CHANGES

That Are Occurring in the C. & E. Office.

Mr. G. F. Nevins, C. & E. manager, returned this noon from Portland, and will close up his business here. A successor will not be appointed, the business of the office being done in the other offices of the S. P. Co., the auditing at San Francisco. Only an operator and a train dispatcher will remain here. The machine shops will continue to run. Mr. J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the S. P., and President of the C. & E. Co., will be in the city in a few days to dispose of the matters in the office preparatory to the change, and until then Mr. Nevins will remain in charge of affairs, when he will begin his duties as traffic man on the Oregon Electric line.

Mr. A. B. Hutchins, who has been in the office, has returned from San Francisco, where he took the books of the Company and left them in the general auditing department. It is said he will accept a position with the Oregon Electric Co., a very competent young man.

Mrs. Blackburn went to Lebanon this afternoon on a visit with her son.

Mrs. Ridders, of Ridders, has been in the city attending the Catholic fair.

Bert Stevens went to Portland this morning to see the metropolis.

Mr. F. M. French went to Portland this morning on a day's business trip.

Ex-councilman A. J. DeVaney and wife, of Scio, have been in the city today.

Mrs. J. G. Gibson and daughter Margaret are on their way home and are expected here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Reeves, of Lebanon, went to Oregon City this forenoon on a short trip.

Mrs. Letha Patton Stalnaker returned this morning from a visit with her folks in Halsey.

The town of Taratagh, Russia has been wiped out by an earthquake and fifteen hundred people killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, of Dayton, arrived this noon on a visit with their son W. H. Crabtree, of near this city.

Mrs. Gladys Shaw Holloway, of Chewich, Wash., arrived last evening on a visit with her folks in the country.

Chas. Welch and Ben Clelan returned this morning from a Lene county deer hunt, with some venison to show for the trip.

Carlton is having more than its share of fire losses. While ago its fine school building was burned, now its $40,000 hotel.

There will be two foot ball games in Eugene Saturday: Eugene H. S. and Hill Military Academy, and U. of O. and Chemawa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Maple, of Seaside, former Linn county people, arrived last night on a visit with Linn county relatives.

Mr. J. D. Dickover has his place in Benton county near this city, and will soon go to Portland to reside, his father having located in that city.

Three boys escaped from a truant officer in Portland and came up the valley. Better keep away from Albany. Catlin is watching for them.

California has followed Oregon and Washington, but instead of specifying the number of days the Governor issues a new proclamation every day.

Frank Scott, one of Aberdeen's five letter carriers, is visiting in the county at the home of his father Hon. J. H. Scott, on a two-week's vacation.

Lillie and Lena Karstens will leave next Monday for Millard, Neb., their native home, where they will spend several months with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reiner came up from Portland last night and went to Halsey this afternoon to look after their farm, during the absence of Mr. Wier.

Mr. Harlin Talbert who recently won one of the Portland Journal's scholarships, left last evening for Portland to begin a course of study in the Western Academy of Music, having a musical taste and desiring to do something in this line.

Miss Adeline Reed, a sister of Mrs. D. H. James, formerly an Albany college student, and Mr. Loyd Atkinson, of Cottonwood, Idaho, were married at the home of D. H. James, in Salem yesterday, Rev. Errett officiating.

H. C. Powell left at the DEMOCRAT office today a common white egg turpentine, which is a bouncer, weighing 13 pounds and 12 ounces. Even the Russians will have to even to their laurels.

Messrs. Robson, Carter, Broders and Thompson left this morning on a duck hunt on Round Lake. They had Mr. Robson's new automatic gun. The arrangements were to start it going and driving the ducks in from the range in front of it.

The Salem Journal boasts of several successful newspaper men formerly on the Journal, and even includes Frank Dyer. The others are Ed Hogue, Ed Averill, Ed Meresse, Ralph Watson and N. M. Newport.

J. G. Graham, who has represented Balfour Guthrie & Co. in Salem for sixteen years, a prominent and popular man, has been transferred to Spokane to take charge of the Company's business east of the mountains.

The new 300 pound stamping machine for the Corvallis post office passed through the city. It is the sixth to go, at $200 and $30 express, which the postmaster himself has to pay, as the government doesn't furnish such machines, hence the few offices having them.

A New Oregonian Agent.

After serving the Oregonian nine years efficiently as Albany agent for the Oregonian C. G. Rawlings, on account of having his hands full of other business has resigned. Tomorrow morning Howard C. Jordan and son Harold will take charge of the business, with headquarters at the store of Fosby & Mason.

CATHOLIC FAIR

A Financial and Social Success.

The Catholic fair closed last night with a large attendance. It was a financial success, as well as a pleasant social occasion, enjoyed by all. The booths did well, the meals were well patronized, the contests entered into with zest, the sweet cider appreciated, and the programs listened to with interest.

The program last evening, as given in the DEMOCRAT, was a good one, well carried out.

The contest for votes for the most popular young lady became spirited towards the end. 792 votes at 10c each were cast, Miss Maggie Shea leading with 311, Miss Kate Barrett next with 227, Miss Stella Dorgan 170, Miss Eva Huston 59 and Miss Clara Waddock 34. A fine umbrella was presented Miss Shea.

The doll for the most popular little girl was won by Alma Tracey, who received 332 votes, Elizabeth Eages 154, Helen Schultz 123, Constance Nicholls 44 and Margaret Kropp 16, 663 in all at 10c each.

B. J. Hecker, who was brought up on a farm, was the closest guesser at the big squash, which weighed 56 pounds, when he hit exactly. The guesses ranged up to about a hundred. A good deal of fun was had throwing three balls at a Teddy bear. Out of several hundred throws the bear was hit only three or four times, so was about as safe as most bears.

The total receipts were about $450, which will be used in the work of the church.

A live party of Eugene people was present during the evening, coming down on the train arriving at 5 o'clock in time for the fine 'Hallowe'en' lunches they were Mrs. Finnegan, Miss Mayne and Lulu Sullivan, Catherine and Amelia Miller, Mary and Margaret Woods, Mary LeVos, Kate Kastings, Tessie O'Brien, and Messrs. Casper Clark and Matthew Flaherty. There was also a party from Corvallis headed by Mrs. J. M. Nolan and Mrs. McFadden.

Sam Dolan in the Hospital.

Mr. Sam Dolan, who is attending Notre Dame College is now in the hospital, where the second operation was performed upon his leg for a misplaced cartilage, the result of a foot ball accident while in the big game last year. A strenuous effort is being made to get the leg in good shape, but there is danger of its being permanently stiff at the knee. This means no more foot ball for the famous tackle.

Died in Alaska.

Capt. Murphy, formerly of San Francisco, recently a prominent owner of Alaska mining properties, died in Alaska yesterday. While there his family were stopping at Lebanon. Carson & Cannon, of Salem, have been his attorneys and this morning returned from Lebanon, where they had been to see Mrs. Murphy in reference to the affairs of her husband.

Richmond Retires.

Mr. Al. Richmond tonight will retire as nightwatch, having resigned, and will work on the bridge gang of the Southern Pacific. This leaves a vacancy for the city council to fill. Who wants the job?

FRIDAY.

Rev. Douglas left this morning on a trip to Portland.

Mr. Al. Munkers went to Salem this morning on a business trip.

Harry Striker, of Lebanon, has sold his drug store to W. W. Christensen, recently from Chicago.

The Modern Travelers will hold a social meeting with Mrs. J. C. Irvine Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Chas. Medin is working in a plumbing shop in Portland. He will be joined by his family next week, making that city their home.

Ralph Turpin, of Waterloo, recently in Albany since going home, killed a fine deer in the garden at his home near Waterloo.

Mrs. A. R. Hill, of this city, has received word from Manila telling of the death of her son Will A. Hill, formerly of this city, who had been living there several years.

Rev. Riley Little, a former Albany minister, for ten or more years a pastor of a U. P. church in Chicago, has accepted a call to a Presbyterian church in Pittsburg.

Harold Hubbs, a Lebanon boy while skating in the rink at that city, assisting a young lady to learn the difficult task, was tripped, both falling, she on his leg while in a crouching position, breaking it.

All of the Booth-Kelly saw mills in Lane county have closed down, pending a settlement of freight difficulties. It is declared that the increased rates, if maintained, will knock the business.

U. of O. and Willamette will play at Salem tomorrow. Willamette has been up. It gave up, a game was arranged with Chemawa and U. of O., which has now been cancelled. Willamette's feet are getting warm.

Rev. Dewar, of Brownsville, went to Salem this morning to attend the funeral of Dr. Driver, held at the M. E. church at 2 o'clock today, instead of yesterday, as reported.

Mrs. O'Hagan, nee Miss Mary Murray, a former Albany young lady, arrived last night on an Albany visit, and is the guest of Mrs. Frank O'Brien. She recently came from Duluth, Iowa, where her brother Jim, a former Albany young man, resides, and is doing well. He has been married several years and has a three months old boy, the joy of the household.

Notwithstanding the statement that the union S. P. depot is to be at the junction of the two railroads, some local railroad men continue to believe that the depot will continue to be at the present site, and one reports having seen the plan with the yard at the other side, and fifteen or twenty tracks in the yard. Funny how easy it is for some people to see blue prints.

IOWA

Made a Poor Showing for an Oregonian.

W. D. Washburn, of Brownsville, returned last night from a trip to Iowa and other middle west states, and pronounces this valley so far ahead of that country as to offer little comparison. There was about half a crop of corn and oats, and dairying there does not equal Oregon. Lumber was $40 for rough and $100 for clear, odd looking stuff compared with our lumber. Farm land was from $60 to $200 an acre, and for rental the prevailing price was $2 an acre with nothing to justify it.

He found people everywhere anxious to come to the Northwest and look for a big immigration from Iowa.

Sam Dolan in the Hospital.

HALLOWE'EN

Results in the Several Amount of Cussedness.

It was Hallowe'en, a night of revelry along the boulevards of the metropolis of Linn.

The twelve year old boy, after promting his mother to be good, was out running like a coyote from street to street and yard to yard, turning over old fences, tearing off rotten pickets, leaving boards on people's steps and making havoc with loose things generally, doing more work in three hours than they could be hired to do at any price. A big stump in a Perry street yard, was moved several blocks, the work of a strong team.

Bigger boys were also out, and, though there were a couple of guards, the college books received their customary mixup, but no damage was done except to the feelings of those who had to straighten things and the guard which got left.

Most things have to be overlooked on Hallowe'en, and perhaps it is well to have blind eyes about one for a day or two.

Lecture Course Tickets.

A canvas for tickets for the coming lecture course, the best the city has ever had, will be begun soon, under the auspices of the college. The city has been divided into five districts as follows:

1st—Calapooia west, Miss Minnie Epley canvasser.

2nd.—Calapooia to Broadalbin, Lester Compton canvasser.

3rd.—Broadalbin to Baker, Annetta Burch canvasser.

4th.—Baker to Thurston, Rhoda Stalnaker canvasser.

5th.—Thurston east, Joe Lewis canvasser.

A prize of $5 will be given the one selling the most tickets, which will be confined to their districts.

The course will be a treat for the city, and deserves a liberal support.

Ham Fakers.

Woodburn Independent: Last week two men sold country cured hams in this city and did a thriving business. When they disappeared it was learned that they sold short weight, having manipulated the scales to some extent. E. P. Morcom swore out a warrant for their arrest in Justice Hayes' office, and they were apprehended in Salem. Constable Beach went after them and brought them back to Woodburn Friday, where they were arraigned and pleaded guilty to the charge, for which the minimum fine is $5. They were bound over to circuit in the sum of $90 and gave cash bail. This will doubtless end the case so far as they are concerned. They gave the names of John F. Gibbons and Sid Osborn, the former claiming to hail from Montana, the latter from Alabama.

College Society Halloween.

The A. C. L. S. held their fourth annual hallowe'en party at the Woodmen Hall last night and an all round good time was enjoyed. Games were played until all the party arrived then the program was rendered. It consisted of but four numbers, but every one was very humorous and well presented. On the conclusion of the program new games were introduced and an hour was spent rending the walls of the hall with sounds of merriment.

At 10:30 the typical hallowe'en lunch which consisted of sweet cider and doughnuts, apples and hickory nuts, consumed most of the remainder of the evening. Just before leaving for home the entire party gathered around the piano and indulged in a vociferous demonstration of college songs, ending with Good Night Ladies, after which came the adjournment, those present voting it a great success.

North Albany.

Will Phillips has returned from a trip to San Francisco. Mal Kelley, who went with him, remained for a longer experience.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Small, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Small, Eph Small, B. C. Wyatt and son and W. B. Shannon, have returned from a trip to the Alsea, where they went after deer and fish, returning sooner than they expected.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Leeper have moved to Waldport, depending on how well they like the country.

Mrs. J. G. Gibson and daughter have returned from their Pennsylvania trip, greatly pleased with their eastern visit.

200 Empty Cars.

S. P. Agent Frank reports plenty of cars coming in now for lumber and other things. Most of the California products, such as wheat, have been moved and the cars are now ready for other things. During the past three days about two hundred empty cars have been distributed in and around Albany, sixty of them being sent out on the Corvallis and Eastern, so it is probable there will now be little complaint, at least that is the way it looks just at present.

Ex. for Mail Clerk.

An examination for railroad mail way mail clerk will be held at the post office Nov. 19th. Age limits 18 to 35, must be physically sound, not less than 5 feet 5 barfoots, and weigh not less than 130 without overcoat or hat. Apply to local post office for blanks and information.

See Halsey and Albany Play.

See Albany college and Halsey play foot ball at Rambler park tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, an early hour being set in order to get through early. It will be a good game.

HARRISBURG.

Ex-Sheriff White Again a Resident.

Mrs. Erna T. Wegge, better known as Grandma Wegge, died at her home in this city yesterday morning, aged 79 years and seven months.

Miss Hazel Warmoth was operated upon at the hospital in the city last Saturday for appendicitis, and although her condition was quite serious for a while she is now doing well.

Our farmers should begin to get ready for the farmers' institute to be held in this city Saturday, November 23, 1907. Three sessions will be held during the day and evening.

The welcome sound of the mill whistle is again heard in this city. Messrs. A. Wilhelm & Sons having decided to install a new boiler in their mill at Junction City, and in the mean time to operate the mill in this city while the repairs were made at Junction City.

Vin Goodlin had the misfortune to get the second finger of his left hand mixed up with a wood-saw the latter part of last week, and after he had visited the office of Dr. Dale he was shy two joints of the finger.

R. L. White has once more become a citizen of this section of the county, and is residing at his farm east of sheep. His family will remain in Albany during the winter, in order to give his daughter the benefit of the school there, and he will keep bachelor's hall out at the farm. It is his intention to run sheep on the place for the present.

10 PER CENT

The Test of an Albany Cow.

Mrs. J. B. Leatherman, of this city has two cows, twins, two years old last August, which are undoubtedly remarkable in the test of cream from them. An honest test made this week at the Albany creamery showed 10 per cent for the milk from one of the cows and 7-2-5 for the other. The figures were so high that the creamery men were suspicious, but of course everything was on the square. The cows, Jerseys, eligible to registration, are simply wonderful animals. Further tests will be made, and if they hold up it will be difficult to place the value of the animals. Ladd of Portland, some time ago paid $1,000 for a cow that tested much less.

Albany and Salem Today.

Albany and Salem H. S. were in the midst of a fast foot ball game this afternoon, at past time, with prospects of Albany, which is stronger than in the Chemawa game, winning. The lineups are:

Salem—Smith Full, Richardson and Jones or Krebs at half, Farmer capt, and qb, Eyr or Lafky c, Watson and Hofer guards, Keene and Savage or Bellinger tackle, Niles and Kay ends.

Albany—Monteith full back, Standish and Flo at half, Ssbultz qb, Gibbons c, Fogaway and Rees guards, Ward and Merrill tackles, Barnes and Neeley ends.

Already Done Harm.

The reported increase in freight rates on lumber to the east, even though there has been an injunction granted, has already done its harm. Many orders from the east were withdrawn in anticipation of it, and orders that would have been made, have been withheld, so that Oregon saw mills, which depend mostly upon outside points for their business are feeling the effects of the situation in a very decided manner. The matter should be settled permanently so eastern buyers may know what to depend upon. The lumber business is a big one, and it should be the purpose of the railroads to help build it up.

Big Wheat Crop.

Mrs. Frank Froman has returned from a visit at the homes of the Froman Bros. in the Big Bend country, at Downs, where three or four of the Froman brothers live and are doing all right. George had a splendid season of it, on three hundred acres raising 10,585 bushels of wheat, which means a fine clean up for the year at the present good prices for wheat. A 10,000 bushel yield in Linn county would make one's head dizzy.

Won't Take Lumber.
