THIS MORNING HELD FOR

News from Six of Albany's 26 Passenger Trains.

Rev. W. P. Elmore, of Brownsville, went to Portland this morning to be one of the speakers at a big meeting tonight at the White temple, representing Chaffin. E. S. J. McAllister will speak for Bryan. T. J. Edwards for Taft and J. D. Stevens for Debs. The Oregonian this morning gives all their pictures. The meeting promises to be a warm number.

Mr. Jim Wilson, a prominent Salem Nimrod, came down on the Brownsville train with a string of about six Celestials, which he earned.

Rev. H. Wyse Jones, the Baptist evangelist, passed through for Centralia, Wash., where he will conduct services. He has been in Corvallis and will be back again Friday. Miss Etta Carter, the former teacher, came over from Corvallis, and went to Salem this afternoon. Prominent drummers leaving for other points were Bille Frazier, Wayne Stewart and Sid Beck, live fellows. Cecil Cathey, the painter, left for Portland, from which city he will start out on a trip as far as Boise, Idaho, with his gang of sign painters, with several contracts on hand, and will be gone about a month.

Mr. Herman Hecker, the stock man, went to Scio and from there will go to Portland with a shipment of hogs. His brother Barney is now up in South Dakota disposing of some high grade Cotswold bucks. The Hecker Brothers do a big business in stock gathering, pretty well covering the Pacific slope.

Miss Sus Breckenridge returned from Lebanon, where she has been assisting her sister, Mrs. Stanley Stewart in getting settled. The new girl has not been definitely named, but is liable to be called Elizabeth.

THE G. J.

The two men taken from the box car yesterday morning by Policemen Catlin and Saylor yesterday evening were taken before Justice Swan, and upon waiving examination were held for the grand jury. In default of bail they will board in the county jail for a while.

They gave their names as Daniel Burns and Jos. Fortune, and claimed to have been working on an electric line in Washington. At Portland, while somewhat boozed up they gave a brakeman a dollar, according to their story, and they were put in a car and locked up, being told that the car would be opened at Junction. Here they made a noise and were taken charge of. They are accused of breaking into the property of the Southern Pacific with criminal intent.

Returned from Europe.

Capt. Kuhn arrived in Albany this week from Europe, where he has been on a visit with his folks. While gone his family have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Kuhn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hackleman. They will go from here to Spokane, where Capt. Kuhn will have charge of the Salvati on Army work. Previously for several years he was at Butte. He is one of the most competent men in the service on the coast. About ten years ago he was stationed at Albany, where he was married, since then having charge of the work in several prominent fields.
