A. WOLVERTON

Found in His Yard After Apoplectic Stroke.

A. Wolvorton was found in his yard by Henry Maine, shortly after 6 o'clock this morning, at his home at 825 East 2nd street, lying unconscious in his own blood. While going down his back steps he had undoubtedly been taken with apoplexy, and it is possible one side was paralyzed. Drs. Ellis and Davis were called and he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital for care and treatment. He has been lying alone here. He has three sons, one a resident of Spokane, and a daughter, and is an uncle of Judge Wolvorton, of the U. S. court. Mr. Wolvorton was a resident of Wellington, Iowa before coming to Albany thirty or forty years ago.

He died about 10 o'clock from the effects of the stroke. His relatives are being notified and arrangements will be made later for the funeral, as soon as some of them arrive.

Chicago defeated Detroit yesterday 3 to 1.

Miss Sadie Cohen went to Salem this morning.

Mrs. J. M. Ralston has been visiting Lebanon friends.

E. W. Cooper is in Washington on a few days business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simpson returned this noon from a Corvallis visit.

H. J. Moore, the Benton county fruit man, has been in Salem on a business trip.

Mr. Hugh Fisher returned this morning from Brownsville, where he has been running lines.

Mrs. L. C. Rice, of Lacombe, was in the city this forenoon accompanying her daughter to Lebanon.

Mrs. W. W. Rowell went to Dallas this afternoon on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Edith Riggs.

Fred Richardson, of Lacombe, while trying to handle a bull with a rope, had a thumb jerked completely off.

Rev. Jones, of Goldendale, Wash., was in the city on his way to Mill City, where he was formerly located.

J. H. Turpin, jr., of Waterloo, went to Portland yesterday to take a civil service examination for a government position.

J. A. Nimmo is one horseless, one of his dray horses yesterday being taken with the blind staggers. He wants an animal in his place.

Miss Mae Withers, of Lebanon, has been in the city teaching for Miss Katherine Cowan while she proved up on her timber claim at Roseburg.

The elk case was disposed of at Lebanon yesterday, by Geo. Smith being fined $25 and costs. His brother Walter, also arrested, was discharged.

H. M. Stone, the Corvallis prune dealer was in the city this noon on his way home from Salem. He reports about 250,000 pounds of dried prunes in and around Corvallis.

The first issue of this year's Oregon Weekly, published by the U. of O., has arrived. Thomas K. Townsend, one of the University's best and brightest young men, is editor-in-chief.

Mrs. C. B. Winn yesterday afternoon entertained a number of her friends at a very pleasant social gathering, with neat appointments and a choice service of refreshments.

Dallas Observer.—William Pfeiffer, a well known business man of Albany, was looking after his property interests in Dallas, Saturday. He made the trip by team and greatly enjoyed the ride.

Mr. Fred Brandsnagen, the commercial traveler, left this morning for Denver, to meet an eastern representative of a new house he will travel for, securing his samples for the coming winter's business.

J. R. Wyatt went to Salem this morning to argue the Corvallis local option cases in the supreme court. These cases were decided in the court at Corvallis several months ago and appealed to the supreme court.

Toney Nolter is dead. He was one of Oregon's most prominent men for many years. He was 69 years of age. He was once associated with Joaquin Miller in the publication of the Eugene Review, now the Guard. His principal paper was the Daily Standard of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Watson returned this noon from a two or three week's outing at Newport. They got eight salmon, all they wanted. The fish have stopped running now almost entirely, but a second run may be expected almost any time.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. McDougall left this morning for their new home at Mt. Taber, Portland, taking with them the best wishes of a large circle of Albany friends in and out of the church. They will be nicely situated in what many think is the finest residence part of Portland.

Mr. H. Klum, of Walla Walla, was in the city this morning on his way home after a visit with his father near Lebanon. Mr. Klum, a former S. P. man, of this city, is now with the Northern Pacific at Walla Walla. He reports that city as on the go, now having a population of about 25,000.

Bubonic Plague in S. F.

Considerable is being reported about a bubonic plague in San Francisco. Dr. H. J. Boughton, a former Albany man, who continues to be a member of the S. O. U. W. of this city after an absence of 25 years, writes that there are many cases, and with the cool climate there is no danger in the form of the disease spreading in an epidemic form.

A Biological Station.

An effort is being made to secure the establishment of a government biological station at Newport. Congressman Hawley will make a special effort for one. The state board of fish commissioners has given it a unanimous endorsement, and it is believed it can be obtained.

BOOZE

Has Stirred Things Up in Albany.

An interesting feature in connection with the local option cases is the fact that where a man has sold liquor without a government tax having been paid Uncle Sam will be right on hand and a double prosecution is possible. In fact it is said a couple of U. S. officials are watching the cases closely looking out for the big government.

It is said that the cases begun are only starters if there is much fighting, as in some instances instead of the one case begun there are as many as a dozen cases worked up, several being held in reserve. Mr. Mason undoubtedly did his work very thoroughly and systematically, it being merely a matter of business with him. He once worked awhile in a saloon to get a bar tender's union card, which came in handy.

It is not a pleasant thing to have a community in a turmoil, but it is universally known that Albany has been a very wet dry town, and it was the business of some one to see that the law was enforced the same as others, and this the State League, of which Rev. E. F. Zimmerman is president, is doing.

A pretty well founded rumor is that several subpoenas have been issued for the appearance of witnesses before the District Attorney sitting as a grand jury, in other cases involving other prominent citizens.

Kroeschel and Olin his clerk, who are said to have gone across the Willamette, have not yet been apprehended by the sheriff. The Franklin House is closed.

The Oregonian gives the matter considerable notoriety today in its first page cartoon.

Albany for Marriage; Eugene for Divorce.

Guard:

W. S. Dickens has commenced divorce proceedings in the circuit court yesterday against Clara C. Dickens, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The parties were married in Albany about seven years ago, and to the union has been born four children, ranging in ages from 18 months to six years. The father asks the custody of all the children, who are at present in his and their grandparents' care.

The Presbytery.

At a meeting of the Presbytery in Salem, E. L. Jones, a student for the ministry, formerly of Albany college, was by request transferred to the Veneta presbytery, of California. Rev. I. G. Krotts was reelected S. S. missionary. The spring meeting of the presbytery was ordered held at Lebanon. The synod of the church is now in session in Portland. Among the important matters will be Albany college.

Rev. Lee Passed Through.

Rev. Lewis Lee, of Cincinnati, O., passed through the city this noon for San Francisco, where he will visit his youngest brother Herbert and go home by way of New Orleans. He has been seeing his brother Rev. Wallace Howe, of Seattle, and William Lee, of Portland, now with the Willamette Construction Co., building an electric line up the valley. Rev. Lee will complete his six month's vacation the 4th of Nov., when he is due in Cincinnati. His health has improved wonderfully.

Pat's Japs.

Eugene Register:

Pat Dooley and six cans of Jap laborers arrived from Ashland yesterday and are located on the side track. Just what they have been sent here for is not known as up to late last evening no orders had been received but it was quite generally understood that the party had come to make the contemplated changes in the trackage preparatory to building the new depot. While waiting on orders the gang have been busy doing some needed work on the track.

The Prune Man's Year.

J. J. Cale, of Oakville, who was in the city yesterday reported the best prune crop there in the history of their orchards. His orchard yielded big this year, the output being about 70,000 pounds of dried prunes. Quite a good many contracted their prunes when the price was lower, at about 4-4-4, but some who did not have gotten as high as 6 cents for 30's. This is the prune man's year.

Tucker and Wilson.

Frank Tucker, the man figuring in the Brown murder case, doing a good deal of drunken talking, is a former Lacombe man, and has relatives in this county now. Nothing can be learned of Wilson having relatives here. Tucker's story is wild and woolly and probably a fake.

A Paper Road.

Lebanon E. A.:

It is reported that a right of way is being secured for a railroad up the Santiam valley above this place. It may be for a new electric railway company, or it may be for a company that does not intend to use it, but simply hold it so no other company can get it.

The College Student.

The following staff was elected today for the Albany College Student:

Fred Neal, editor in chief.
Floyd Bilyeu, business manager.
Francis Arnold, assistant manager.

THREE TIMES

As Many Births as Deaths in Linn Co. in Sept.

Dr. W. H. Davis, county health officer, reports 9 deaths and 27 births during September. The death rate is remarkable, being only about 4 in 1,000. Of the deaths one was from an accident, two or three from old age, one from non-treatment, the others miscellaneous.

Of the births 6 were in Albany, 7 were reported by Lebanon physicians, being in and near that city, 2 in Brownsville, 2 Scio, 5 Lacombe, 1 Tallman, 1 Sodaville, 1 Waterloo, 1 Berlin and 4 in the country scattered.

Married at Lebanon.

A Lebanon wedding last evening was Mr. Clarence Ingram and Miss Ethel Booth two prominent young people of that city, who have many friends whose best wishes they will have.

FRIDAY

$200 FINE

Causes a Decided Change of Base.

There was a somewhat live bout in Justice Porter's court at 9:15 o'clock this morning when the three cases of those who had plead guilty were called. Justice Porter read the law, giving the punishment as $50 to $500 and 10 to 30 days imprisonment in the discretion of the court. He remarked that he had observed that light fines were ineffective, generally being followed by a return to the business, and said sterner methods were needed to make the law effective. Lee Morgan was first up and the fine was placed at $200 and costs, or in default 100 days imprisonment.

Thereupon Messrs. Wyatt and Whitney, attorneys for the defendants, ordered the three pleas of guilty withdrawn and entered a plea of not guilty. In the case of Morgan the motion was overruled, and the court adjourned until 1 o'clock to give the district attorney time to look up the law in reference to the others.

At one o'clock the plea for permission to withdraw the plea of guilty made by Hulbert and Curran, was argued by Deputy District Attorney Hill for the state and Judge Whitney for the defendants. The law was plain that the withdrawal was in the discretion of the court, and attorney Hill argued that the change was simply trading with the court and a farce, not made in good faith, the defendants evidently wanting to assess the fines themselves. Judge Whitney asked for it on the grounds of equal justice to all. It was overruled, and Mr. Hulbert was fined $150 and Mr. Curran $100.

The attorney for the defendant gave notice of a stay of proceedings and the bonds were made the same as the fines, in the three cases.

AN ALBANY

Is a Big Furniture Factory. Let's Have One.

To the People of the City of Albany:

The undersigned have to submit to the people of the city of Albany the following proposition:

The undersigned are the owners of the manufacturing plant formerly belonging to the United Organ & Carriage Company, of this place. The plant is fully equipped with wood working machinery, and originally cost to exceed $25,000. We have secured the services of Mr. H. F. Hansen, of Tacoma, Washington, an experienced cabinet maker, who will take an interest in the business, and we propose to apply the plant to the manufacture of furniture, provided we can secure sufficient working capital to begin the work. We propose to organize a corporation for the manufacture of furniture, with an authorized capital stock of $25,000. To this company we propose to turn over the above plant at the low figure of $12,500, and take the stock of the corporation in that amount in payment. If the people of Albany will subscribe sufficient additional stock to furnish a working capital for the concern, we will proceed to incorporate and organize, and have the factory running within thirty days. We believe such a factory will prove a valuable addition to the list of Albany's industries, and that its stock will prove a profitable investment.

Albany, Oregon, Oct. 10, 1907.

JOHN MACNEILL,
JAMES A. GILKISON.

Thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars are being sent east for furniture that should be made in Oregon. It is time to stop this, and this is a way to help.

One eastern factory last year received $175,000 from Portland alone. Furniture factories almost universally pay the stock holders, offering a good investment.

There are forty students in the divinity school at Eugene.

Lawyer C. E. Hawkins came over from the Bay this noon.

Constable Chas. Johnson, of Salem, was in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cusick went to Portland this morning.

Mr. Steve Whitney, of Portland, is in the city on a few days visit.

J. L. McFarland, of the Corvallis skating rink, was in the city today.

Miss Kittie Baber, of Harrisburg, has accepted a position in the Elite.

Mrs. E. E. Warner recently in the city will spend the winter in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. J. L. Fox has returned from Portland, and will keep boarders in the third ward.

Rev. Ezra Mayer, P. E., will preach at the Evangelical church tonight beginning at 7:30.

Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Handsaker, of Corvallis, were the guests of Rev. Evans this afternoon.

Mrs. Dunn, mother of George Dunn, of Ashland, was in the city today, leaving for home this noon.

Fred Harris went to Portland last evening to remain two or three days. During his absence Chub is driving the wagon.

F. M. Plummer, keeper of the U. S. lighthouse near Newport, has resigned his position after a service of thirty years.

Col. Hofer went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to speak before the convention of Western Oregon Lumbermen.

The revenue of the Corvallis post office has passed the $10,000 mark, being $10,226.34 for the year ending Sept. 30.

Arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral of A. Wolvorton. One of his sons Fred Wolvorton, will take charge of the matter.

The timber claim of Miss Ella Struckmeyer of this city, is running in the Lebanon Criterion. She will prove up on her timber claim 13-3 east on Nov. 25.

The First National Bank of Springfield has been incorporated. Capital stock $25,000. Officers: B. A. Washburn president, Ben Ayers vice president, J. B. Bell cashier.

Chambers & McCuna last evening gave a theater party for their employees filling one of the rows in the parquette. The firm is doing a big business these October cloak days and considered a treat in order.

Mrs. J. W. McGee is lying dangerously ill at her home in this city. Mr. McGee, who is in Washington, has been sent for. Their three daughters, Mrs. Wiles, Mrs. Davey and Mrs. Taylor are with her.

The Kroeschels and William Olin are said to have gone to Wells in a rig and taken the train from there to Portland, where some of them have been seen. The witnesses in the case against them are all permanently located in Oregon, so that the case will hold.

John Kelly and Richard Skibbe, the young men mixed up in the O. A. C. hazing affair, will both remain in college. President Kerr is said to have handled the affair with rare diplomacy and good feeling prevails. But hazing has stopped.

Enjoyable Camp Fire.

The G. A. R. and ladies of the G. A. R. last evening at their hall held their annual camp fire, with thirty or forty present, mostly women. There use to be that number of men alone, but the number is decreasing rapidly. Last night the veterans present were Commander Small and Comrade Westbrook, Crooks, Denney, Voss, Roth, Beeson, Walker, Montanye and Risley. A fine supper was served by the women consisting of cold meat, potatoes, salad, pickles, of course bean bread, jelly and cakes, and a social time was had.

W. C. T. U.

The Linn County Convention.

The convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in Brownsville Oct. 9-10. A good delegation was present at the opening session. The morning was most beautiful and the bright faces of the women gave promise of the good things that followed.

The reports of Superintendents of departments showed that the women had been busy during the year. Each union had made some gain in membership and was more or less prosperous, but Scio union led all the others and triumphantly carried off the banner. Their increase in membership is 25. One of the enjoyable features of the convention was a demonstration by the Rock Hill Local Temperance Legion. Mrs. DeVore and Divebiss brought a class and the song, recitations and drill showed what could be done for the cause of temperance with the children. With scientific temperance taught in our public schools and the children trained in the Loyal Temperance Legion, there is every reason to believe that the next generation will be greatly advanced to the effect of alcohol and narcotics, and this knowledge will surely tend to the establishing of total abstinence principles.

The gold medal contest was interesting. There were five contestants. Miss Mulkey of Brownsville, who won the medal, was especially fine. A violin solo played by the young daughter of Dr. Starr was a unique feature of the evening. She is fair to become an artist. The papers read were especially fine particularly the annual address of the president Mrs. Mears, which was full of wise suggestion and viewed from a literary standpoint it was a gem.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

Mrs. Mears, president.
Mrs. De Vere, 1st vice pres.
Mrs. Dora Davis, cor. sec.
Miss Meda Dunlap, rec. sec.
Mrs. Frances Hammer, treas.
Miss Sallie T. Outman, "Y" sec.
Mrs. De Vere, L. T. L. sec.

The last evening of the convention was very interesting. A banner was presented in a very neat speech by Mrs. Mulkey to the Brownsville Union which was happily responded to by Mrs. Starr. A lecture was then delivered by Miss Broad which was replete with interesting incidents and facts.

The crowning feature of the convention was the fact that 65 new members were reported which gives Linn county a place on Benefit night at the state convention. All honor to old Linn.

The Electric Line.

F. W. Waters, of the electric line, came up this noon and went out in the country to hunt up the surveyors. They went back several miles to run another line into the city, after a more satisfactory route. The Albany franchise will be accepted, plans will be drawn at once for the Albany system, and work will be begun here as soon as possible, regardless of the six months limit. The company proposes to have electric cars running in Albany as soon as the plant can be built here after acceptance.

Former Albany Girl.

Mrs. Jennie Alexander Rudolph, of San Jose, Calif., daughter of one of Albany's pioneer physicians and early representatives in the state legislature, is visiting Albany friends while on her annual October outing. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph run two confectionary and ice cream parlors in San Jose, with eighteen people employed, and hence are in a very busy business, which they have made pay. Mrs. Rudolph will visit her sister, Dr. Rove Alexander of Idaho before returning home.

Two Indian Boys Captured.

John Catlin last night captured two Chemawa Indian boys, who arrived on the local riding blind baggage. There was another, who escaped. Several hoboes were present. One of them interfered and Johnny whacked him in the face with his revolver, and he tumbled in the dust. In the meantime the red boy fled south along the track toward the land of the Umquaps, and may be going yet. The hoboes left on the train, a bad lot of itinerants.

One of Our Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Lentz and two children arrived from California this week and will make Albany their home. They are now looking for a place in which to live, a very difficult thing to find. Mr. Lentz is a former professional baseball player, playing in the east for several years, but has given it up as a business. He is also a crack shot and has already sampled out Celestial hunting grounds.

Were Married.

Corvallis Gazette:

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Jordan passed through Corvallis, Wednesday, en route from Toledo, Lincoln county, to Albany. They were married at the Toledo hotel, Tuesday evening, the bride's maiden name being Miss Melissa Whitney. Both bride and groom are former O. A. C. students. Mr. Jordan is an employee of the Woodruff drug store in Albany and they will reside in that city.

Some Saccalaccas Here.

Dr. J. L. Hill this morning received from Mexico two saccalaccas, which he will raise and propagate for the Linn county fields, if the birds prove healthy and prolific. This is a fine game bird, larger than the Chinese pheasant and a fine eater, one that would be a big addition to our upland bird families.
