COLLEGE DOINGS.

The Trustees:— The meeting of the board of trustees was a large one, sixteen being present, enthusiastic for the advancement of the college. Besides the home members there were Dr. Foulkes and Rev. Holt, of Portland, Mr. McKinnay, of Astoria, Rev. H. N. Mount, of Eugene and Rev. A. M. Williams, of McMinnville. Dr. Foulkes was elected chairman of the finance committee and will push the work of securing an endowment. Hon. F. J. Miller was reelected president of the board, A. C. Schmitt secretary, J. C. Irvine treasurer, Prof. Han. Flo assistant to the treasurer who will handle the funds at first hands. Miss Emily Hanson, of Park College, was elected director of the conservatory of music, making a faculty of four in that department, Prof. Palmer remaining in charge of voice culture, Miss Cone of advanced pupils and Miss Lena Tawney will teach those under fifteen, making a strong musical department. Miss Irvine resigned as Matron of Tremont hall, and will devote her time to the chair of English, this summer taking a special course at Berkeley. Prof. Palmer will spend the summer in special work at Chicago. Miss Louise Blackwell, of Parmer, Idaho, a graduate of the Cumnook school of oratory was elected to the chair of elocution, an instructor highly commended. It is intended to secure a separate building for the conservatory of music, in which Miss Blackwell will also have a room. Tremont Hall will probably be appropriated exclusively for the young ladies and a boys' club organized somewhere. Resolutions Passed:— 1. That in accepting the resignation of Prof. C. S. Poenock the Board express appreciation of his sterling manliness and his loyal service. The Concert.— The annual commencement concert was given last night at the U. P. church, a choice musical event, presented under the direction of Prof. Palmer. It was in two parts, the first consisting of a song by the college chorus, By Moonlight; songs by Prof. Palmer, Death and the Maiden, and The Asa; the Spinning Song by Miss Cone and the Song of Thanksgiving by Miss Edith Yetter; a grand effort; the second part of the 91st Psalm, directed by Prof. Palmer, with Mrs. Worell at the organ, the same as given several weeks ago by the choir of the U. P. church. The Commencement:— The following class was graduated, in exercises at the U. P. church, this forenoon: Frederic W. Neal, Turner B. of A. Gladys Hyde Easton, Sitkum, Phelura Leota Gilham, Glendale, Mamie Agnes McKnight, Albany, Elsie May Thayer, Seio, bachelors of pedagogy. Chas. Curry, Corvallis, Blanche Lennox, Albany, bachelor of accounts. Jeannette Bounds, Baker City, Minnie Halsey, Cecile Knox, Eulah Wright, Albany, Bertha Newton, Mollala, William J. Patterson, Oakland, Nellie Thompson, Lebanon, short hand.

The program:— Prayer by Rev. A. M. Williams, a well rendered piano duet by Misses Willetta Wright and Nita Schultz. The following orations: The sculptor, a well worded effort, by Miss Gilham; The Literary Champions of Childhood, displaying much thought, by Miss McKnight; an excellent sketch of New England Puritan literature by Miss Easton; Oliver Cromwell, in an interesting narration, by Miss Thayer; and America as a World Power, suggestive of the wonderful strides this country by W. W. Neal, has made in the progress of the world. Miss Eva French sang Schubert's Serenade well. The senior medal, for excellency in scholarship, student activities and general loyalty, was awarded F. W. Neal, by Hon. F. J. Miller; the junior medal to Miss Katherine McMillan of Portland, books by Prof. Zugg to William H. Steele of the regular course, John Liggett of the academic course, and Miss Wilma Gaines of the commercial department, for highest standing in Bible study. Miss Yetter and Prof. Palmer were appreciated in their presentation of Love On. The program closed with benediction by Rev. White.
