BEGINS JULY 2 AT 10:30 A. M.

The first thing in the July celebration will be the game of base ball at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow between Albany and Lebanon, on the college grounds. It promises to be a hot number. Charley Bilyeu, one of O egon's best pitcher's, it is said, will be in the box for Albany. The last game he pitched in Eastern Oregon only two hits were made off him. See it.

In the afternoon at 2:30 the races will begin at the Bailey tracks, with a splendid program arranged. There will be three harness events and a running race. For the 2:16 pace Josephine, a fast California horse, Zom Norte, of Salem and Iowa Boy of Hillsboro will start, in the 2:25 trot there are nine entries including Bob Huston's Black Beauty of Corvallis, Sim Lindsey's Louise, Mack McAlpin's Mae Tilden, Fred Woodcock's Falmont, Doc Frazer in charge of Charley Barrows Kiger's Lane. The third race will be the three year old trot, six good entries: Marcus H. of Independence, Sim Lindsey's Lost Bird, Hugh Cumming's Lady C, Sir Thomas of Corvallis, Charley Barrows' Sis Hopkins and Mack McAlpin's Loretta D.

Following are the entries for the running races, one half mile on Thursday, and three fourths on Friday: Cheta and Bill Short, by W. W. Percival, Independence; Lillie Adams, by Rube Dickenson, Independence; The Counselor, F. Heavener, Hood River; Lady Barnato, R. Moore, Scio.

Albany is doing itself proud in decorations. The whole city is being covered.

Miss Flo Danahs, Albany's native goddess of liberty, will be surrounded by a liberty wagon full of pretty girls. The parade will be the best ever given in Albany.

While it is in progress no firing of crackers or bombs, or banging of canes will be allowed. The committee propose to have arrests for violation of this.

For a Mediocrity Young Lady.

Miss Myrtle Roberts, last evening entertained several of her young lady friends in honor of Miss Isaacs, of Medford, who is visiting here. A delightful time was had in numerous ways. Besides the social part and choice refreshments the young ladies took a couple of whirls together on the merry-go-round, then they went down to the Empire and laughed at the funny things thrown on the canvass and it was late in the evening before they got through with their good time.

Ten Years an Archbishop.

Father Lane has been in Portland attending the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Archbishop Christy. The Democrat is sure of it, for in this morning's Oregonian there is a good picture of him, with the other clergy present, a large group from all over Oregon.
