THIS MORNING DEATH OF W. ALBERS.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

A jolly crowd of commercial travelers awaited the Cottage Grove local or some other local, full of jokes and guys, on politics and otherwise, a bright lot of fellows who come here frequently: L. A. Cruikshanks, Wayne Stuart the actor drummer, Jack Flynn, T. Wiggman, Sid Beck, A. Clark, Geo. Peel a Philippine veteran and W. F. Jeffries. An old time drummer, now a successful real estate dealer of Portland, Ivan Humason, had to run the gauntlet, the boys handling him without gloves.

Miss Ethel Redfield, after spending the summer at her father's, started on her return trip to Lewiston, to resume her work in teaching the Idaho youngsters English.

Councilman Mark Peery and wife, of Springfield, went to Scio to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pfeiffer went to Portland for a few days visit, leaving their home in charge of Mrs. Emma Dorris and Catherine.

Miss Millie Doshie, for a good many years a teacher in the Chemawa Indian school, returned from a visit with Mrs. J. C. Mavor, of Lebanon, where she left her ward to spend the winter. Miss Doshie was a resident of Albany about fifteen years ago.

Mr. Fanno, a big onion raiser, of Beaverton, left for home after an Albany visit.

E. U. Will, now of Salem, returned home after a Lebanon trip, where he tunes numerous pianos, making that a specialty now.

Quite a number of Albany people left for Scio to attend the fair: Miss Emelie Hanson, of the college, to look after music matters for the college; Miss Rhoda Stalnaker, to join Coon's orchestra, and play during the fair; W. H. Hogan, Lee Morgan, F. J. DeVaney and others. Also Prof. Withycombe, of the O. A. C., who will officiate as judge and also make one or two addresses.

Lawyer Newport came down from Lebanon.

E. C. Clement, postal inspector, left for northern points.

Prof. J. B. Horner and Mr. Dobeles of the Benton National Bank, returned home after having spent the previous night with the Knights Templars.

Miss Minnie Miller, of this city, and Miss Jessie Matlock, of near Brownsville, left for Wallowa where they will teach the coming year, having the two primary grades. The school is a good one, with six teachers, and is well organized.

Will Not Be Sent For.

Deputy District Attorney Hill has decided not to have the thief of the jewelry of Jos. H. Ralston sent for, the circumstances hardly justifying securing the requisitions. This is to be regretted, as the case is one which calls for the limit of the law. The stolen jewelry, though, will undoubtedly be returned.

Coming!

Eugene W. Chafin prohibition presidential candidate will speak at the Albany opera house Saturday night Sept. 5 at 8 o'clock. Cyrus H. Walker, Sec. Linn Co. Prohibition Club.

Oysters at the Metropolitan.

The oyster season has opened, and from now on the Metropolitan Market Broadalbin street, will have the best to be secured, the fat article, good measure. Just from the beds.

Also all the fish delicacies of the season. Call when you want the best, neat and clean.

We Have Proven

That our tea and coffee is superior to any sold in Albany. We have absolutely the best. Money refunded if goods are not satisfactory, at the Oregon Market.

Mr. Weert Albers died during last night at his home between Albany and Tangent. He has been afflicted for several years with asthma. Yesterday he was in the city, returning home in the evening. During the night he was choked up with the disease, resulting in his death. He was a worthy resident of Linn county for twenty or thirty years, leaving an excellent record as a citizen. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church. He leaves a devoted wife, a daughter, Mrs. E. E. Warford and a son, Henry Albers.

The funeral service will be held at the U. P. Church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Rev. White preaching the sermon.

From Panama.

M. C. Gav, E. P. Sine and Walter J. Whyte, of the Canal Zone, Panama, are in the city, while on a tour of the Northwest country, looking around for a location. The young men have been in the government service, but the climate there is monotonous for a permanent residence, the same summer and winter, excepting that there is a wet and dry season. They report steady progress on the great canal, a well organized service for connecting the two great oceans.

Manager Dasant has heretofore been in correspondence with some of the party, who are in conference with him.

Reception to the Commander.

At the session of the Knights Templars last night there was a large gathering including prominent members from other places. A reception was tendered the eminent grand commander Hon. F. J. Miller of this city, with appropriate exercises, including a short talk by Mr. Miller. A fine spread was enjoyed.

Foot Ball Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Alco Club at the Club parlors tonight, of those interested in the organization of a foot ball team for the coming season. The Club has some excellent material and proposes to have a team that will be a credit to the city.

A GOOD BUY.

Mrs. J. T. Wentworth, of the Albany Supply Co., has bought of Dr. D. M. Jones, of Sodaville, the property at the corner of Washington and Third streets, consisting of two lots and an old residence. Consideration $2500.

This is one of the finest located corners in the city, being high and slightly as well as convenient. It is the intention of Mrs. Wentworth to greatly improve the corner, slanting the property down to the street at a rolling angle, and hence will have some splendid dirt to dispose of. Then she will improve the present house on Washington street and erect three cottages for rental on Third street, at least one this year, perhaps all of them. This is a fine improvement for Albany and shows the spirit of the day.
