

INSTANT RELIEF OF ITCHING HUMOR

Limbs Below the Knees Were Raw - Feet Too Swollen to Get Shoes On - Sleep Completely Broken by Intense Itching and Burning - Well in Two Days and Says That

CUTICURA IS AMONG HIS HOUSEHOLD GODS

"God bless the man who first compounded Cuticura. Some two months ago I had a humor break out on my limbs below my knees. They came to look like raw beefsteak, all red, and no one knows how they itched and burned. They were so swollen that I had to split my drawers open to get them on and could not get my shoes on for a week or more. I used five or six different remedies and got no help, only when applying them the burning was worse and the itching less. One morning I remembered that I had a bit of Cuticura and tried it. From the moment it touched me the itching was gone and I have not felt a bit of it since. The swelling went down and in two days I had my shoes on and was about as usual. I only wish I had used the Cuticura Remedies in the first of my troubles. They would have saved me two or three weeks of intense suffering. During that time I did not sleep an hour at a time, but was up applying such remedies as I had. Henceforth the Cuticura Remedies will be among my household gods, rest assured. George B. Farley, 50 South State St., Concord, N. H., May 14, 1907."

ALONG THE R. R.

People are watching with interest the progress of the new depot. There are some who will not believe it is going to be built until the roof is put on. It promises to be a model depot, one of the prettiest in the N. W.

Some booze shippers in Portland receiving complaint that their goods were being tampered with in a dry county up the road a detective made investigations and the result was a confession and some changes, but changes occur frequently from other reasons, so never do any guess work. Two of them occurred at Albany.

Recently a freight conductor between Muddy and Harrisburg came near being hit with a bullet from a 22 calibre. Several times the trainmen were disturbed by shots fired at the train. Detective Reilly was sent up that way and found that it was a couple of boys. Their parents did some live pleading to keep them from the reform school, and they will be given a chance to behave themselves.

It takes a special car every morning to ship the butter and other produce out of Albany by express to Portland and other northern points.

The new train service on the C. & E. is being greatly appreciated. This morning's train was again filled.

There is much guessing as to what is to become of the old depot, whether Albany will have a station house and where the freight depot will be.

The Home Spreading Out

Geo. E. Sanders returned last night from home business in Portland. The Co. has just put in a plant in Hood River, with 800 phones on the exchange, which it is said is about the record for a new plant. Mr. Harbinger, who did the construction work on the Albany plant, had charge of it there. The Company expects to have a line running to Portland from that country.

W. D. Devarney, formerly with the Home, is now working independently, organizing exchanges in different parts of the Northwest.

The Coopers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooper went to Newport this morning to be present at the annual reunion of the seven Cooper Brothers, which is being made an annual event. It is a remarkable fact that seven brothers, all gray haired, should retain their health so long. All are expected to be present. J. S., the banker of Independence, J. C. of Mc Minnville, one of The Dalles, another up the C. & E., all of the boys.

Doing Good Work.

Street Superintendent Paine is doing splendid work in the improvement of the streets of the city. Just now Lyo street is being scraped and put in new shape. Mr. Paine is a very efficient official and has done a good deal for the streets and sidewalks of the town.

SPEAKER CANNON.

DODGING CYCLONES.

Mr. Ed. Warner, of the Albany Transfer Co., has returned from a trip to Wisconsin, experiencing some terrific climate while gone. One day a Wisconsin man actually hid in his cyclone cellar fourteen times. Life during the cyclone season is a continual round of frights.

Over the Mountains.

Snow in the mountain passes of the Cascades, which lingered longer this spring than in past years, has finally given way to the fervent rays of the summer sun and traffic between Western and Central Oregon has been resumed by way of the Santiam road to Albany and the Mackenzie trail to Eugene and Springfield.—Laidlaw Chronicle.
