OUR WANTS

Help Wanted.

Owing to the fact that Lasselle Bros. Packing Co. experiences some little trouble securing sufficient help for packing prunes at the beginning and end of season they have decided to pay all lady help 1-4 cent per box more to those that are on hand the first day and continue through the season. The factors last year made on an average between $1.50 and $1.75 per day, some of the most experienced ones making as high as $3.00. The Packing House will probably open on Thursday Sept. 12. The company also states that they can use a few more men to work in the Packing House. The new factory room will insure warm and comfortable rooms for the ladies. It will be heated by steam.

Important to Cruisers.

I want every responsible cruiser in Southern Oregon to send me his name and address, upon receipt of which I will send him information that is of vital interest to himself and his business. Address

MISFITS.

A Mixture of Things and Thoughts

The land fraud cases are all to be dropped. How does that jar you.

The supreme court rose above technicalities. Great is Oregon's supreme court.

Dissolving the Standard Oil Co. is a colossal task. Think of cutting down a mountain.

It will be better for the U. of O. to face the music and establish its position, if it can.

Police Judge Strode, of Portland, disposed of 121 cases in 121 minutes. Cash receipts $473. And all got justice.

Twenty Tangled Tongues missionaries are to go to Alaska. Better continue the trip to the north pole, a good place for such hot headed people.

Miss Palmer, a New York belle has created a sensation by appearing on Fifth avenue in bare feet without stockings, in a Roman toga, with bare arms and hatless. She says stockings are as much an abomination as corsets. Miss Palmer will end up in the bug house.

Mrs. Alice B. Marshall

Teacher of Piano, has rented Bussard's Hall for Fridays when she will receive pupils each week, beginning Sept. 13. Pupils recitals will be given every six weeks.

Mrs. Marshall has an enviable reputation as a teacher and pianist. In a competitive contest at the Chicago World's Fair in 1893 she won a diploma and medal for superior excellence. By invitation she played at the Convention of International Music Clubs at the St. Louis exposition in 1904, and has appeared in concert in many cities with some of the leading pianists of the nation.

The Chicago Chronicle says:—Her playing is characterized by delicacy of touch, by exquisite phrasing and positive technique. There is poetry and intellectuality in her work, these two elements being the chief charm of her playing.

Clarence Eddy, the noted organist, says:—I am glad to recommend Mrs. Alice B. Marshall as a refined pianist, and most conscientious teacher of the piano.

Mr. Wm. H. Sherwood, America's greatest pianist says:—I consider Mrs. Marshall an unusually good teacher of music and piano playing. She is a lady of artistic acquirements and musical taste.

The Truax Funeral.

The funeral of Willard Truax, the unfortunate victim of the accident at the C. & E. crossing, occurred this forenoon, Rev. W. P. White preaching the sermon, followed by the burial in the city cemetery. Mrs. Truax is prostrated by his death. The death of three members of her family within about a year has temporarily unbalanced her mind. She certainly has had more than her share of misfortune.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpelde is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vipers may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpelde does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpelde stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease, and sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. Foshay & Mason agents.
