THE Gossard CORSETS

They Lace In Front

YOU have heard of these famous corsets which have created a furor in France and America—the new idea in corset-building.

This next week you will have the pleasure of seeing them, of trying them on, of learning, first-hand, from an expert corsetiere, all about them. She will explain the

"New Art of Figure-Building"

Every woman in Albany, who sets value upon a perfect figure, should see these splendid models of the Gossard Corset, which alone induces the slender, sinuous, girlish back so greatly desired by the woman of fashion. Gossard Corsets are conducive to health, as well as grace and beauty, because they give just the support which every woman needs and appreciates, and make life worth the living.

We ask you cordially to attend this exploitation sale which will begin Thursday in our corset section. We want you to meet Madam Redding, the corsetiere sent here by the manufacturer, to personally introduce, explain and fit Gossard Corsets. We want you to see for yourself how infinitely superior is the Gossard to every other corset you ever saw. Be sure to come.

THIS MORNING LIBRARY DOINGS.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Detective Reilly, of the S. P., was here. J. J. Collins and E. J. Seeley left for Gates, where they went to act as arbitrators in the settlement of a farm line division.

Hon. J. M. Philpot and wife, of Harrisburg, left on a trip to Laceyville, Penn., where relatives reside, and expect to be gone until about Christmas. Mr. Philpot will be home in time for the convening of the state legislature, of which he is a member. He left his Missouri home in 1851 when three years old, and this is his first trip back, his intention being to stop on the way.

Mrs. J. R. Rolla, mother, and Miss Harper, an aunt, of Mrs. J. D. Ellis, left for their home at Marseilles, Ill. The former has been here two years and the latter several months, making many friends.

Mrs. J. C. Mayer, of Lebanon, went to Portland and may go to Pendleton before returning home.

Mr. Edward Allen, the efficient S. P. agent at Shedd, for several years, left for his new charge at Sheridan, where he will be joined by his family in a few days.

F. H. Colpitts returned to his work at the Gold Creek mines.

Prof. J. B. Horner and Norman Lilly returned to Corvallis after being over to attend a session of the commandery. Dr. J. C. Booth came down from Lebanon.

Rev. J. L. Beatty and family went to their new field of work at Creswell, Lane county.

Lawyer Newport came down from Lebanon.

Something We Want.

A. J. Caldwell, manufacturer of men's socks, is down from from Stayton, with a fine display of the product of his factory. Mr. Caldwell wishes to come to Albany with his plant to secure our superior shipping and business advantages, and will present the matter to the Albany Commercial Club tonight. It should be given a practical encouragement. It is just what we need here.

Mr. Jack Hammell, one of Albany's best boosters, and wife, left this afternoon on their eastern trip. They will go through Salt Lake and Denver, and remain several weeks in Nebraska, before going as far east as Ohio. Jack has his trunk full of Albany boosters and will make Albany and Linn county an issue. Coming to Albany with an empty pocket book he is one of the city's prosperous citizens, with a good deal to show for it, and believes thoroughly in the Willamette Valley.

Wanted a young man as general helper. Apply at once to the Magnolia Steam Laundry.

S. P. HOTEL

To Be Moved to Lyon and Ninth Streets

Work was begun this morning on the lot of Chris Vandran, at the corner of Ninth and Lyon street, less than a block away from the new depot, preparatory to making the foundation for the hotel to be moved across the track to the corner, for a permanent home, under the new order of things.

The depot is to be reconstructed, and somewhat changed in form, several thousand dollars, it is said, to be used in remodeling it.

The change will probably not be made until the removal of the freight depot, and where that will go no one knows, at Albany.

An Adv. Did It.

R. C. Churchill has sold the place he advertised to a new corner from the east. He has moved into his new home, and not wishing two places sold the one he has recently vacated. It was easy. He simply planted an advertisement in the Democrat and in four days had a buyer.

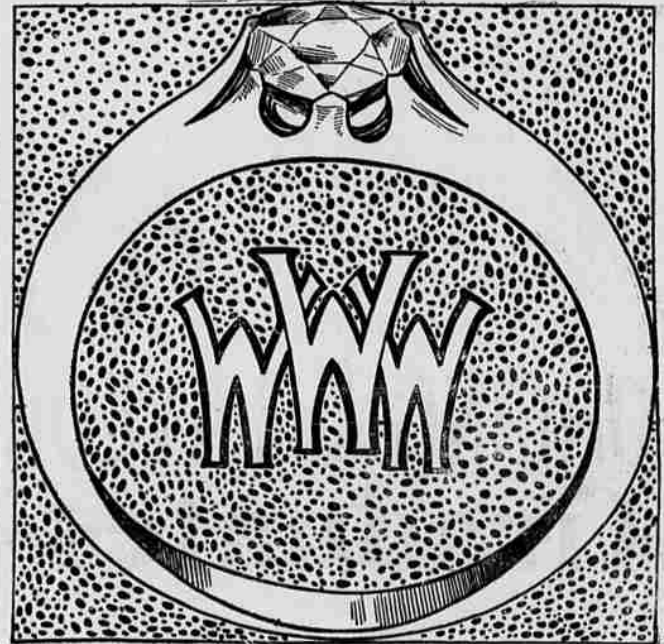

Notice.

To my many friends and customers: Although I have lost much in the fire I am again ready for business. New goods will be here as fast as I can get them. Call and see me, I need your trade now more than ever. A. SCHMIDT, 128 Ferry St.
