LEBANON

The E. A. Senator M. A. Miller left this afternoon for Cottage Grove and Roseburg, where he will make addresses in the interest of Bryan and Kern, after which he will return to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Winner celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in this city last Wednesday evening, Sept. 23, 1908.

Hon. J. R. Smith has purchased a small tract of land from his son, N. W. Smith, southeast of town and will have a home built on the same. He has sold his home on Bridge Avenue and will live with his son until his new home is completed.

Mrs. A. E. Zeising and son Roy, rural carrier from Waterloo, returned Tuesday from a month's visit in the east and south. They first went to Kansas, then down through Oklahoma, Texas and home by way of California. They were in a railroad wreck near San Antonio, Texas, where Mrs. Zeising was badly bruised up.

Mrs. R. Kyle underwent a dangerous surgical operation at St. Mary's hospital in Albany yesterday. The operation was performed by Dr. Coffey, of Portland, assisted by Drs. Booth, of Lebanon. The patient is resting easy and is expected to get along all right. The same surgeons also performed a dangerous operation upon Mrs. Wm. Smiddy, of Brownsville, at the same place yesterday. She, too, is getting along nicely.

New York Won.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The pennant race is still neck and neck. There were double headers all around today. New York won both games from Cincinnati.

BROWNSVILLE.

Times: The first story of the Woodmen building owned by Ed. Holloway and occupied by White & Knapp, was sold this week to D. B. Cooper, of Sherwood, Oregon, for $2,600.

In the name of Friendship, Love and Truth, the cornerstone of the new Odd Fellows Temple in this city was laid last evening by the members of the Calapooia Lodge No. 43, I. O. O. F., assisted by Grand Master Edward Hostetler of The Dalles, Past Grand Masters J. K. Weatherford and W. C. Tweedale, of Albany, and Contractor E. J. Emmons, of Springfield.

Mrs. David Templeton, of Prineville, aged 78 and 73 years, crossed the mountains alone, with buggy and team, last week, are visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances here.

James A. Blackburn was born on a farm near Dowdridge, Jefferson County, East Tennessee, March 12, 1841, and died at his home in Brownsville, Oregon, September 18, 1908, aged 67 years, 6 months and 6 days.

David Sterling and family who went to the Alberta, Canada, country to seek a location a couple of weeks ago, have returned to Brownsville and will remain here for the present at least. Mr. Sterling says there is much sickness in the Alberta country and it was on this account that he returned so soon.

Charles Erickson and son, Oliver, were in Brownsville yesterday, having just arrived from Prineville, where they were taken as prisoners last week by Sheriff Elkins. As noted elsewhere in The Times, the Ericksons were discharged when they were arraigned for examination at Prineville on the charge of horse stealing, the evidence not being sufficient to hold them. Mr. Erickson called on The Times and stated that it was his turn now to try and send some one to the penitentiary.

EVERY AFTERNOON.

Hereafter the Empire theater will run afternoons as well as evenings with a good program on. Children only 5 cents at the matinees. Always something good, and it is right on First street convenient for everybody. A fine orchestra furnishes the music, and the songs are always the best going. The Village Gossypers, which will be seen tonight, is something extra, a side splitter, and there are others. Step in, and see what is going on.

Off for the Philippines.

Newberg Graphic: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKillop, who have been in town for several weeks visiting with Mrs. McKillop's father, J. F. Taylor, left here on Thursday for San Francisco where they expect to take passage on a government transport for the Philippines where they will take up teaching in the schools again for a term of three years. In response to the call by the government for teachers they entered the service soon after their marriage three years ago, and this will be their second trip to the islands after a summer's vacation. On the transport they will not be charged for passage but will pay a dollar per day for board and will be on the way a little more than thirty days.
