untouched for more than seven years. The biggest is that of John Bouton for $2888.25, Ladd & Tilton about 225, and the other banks smaller accounts. In the U. S. National is $4,545 belonging to Rev. G. E. Hawes, now in Pennsylvania, in the Portland Trust Co's bank $06 of G. B. Milroy, now a Spokane merchant, and in the Merchants National $36 of the money J. K. Elderkin, the man who ran the Farmer's and Merchants Co. of this city. The Prineville bank advertises two accounts H. G. Campbell $22, C. W. White $61.16.

The Pacific Monthly

The Pacific Monthly for August just out is a splendid number. The illustrations are particularly good. Among the best are some of Valdez, Alaska. The summer views indicate a pretty good place in which to reside, but our friend Chas. Medin is entitled to the winter experiences. There is so much snow one can hardly see the buildings. Must have a swim in the snow to navigate. The Pacific Monthly is decidedly a credit to Oregon.

After Wood.

Chas. Welch, manager of the Willamette Valley office, left this morning for Detroit, for the purpose of making contact for wood for the Co's Albany plant. It requires between four and five hundred cords a year, and the G. wishes to get in big lumps, as securing wood in small lots as it comes in is very uncertain.

J. MILLER

Candidate for President Passer Through.

Joaquin Miller, the long haired poet, who wears long boots, dresses as he pleases and does as he likes, passed through for Eugene, where his brother Geo. M. resides. He proposes to harness the Siuslaw and furnish power for everything in Eugene. What he will really do is speculation. He may change his mood before morning. He was recently said to be candidate for U. S. senator. He has now changed his mind and is a candidate for the Presidency on the nature faker platform. He declares that he has lived close to nature and knows more about it than anybody and can give the President or Jack London or any one else pointers. As a matter of fact the old fellow is probably just having some dry fun. It will be dryer in Eugene.

MYERS' BANK.

A Hard Hit From a Banking Journal.

Several months ago the Linn Savings Bank was incorporated by F. L. Myers and others, with a capital stock of $5,000, also fifteen or twenty other savings banks in different parts of the state. People have wondered what it all meant, who the Myers were, etc. The Pacific Banker of Portland, says Mr. Myers' institution in San Francisco was closed by the board of bank commissioners, and declares that for Mr. Myers to come into Oregon and organize fifteen or twenty banks, with an alleged parent institution in Portland, The German American Bank, it considers a species of unmitigated gall. Whether it is the purpose to establish the bank at Albany the DEMOCRAT does not know. If so the DEMOCRAT will be open for explanations.

TWO SISTERS HAVE ECZEMA OF HEAD

Two Illinois Girls Suffer from Scalp Trouble—Another Sister Needs a Tonic—Friend Suggests Cuticura—They Use It and Now Give.

MUCH PRAISE TO ALL CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I must give much praise to all the Cuticura Remedies. I used but one case of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, as that was all that was required to cure my disease. I was very much troubled with eczema of the head, and a friend of mine told me to use the Cuticura Remedies, which I did, and am glad to say that they cured my eczema entirely. Since then we have always kept the soap on hand at all times. My sister was also cured of eczema of the head by using the Cuticura Remedies. Another sister has used Cuticura Resolvent and Pills and thinks they are a splendid tonic. I cannot say exactly how long I suffered, but I think about six months. Miss Edith Hammer, R. F. D. No. 6, Morrison, Ill., Oct. 3, 1906."

Getting A Site.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the location of the Linn Milk Condenser. Various sites are being talked about. It is a business that will bring a good many teams to Albany and at the same time several gasoline launches on the river, hence the appropriateness of a site that will be convenient for both, and one as near the business part of the city as possible for effect alone, as well as convenience would not be out of place. Some one suggests that the site at the foot of Montgomery street, near the iron works, would be a particularly good one, being on the river, and easily reached by those coming into the city from both sides of the river, north, east, south and west. A competent committee has been selected and no doubt every one will be carefully considered.
