THURSDAY. DAIRYING

A Feature of the Commercial Club's Session.

The Albany Commercial Club was favored with the presence of J. W. Bailey, state dairy and food commissioner and F. H. Scribner, president of the Wisconsin Dairymen's Association. Mr. Scribner has been out here judging stock, first at Portland and then at a fair at Spokane. He is said to be one of the best judges in the United States. Besides he is a stock raiser himself of reputation. Both gentlemen made some good points for the dairy business. Oregon undoubtedly is one of the finest states in the country for the business, with wonderful possibilities, when developed, increasing in the state at marvelous speed.

Excellent progress was reported on the canneries site subscription, nearly enough for it, and it is said there is no question but what it will go. A proposition was read from the State Dairymen's Association to bring the next convention here provided $950 is guaranteed for expenses. It was referred to the executive board. It is very doubtful if any effort is made to raise so much just for a convention. Albany is a splendid place for a dairy men's convention, but let it come here like other conventions.

A Corvallis Booster Meeting

Manager Hartog, of the Eugene Commercial Club, returned home this afternoon, from Corvallis where he had been to attend a booster meeting, a live and successful affair. Corvallis probably has the best furnished Club rooms in the Valley, a very neat, though not large place. The city is displaying a good deal of life along residence building lines. Manager Dasset, who was invited to speak at the meeting, was unable to be present on account of the home meeting of the Club last night.

Four Cases

The Prineville fair is being held this week.

Norris & Rowe's circus was stopped at Globe, Ariz., by a strike.

T. G. Calkins and family of Portland, are visiting Albany friends.

S. E. Dodge, representing the Johnson Optical Co. of Detroit, the home of the Tigers, was visiting Albany jewelers today.

The awning at Beams last evening looked as if it had been in a cyclone, but it was only an express wagon that got two much of a back on.

Mrs. M. B. Craft returned from Willamina this afternoon. Her sister, Mrs. Enoch Cyrus, and husband, of Sisters, are visiting at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pearce, of Salem, returned home this afternoon after an Albany visit at the home of Mrs. Pearce's sister, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reiner, of Portland, came up this noon, and will go to Halsey on a hunt on Mr. Reiner's farm, hoping to find one or two Celestials left.

About fifteen Albany men were out this morning around the Monteith swamp hunting ducks, getting several, but so many shot at a duck it was difficult to tell who hit it.

Mr. and Mrs. David Froman returned today from Halsey, where they had been to attend the Leeper Bramwell wedding. Mr. Froman didn't have any chance to get even with anybody.

The Margaret Catherine Missionary Circle met Wednesday evening at the home of Grace Swank. Election of officers was held: Pres. Myrtle Wyatt, Vice Pres. Cecil Knox, Treas. Louise Nimmo, Sec. Effie Belding.

Dr. W. F. Jones has disposed of his practice as veterinary surgeon at this city, and will return to Jefferson to reside. Dr. Ridell, recently of Columbus, O., will succeed him, an expert and competent man in the business.

Los Angeles believes it can beat Chicago, and a series of games is being arranged, seven contests, probably to be played on the coast, where the weather is suitable to decide it. Backers of the Angels offer to put up $15,000 that the club can beat the Cubs.

The secretary of the state central committee of the socialist party of Oregon has set down on one J. D. Stevens, well known in Albany, and even declares that Stevens, who has been claiming to run the party is not a member of it all. And yet Stevens represented Debs last night at the White temple.

At the semi-annual meeting of the State Board of Horticulture, much interesting information was forthcoming. President Wilbur K. Newell estimated the value of the fruit crop for 1907-08, the value of the fruit crop for 1907-08, the value of the crop by districts, was thus given: Third district, headquarters Grants Pass, $1,479,150; Fourth district, headquarters, The Dalles, $1,130,500; other sections of the state, the remainder.

THE LECTURE COURSE.

The College lecture course this year is the biggest yet. The college faculty believe that Albany will support as good a course as is given in Oregon. The course this year offers six numbers for two dollars. Never before have more than five numbers been given for this price.

1. The four Great Musical Artists. November 3. This company is composed of Forrest Carr, Basso Cantante; Florence Gertrude Smith, soprano; Earl J. Ponto, violinist; Edwin M. Shonert, pianist. This is a high class number. The violinist and pianist, both known by some in Albany, are enough to guarantee an unusual concert. Both vocalists have operatic records and present famous duets from the great productions.

2. Jacob A. Riis, whom Roosevelt calls the "most useful citizen in New York," will lecture with wonderful lantern slides on the "Battle of the Slums." The story of Mr. Riis' own life reads like the veriest romance. Born in Denmark, a laborer, a reporter, a reformer, a national figure, all in a few years. Mr. Riis is one of the very strongest attractions to be secured anywhere.

3. Thomas E. Green. A return engagement. At Ashland one of the greatest successes in years; everywhere in Oregon received with acclaim; in Albany last year a complete success. His probable lecture subject "Left Handed Men," a song of the Struggle.

4. German the Wizard, assisted by Miss Ida Germain, at the piano, and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Braithwaite, English society entertainers. Germain has wonderful testimonials from every city in the United Kingdom. His feats are baffling, his personality charming. His company is strong and versatile.

5. Mr. W. Waugh Lauder, pianist, who claims to have been the first American to give the lecture-recital. A pupil of Liszt the Great, associated with the great Wagner, Mr. Lauder has a wonderful knowledge of musicians who made history. Those who heard him last year will be glad of his return. February 1.

6. The Dunbar Company. An international success, called back for return engagements almost everywhere heard. This wonderful quartette of men form a combination rarely met with. They are a hit as a male quartette; they have no equals in America as bell ringers; among them is a cellist, a flutist, a pianist and a presenter of character sketches, each superior.

The price of the course will be $2 per season ticket; $1 for students of the College, Sisters' Academy and High school. Single numbers will be 50c each. Each season ticket will have six coupons, any of which will be accepted for admission to any entertainment. There will be no Saturday night entertainments.

Programs to begin at eight o'clock. Places to be announced.

It Was Spicy.

A large audience saw the Isle of Spice, last night, and listened to the songs and jokes. Spice is the proper name. A sprightly piece without plot, almost as much of a jangle as Johnson in the funny papers, but full of snap, pretty costumes, pretty girls. The modern chorus girls are a transformation, all of the same size and as small as possible, little fellows, quick and active, as nimble as a fox terrier. The Isle of Spice was given plenty of applause during the two hours of its presentation.

The happy event was a notable one. The bride and groom entered the prettily decorated parlor on the arms of the grand parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Ward. It was the golden wedding of the aged couple, prominent as pioneers.
