

Five per cent more nutrition in the EHMANN OLIVE OIL than in any imported. Hence physicians prescribe it. Try a bottle and if it don't suit, bring back half a bottle or the empty bottle and its money back.

H. T. Wentworth today began work on the new residence of O. M. Barton, his first Albany contract. The plans show a pretty place.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that O. P. Hendrickson and M. J. Hendrickson, as executors of the estate of W. F. Hendrickson, deceased, have filed their final account as executors with the County Clerk of Linn County, State of Oregon, and that Hon. J. N. Duncan, County Judge of said Linn County, has appointed Saturday the 7th day of November, 1908, at one o'clock, p. m. of said day as the time, and the County Court room as the place to hear objections to said final account, if any there be, and for the settlement of said estate.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Linn.
Rose E. Young, Plaintiff, vs. P. H. Marley, Defendant.
To P. H. Marley, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff above named in the above entitled court, now on file with the Clerk of said court, on or before the 9th day of November, 1908, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as hereby required the plaintiff will apply for the relief prayed for in said complaint to-wit: adjudging plaintiff to be the owner in fee simple of the lands described in plaintiff's complaint as Lots One and Two in Block No. 37 in Backmann's Second Addition to the city of Albany, Linn County, Oregon, and declaring the tax deed issued by the Sheriff of Linn County, Oregon, dated the 23rd day of December, 1899, and recorded August 16th, 1900, in Book of Deeds Vol. 67 on Page 84 of the Records of Deeds for Linn County, Oregon, to be void and of no force or effect and that the same be cancelled, and that plaintiff recover her costs and disbursements to be taxed in this summons as hereby provided by order of the Hon. J. N. Duncan, Judge of the County Court for Linn County, Oregon, duly made on the 23rd day of September, 1908.

That said order requires said summons to be published for six consecutive weeks in the Albany Democrat, the first publication to be made on the 25th day of September, 1908 and the last publication to be made on the 9th day of November, 1908.

DEATH OF MRS. BURMESTER.

Mrs. Dana Burmester died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter Mrs. Rev. C. R. Stevenson, in Vandergrift, Penn., of heart trouble and kidney complaint.

Rev. and Mrs. Stevenson and daughter left this morning with the remains for Albany, a request before her death being that her burial be at this city. She was born in Iowa Aug. 12, 1845, and crossed the plains with her folks in 1865, settling in Albany, where she afterwards spent most of the remainder of her life, several years ago going with her daughter to Vandergrift. She was a member of the United Presbyterian church, a noble Christian woman, beloved by all knowing her. News of her death was received here yesterday with extreme sorrow. She leaves a daughter, sister, Mrs. Stewart, brother, George Humphrey, of Portland, and other relatives, as well as many friends who sincerely mourn her death. It is thought the funeral will be on Friday, but announcement will be made when the time is known.

A Touching Incident.

An affecting scene occurred at the W. F. warehouse, at the depot this afternoon. A lady from another town was shipping a fox terrier down the road. As she gave her name tears streamed down her cheeks, then she kissed the animal smack upon the lips, and rushed out. "Did you see that," the boys were remarking, when she rushed back and gave the dog another smack. "Don't cry," sympathetically said the agent, "there are other dogs in the world." "But, I may never see him again," she cried, and left for good.

Oscar Got the Ring.

Out of a good many counts only two counted the number of dots in the advertisement of F. M. French correctly: Oscar Soth and Anna Steel, 1933. Oscar was the first to do it correctly and so secured the ring. A. D. Hall was the first to hand in a count, missing it by only 1, then came Oscar shortly afterwards, being No. 2. The counts ranged from 1556 to 2255. One boy just guessed and put it over 8,000. Young Soth now sports a fine $15 ring, a pretty one.

Grants Pass Sand.

A Grants Pass Sand platform on the south side of the depot was being put down today. Grants Pass is all right; but its sand is a horrible affair for walks and platforms in places much used, in fact, a first-class nuisance. Fortunately, though, Mr. O'Brien promises a cement platform in the spring, the appropriation being exhausted for one this fall. The remark is heard, though; "If they put down a Grants Pass sand platform now it will stay, that's all."

Sold His Albany Property.

L. A. Bruckman returned to Portland this afternoon. He was up to complete the sale of his property on 4th street, between Thurston and K. R. to Herman Young a new corner, employed in the tannery. Mr. Bruckman has a position in the factory of the Crystal Ice Co., where his brother Fred is also employed, both having stock in the Co. Mr. Bruckman has a new home of his own well situated, and likes Portland life.

An Artist Here.

A Montgomery, the farmer artist, is in the city, and has his pictures at the First National Bank on exhibition. One of them is marked $4,000 and another $5,000, rather beyond the pile of Albany people. Montgomery spoke here several weeks ago, hitting the old school art a live whack. He is a generous anyway.

McGinn was Here.

After being introduced by Hon. P. R. Kelley and the band played Henry McGinn, a Portland lawyer, spoke at the opera house Saturday night in the interest of the gentleman President Roosevelt named for his successor. Of course Henry lammed it to Mr. Bryan and the other Democrats and lauded Mr. Taft to the rafters. Henry did, that was what he was out for.

Martin Melsar returned.

Martin Melsar returned this noon from the Meiser farm at Su amit.

The jury in the Martin case finally agreed, discharging the prisoner.

Capt. Kuhn and family left this afternoon for their future home at Spokane.

Harrison Johnson, aged 86, of Lebanon, was springing around Albany today.

Dr. F. E. Adams, of Newport, went to Portland this afternoon on a short business trip.

Judge Lowell, of Pendleton, passed through the city this noon for the Bay to do the Taft act tonight and Newport tomorrow night.

Mrs. Fannie Calmes, who has been visiting her brothers, J. P. Roberts and L. H. Montanye, of this city, left on the 10:57 train last night for her home in Houston, Texas.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Ries have returned from a visit with their sons at Portland and Fort Stevens. Down on the ocean they saw some genuine winter breakers and got some pointers on coast defence.

A young man in Portland tried to mash a young lady, approaching her and trying to walk with her, when she proceeded to do the mashing, with her little fist. Besides she had him arrested and he was fined $10, and more than that greatly humiliated, all of which served him right. About every town has its masher who ought to be mashed likewise.

CORONER SENT FOR, ALBANY MAN.

And Left for Brownsville with Dr. Davis.

Mrs. W. N. Sawyer, of Brownsville, died suddenly this morning, it is reported under peculiar circumstances, with indications of poison. Coroner Fortmiller was notified, and with Dr. Davis left for there, in the Dr's auto, this afternoon. The purpose was to make an autopsy of the body in charge of Dr. Davis and Dr. Starr. Brownsville parties interested refused to make any statement until the examination is completed. Some there think there is nothing in it, and that death was natural. She is a prominent Brownsville woman, hence the case has excited a good deal of interest there.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

W. F. Howard, of the wholesale seed house, left for Alberta, Calif., where he will remain with his family for awhile, before moving permanently to Albany, perhaps not until spring.

Mr. Harry Woodin went to Salem to take charge of a furniture store there for a few weeks. Though residing in San Francisco he may conclude to remain in Oregon to be near his mother.

Rev. T. P. Haynes, of Lebanon, went to Portland.

F. P. DeVaney went to Portland. Maurice Winter left on a trip down the road. He makes the territory from Agland to Hoquiam, Wash., skipping Portland.

A new employee at the depot this morning is Hermann Stalnaker, who will be employed in the car service and numerous other things. Mr. Crimp also resumes work after a month's vacation.

Miss Lottie Morgan, of the public schools, returned from a visit with her folks near Brownsville.

Lawyer Tussing went to Salem on legal business.

Harry Schlosser went down the road.

Jack Latourette left for his home at Oregon City after a Sunday visit at Albany. He had been at Eugene playing foot ball on the alumni eleven, directing the team from quarter back, and had a lame right hand to show for it. The alumni made a fine showing.

From an Albany Sermon.

Look for things with good, do not be passive. Stand for something, not for nothing. Do not be just no one in particular. A positive life is a high accomplishment. Look around for discouraged men to help. There are bigger things than $20 gold pieces. Encouragement cannot be purchased in dollars and cents. A man is rich who gives himself to good works. The don't know never build anything. What one can do, not what one can't is what counts. If you doubt be honest and investigate. The best charity is work.

Albany Did Well.

The Albany college foot ball team did splendid work in the game of foot ball with Willamette Saturday afternoon. Salem had it all figured out before hand 25 to 0 in favor of Willamette, but it was only 5 to 5 in Willamette's favor, practically a tie, each making a touchdown in the first half, Barry failing to catch the ball for a goal. Willamette got the first goal in ten minutes, Cummins going over the line, then Albany did business and took a hand at goal making. In the second half neither team could score, it is said Albany really outplaying the Methodists, notwithstanding the fact they weighed about fifteen pounds to the man more. The result shows the splendid training the team has received under Coach Luck, who is all right. The men did well, Victor Yates again doing extra work.

At the Hotels.

A. T. Peterson, a prominent Toledo man.

Lawyer L. H. McMahon and son Salem.

Maggie Carter, Oakland.

E. W. McLeod, San Francisco.

Jud O'Brien, Portland.

A. H. Lena, of the Hazelwood Creamery Co., a hustler.

Miss M. Hazel Jewitt of Roseburg on her way to Monmouth.

Mary A. Smith, Grants Pass.

Walter Jackson of the American Clear store, up from Portland on his regular valley trip.

Returned to Albany.

John Mullett and family have returned from Rocky Ft. Mon. They left Albany last January, selling their property in the third ward to Frank Kitchen, and after seeing other places are glad to be back here, in the best valley in the world. Mr. Mullett is negotiating for the purchase of the Curtis property in the third ward.

Some Foul Prizer.

Mr. Ed Schoel has returned from North Yakima, where he captured numerous poultry prizes in fact sweeping the field in white legthorns, getting $180 in prizes. Mr. Schoel had also done well at Salem and the Portland stock show. His birds are sure winners. Likewise his hogs.

TRIP OF AN ALBANY MAN.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 14.—I am again on the streets of Lincoln Neb., the home of W. J. Bryan, 18 years since I was here. The changes are many; but it has not grown like other towns of the west, hardly getting over the panic of 1893. I have been busy today placing the literature of Albany, Oregon, always advertised so much until I started on this trip. I have seen people on this trip who do not know anything about Oregon, and I have talked until I am hoarse. My wife says I will be a regular wild jammer. I had some Oregon apples, which I gave away and were appreciated. Oregon prunes sell here 2 for 5 cents, Oregon beans 5 cents apiece and not the best either. Tomorrow we will leave for Chicago and then on to Ohio.

In The Mail.

The regular weekly letter from the Portland booster club. This week the boasts are F. H. Scribner, the stock man, who complimented Oregon's dairying interests; the Hood River fruit fair, a coming writeup on the North West by Harper's Weekly, John Barrett's visit, and the calling upon the ministers of Oregon for boosting assistance.

A request from San Francisco to tell about the opening of a new big hotel, a several dollar puff for nothing.

Another Hawaiian booster telling of the wonders of the Sandwich Islands. These are coming regularly and frequently.

Another opportunity to vastly increase the Democrat's circulation. This is a clubbing arrangement, the most unsatisfactory thing a newspaper can enter into, a genuine nuisance.

Suicide at Sweet Home.

J. S. Surrall committed suicide at his home near Sweet Home Sunday about 9 a. m. The act was committed in bed, with a revolver, the ball going into the temple. His two children, in another room, upon hearing the noise rushed into the room to find their father dying.

Six months ago he had trouble with his wife, resulting in their separation. It seemed to have troubled him considerably, and since then several times he is said to have remarked that he intended to take his own life.

Coroner Fortmiller was notified but turned the matter over to the local justice, Dr. J. C. Booth went up from Lebanon as the examining physician.

TUESDAY.

WAS SUICIDE.

Coroner Fortmiller, Dr. Davis and Pilot Crawford returned last evening from their auto ride in the mud to Brownsville, coming back in an hour and a half. The coroner found that it was a plain case of suicide at the Sawyer home. An empty bottle that had contained strychnine, and kept by Mr. Sawyer in an outhouse, for killing gophers, was found under the bed, where it had been thrown after being emptied. Mrs. Sawyer had been taking strychnine tablets, but in very small doses, and all she had on hand taken at once would not have effected her seriously. An inquest was not thought necessary.

Mrs. Sawyer was 54 years of age and her husband, an old soldier, only about ten years her senior. They were married about a year ago, she coming here from the east for the purpose. She was a Southern woman of fine appearance and was well liked.

G. L. Walker, of Portland, is in the city on a business trip.

Miss Ina Redfield is expected home from her Eastern Oregon trip today.

Prof. Tom Slettemire, a prominent homesteader, of Blachly, Lane county, is in the city.

Hobson will speak only at Junction City and Eugene in this valley. He skips Portland.

Mrs. W. C. Hawley, wife of the Congressman, has been visiting at the home of her folks in the country.

Rev. S. A. Douglas and H. F. Merrill went to McMinnville this afternoon to attend the Baptist convention.

Miss Etta Carter, formerly of the Albany schools, returned to Halsey this afternoon after numerous visits here and elsewhere.

A Benton county sale is: Onie Beamis to R. R. Hanson, tract of land near Albany, $11,000. This is the well known Geo. Beamis farm.

Mr. Tom Parker and family returned to Cottage Grove this afternoon. Mr. Parker has a few days more work yet on his Albany residence.

Large numbers of hobos are going southward, including quite a number who evidently are professional beggars. Last night the city jail was well filled.

Richards and Pringles pleased a good sized audience last night, always presenting some good specialties. The Arabs, a new feature, are excellent performers.

V. Vincent Jones, representing the big Jacobs-Stein Co. of Portland, has been in the city selling Portland realty, and getting interested in Albany's splendid prospects.

W. S. Royce has resumed his work at the Western Union. Miss Edith Guernsey, who has been filling the position in an able manner, does not know where she will go from here yet.

A PASTOR RECEIVED.

A reception was tendered, the new pastor of the M. E. church, Rev. William Steward Gordon, at the the church last night, with a large attendance. Meeting a new pastor is always an important event in the life of a church, and it means something to a city, for the modern minister, who works for righteousness, is active in all good works as well as in the doings of his own church, and many naturally are interested in seeing the establishment of his character.

The church was arranged for social intercourse and a pleasant time was had meeting each other, when under the direction of Prof. David Torbet, who has a way of his own, the following program was rendered:

Nellie Hart and Madeline Rawlings performed well on the piano; Mrs. Guy Knapp pleased all in a vocal solo; Mrs. Claude Brav was heard in a piano solo, showing excellent skill, and Miss Orak Harkness gave a darkey dialect selection in a bright way and was well received. Mrs. Robert Burkhardt sang sweetly and Prof. Kendall gave several recitations and a welcome to the pastor. Rev. Gordon responded in a happy and earnest manner, and upon being called upon remarks in keeping with the event and in the interest of a united effort for righteousness in Albany, were made by Rev. White, Rev. Elliott and Mr. Nutting.

Rev. Gordon is an Ohio man, but he has been in the Northwest since 1881, and hence knows the field well. He starts out with the confidence of his people, splendidly equipped for doing good work, in his own church and in Albany generally.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mrs. Ella McHargue, of Selwood, returned home after a visit at her farm near Brownsville.

Justice Lovelee came down from Lebanon.

Miss Gay went to Portland for a few days visit.

Claus Vehrs, came down from Lebanon, with a car load of hogs for the Portland market. Vehrs is a very busy man. Besides buying and selling stock Mr. Vehrs is promoting an oil prospect near Lebanon, which promises big things.

Lawyer J. M. Williams, of Eugene, was among the passengers going down stream.

Rev. W. P. Elmore came down from Brownsville on his way to Newberg to attend a Baptist convention. Newberg has the distinction of not having a single blind pig, outside the drug stores, not a government tax being paid there. Not even the near-beer racket is attempted in Newberg.

Mr. Callaghan, who has been looking after the power plant at Niagara, returned up the road this morning. He came down last night, and reported considerable snow east of Niagara, as far down as that place, evidently a good deal up in the hills.

J. W. Hobbs, internal revenue collector, went north looking after Uncle Sam's interests. Mr. Hobbs can put his finger on every blind pig in the valley; but his business is simply to collect the government tax and he does it. Uncle Sam knows his business and he also gets it on every near-beer joint. They can't fool him on the one per cent alcohol racket.

It Works Well.

The first fire was put in the new cupola of the Albany Iron Works, yesterday afternoon, under the direction of the veteran machinist, John Holman. It works fine. The new plant is undoubtedly the finest in the state outside of Portland, a model iron factory. As rebuilt it is said to be as safe from fire as if all stone and brick. The complete plant will now be in operation, including the moulding department which of course has been idle. Work, though, has progressed right along in the other departments.

Promoting Condensers.

Through C. W. Tebault Scio has ordered the machinery for a condenser with a capacity of 10,000 pounds, and will start business on a small scale and build up. The Stayall condenser is assured and Mr. Tebault says the Albany plant is sure to go. He will leave next week for Roseburg, where a condenser will undoubtedly be established.

Died at 88.

Mr. John Carnes died at the home of his daughter, in this city, last evening, at the age of 87 years, of old age. He was a worthy pioneer, a resident of Corvallis for many years. Among his large family is Mrs. Al Saylor, of this city. Mrs. Carnes has been dead a number of years.

The other children are George of California, Gilbert, Floyd, Charles, Thomas and Madison of Oregon.

A short funeral service will be held at the home of Mrs. Saylor at 8:30 tomorrow, after which the remains will be taken to Corvallis for burial.

At the College.

The college conservatory now has an enrollment of 70, outside of the different clubs, a fine showing. The faculty will go to McMinnville for a concert Friday night at the Presbyterian church. The enrollment of the college in the regular course is 85 or 90.

The foot ball team is down for a game with Multnomah at Portland Saturday, but it is possible may not play.

DOCTOR ADVISED USE OF CUTICURA

After Other Treatment Failed—Eczema in Raw Spot on Baby Boy's Face Lasted for Months—Cried with Pain when Washed.

ECZEMA WAS CURED AND HAS NEVER REAPPEARED

"Our baby boy broke out with eczema on his face when one month old. One place on the side of his face the size of a nickel was raw like beef-steak for three months, and he would cry out when I bathed the parts that were sore and broken out. I gave him three months' treatment for a good doctor, but at the end of that time the child was no better. Then my doctor recommended Cuticura. After using a cake of Cuticura Soap, a third of a box of Cuticura Ointment, and half a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent he was well and his face was as smooth as any baby's. He is now two years and a half old and no eczema has reappeared. I am still using the Cuticura Soap; I think it is the finest toilet soap I ever used. I keep my little girl's hair and face cleansed with it too. I am so thankful for what Cuticura has done for us. Mrs. M. HARRIS, R. F. D. 1, Alton, Kan., May 14 and June 12, '07."

BARNEY ON FIGHTING.

Oct. 17.—The Brownsville Times of the 10th inst. in commenting on my denial that lately appeared in the Democrat, has this to say: "So Mr. Martin, a lawyer, characterizes the report of the fight between himself and Mr. Ackerman, published in the Times, as false."

Will Mr. Martin be so kind as to publish in the Democrat his definition of a "real fight?"

In compliance with the above request I submit the following definition from Anderson's dictionary of Law. "Fight. Does not necessarily imply that both parties should give and take blows. It is sufficient that they voluntarily put their bodies in position with that intent."

"Criminal intent. Evil, malicious, will expressed in a criminal act." Id. If one person raises a chair in a threatening manner, and another person takes the chair from him, and uses no more force than is actually necessary to wrench the chair from his grasp, and does not strike nor offer to threaten to strike the aggressor, surely the same could not be a fight under the above definition, and the person relieving the other of the chair can be guilty of no offense. And if the aggressing party accidentally strikes his head against the window sill, through his own act, there can be no fight and the other person is guilty of no offense.

I have never followed the scriptural injunction, "Whoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also; but I have taken articles from the hands of persons not in the best of humor before now without any malicious intent on my part, which in the eyes of the unsophisticated public, I believe, would be commendable compared with the fist encounter between Editor Brown and a certain young man on the streets of Brownsville a few years since.

"Woe unto you, scribes and pharisees hypocrites! for ye are like unto whitened sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but are within full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness." The snail is traced by the buzzard displays a remarkable ability in the location of his carion and—
