Mr. Moore explained that a desirable piece of property could be secured from the Hackleman estate for $1800, as a site and exhibited blue prints showing the location of the property; and that the site was most desirable on account of its being contiguous to the railroad tracks. He asserted that if the Commercial Club would endorse the project in the raising of one-half the amount necessary to purchase the property, that he and his associates would complete the deal and immediately commence building operations upon the plant the deeds for the property being placed in escrow until the completion of the factory, when full possession will be given to the projectors of the new plant.
On motion of F. J. Miller the Club adopted a resolution endorsing the plan of Mr. Moore for the immediate establishment of a cannery, and appointing a committee to solicit subscriptions to raise the amount required to secure the site recommended. President Langdon appointed the following committee: W. A. Barrett, J. N. Chambers, J. J. Collins, W. A. Eastburn, J. L. Tomlinson and F. J. Miller.

PUT OFF
By Objection of Councilman Wilmot.

The city council held an adjourned session last night to consider the street R. R. franchise, the terms of which had practically been agreed upon except the limit. When it came to the third reading, with thirty years as the time of the franchise, Councilman Wilmot objected to the reading, and as one objection throws an ordinance over this one had to be continued to the regular meeting in three weeks. As it is desired to have work progress at once on both the street car system and the paving there was considerable feeling displayed over the unnecessary obstruction, displayed in a few cutting remarks. The franchise ordinance will be passed at the regular meeting.

He is a performer of rare genius as well as a gentleman of excellent personal character, and will be an addition to Albany's musical force.

He will meet with the Albany Commercial Club on Wednesday evening, and talk over the matter. All he asks is the taking of some stock in the enterprise. Mr. Caldwell is a son of the late V. H. Caldwell, a reliable young man, and the enterprise is just the kind Albany should have. Boost it.

MARRIED.

Williams-French.
One of the prettiest weddings Albany has ever had was that of Mr. Richard Watson Williams, of Portland, and Miss Frances Lillian French, of Albany, at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening, Sept. 23, 1908, at 5 o'clock.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. White in the parlor amidst as handsome decorations as one ever sees, neatly arranged vines and flowers, in the presence of between sixty and seventy relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. Miss Evah French, sister of the bride, sang Schubert's Serenade, with Mrs. Alice B. Marshall as accompanist, when the groom appeared with the officiating minister, followed by the bride in a handsome travelling suit of blue, accompanied by her father. A very impressive ring service was used. Congratulations followed and a tasty wedding lunch was served in the prettily decorated dining room.
The display of presents was large and elegant, among them being a rich set of decorated China from the father and mother of the groom, a beautiful silver set from the parents of the bride and a costly Persian rug from the sister of the groom and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher A. Gaddis.
The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Evah French.
The groom is a son of Maj. George Williams, of Portland, in the government service, a young man of excellent character and attainments, the bride is a daughter of F. M. French the jeweler, a popular and accomplished young lady, graduate of Albany college, and recently a teacher in the high school, beloved by a large circle of friends. An interesting fact is that both the groom and bride and their mothers are all natives of Oregon.
Those present from outside places were Maj. and Mrs. George Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gaddis, Mrs. Helen Stratton, Mrs. Edward Sullivan and Mr. Bert Haney, a prominent lawyer, of Portland, Miss Elene Fawk, of Salem and Miss Hazel McNair, of Tillamook.
Mr. and Mrs. Williams left today for Portland. Monday they will go to Page, Wash., where Mr. Williams will be stationed, in some work on Snake river, for several months.
Mrs. Williams was a member of the chorus choir of the United Presbyterian church and is the eighth also to be married within a few years.

The Albany Herald is simply becoming a public nuisance, if a newspaper can become such. It attacks first one and then another of Albany's citizens in a most vicious manner. If the Herald's statements about Albany citizens is as far from truth as was its statements about our fair, recently, the aforesaid citizens have nothing to fear. Indeed, the Herald's editor is determined to become a member of the Annanias club in short order. Stick to the truth, Brother Herald. You will find it will pay in the end.

Mr. Hart has a hen which has lain 215 eggs since the 20th of November and is keeping at it. J. H. Walker, of North Albany, also secured a few and Dr. Stevers several on White Plymouth Rocks.
