Afraid of the Japs

The Japs are having some more trouble up at Vancouver, B. C., and the Canadian government is busy mak-ing apologies to the Japanese government. Our own people get into trouble, and so do the Celestials, and the Greeks and the Italians, and others, and it generally passes without much notice, but when a Jap has trouble over here there is a how! that can be heard to there is a how! that can be heard to the north pole. Everybody seems afraid of the Japs, because they whip pod the Russians. Right here put it slown with a spike that they could not whip one side of England if it came to blows with it, and they would not be in it at all with the U.S. They are little brown geniuses, but they are not nour class yet bo an immense sight. in our class yet by an immense sight, and there are other geniuses in the world, and the people of this country are the greatest in the world, altogeth, er. It is time inations quit being afraid of Japan and cowing down to it every time some of its people get into trouble in this country.
