CHICAGO WON AGAIN.

DETROIT, Oct. 10.—Before an audience of twenty thousand yelling fans, amid showers of drizzling rain, Chicago defeated Detroit in the first of the World's Championship series today. Score 10 to 9.

WAR IS INEVITABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Advices from Belgrade state that Serbia sees no way to avoid war.
Many wild rumors are in circulation in Paris but are unconfirmed.

SPEAKER CANNON.

Whom the Oregon Presbyterians, with many other excellent people in the U. S. want defeated.

The Very Latest.

The Bill Board, just received, gives three of the latest and best films of the day as The Motor Race, The Loaded Dice and the Happiest Day of her Life. It is an interesting fact that these are the ones now on at the Empire, and may be seen tonight. The race is wonderfully realistic; the loaded dice gives one of the prettiest deceptions ever presented, and that of a young girl taken in ill just before taking the holy communion, a striking thing in the life of the young member of the Catholic church wonderfully portrayed.

HARRISBURG.

Bulletin:
Ed Nixon will leave in a day or two for Portland where he and his family will reside.

Julius Falk of near Halsey has purchased the farm known as the Frakes place three miles north of town. Price $25.00 per acre.

Lawrence Camp-ton of Seio, a nephew of Geo. DuVanoy, has purchased the Goodlin ranch of 66 acres six miles north of town. The consideration was $1600.

P. H. Couch received the insurance on their place last Friday, the $500 in full. The loss occurred Thursday. That is a pretty quick settlement. Mr. and Mrs. Couch immediately purchased a new home, the Bailey residence, consideration $300.

Mrs. M. J. Hochdanner brought in samples of apples the other day from two year old trees. They were very fine specimens. She promises to have a box of the best ones on display at the fair in Albany. It is not her expectations to win a prize, but rather to show what can be done in fruit culture around Harrisburg.

The body of James Nixon, who was drowned last week Tuesday, was found Saturday about 3 o'clock by Clarence George, Carter Allingham and Ed Walker. The funeral was held from the Christian church Monday, Rev. J. S. McCallum of Eugene conducting the services.

Wants a New County.

Cottage Grove Leader
The question of forming a new county from north Douglas and south Lane with Cottage Grove as the seat of government in the new county, is at last nearing a settlement, the proposition having been taken up by the Cottage Grove high school debating team for final disposition at one of their forthcoming meetings. The Leader is with the affirmative.
