Albany, - - - Oregon.

THIS MORNING

News from Six of Albany's 26 Passenger Trains.

Rev. J. W. McDougall, of the Mt. Tabor M. E. church, formerly of this city, and Rev. Clarence True Wilson, Portland's leading M. E. minister, a man who stands on both feet for righteousness in Oregon's metropolis, came down from Tangent, where they have been on a visit with the family of the late Dr. Driver. They spent the forenoon here on a visit with Rev. Gordon of the M. E. church.

E. H. Rhodes went down to Jefferson to look after his apple crop, a heavy frost making things look dubious for his crop.

P. A. Moses and wife, of Corvallis, went to Portland to attend the conference of the M. E. church south.

R. S. Shaw returned to Mill City.

Jas Fitzpatrick, of the Blue River mining district, came down this morning on an Albany visit. He reports things quiet in the mines, little doing, owners just holding their properties down, with prospects all ahead.

J. L. Underwood, of Lebanon, went to Portland.

Albert Hunt came down from Brownsville for the day.

Judge Duncan returned from an official visit up in the Brownsville country.

J. F. Verner, Brownsville's jeweler, prominent in mining circles, came down on a business trip.

Prof. Tom Settemier, of Blachley, Lane county, went to Scio on a professional trip.

Doing a Good Work

Miss Myrtle Pease, of Portland, travelling visitor of the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Oregon, was in the city today, in the interest of the work. The Society is doing a wonderful work, backed by Oregon and the people of the state. There are over twenty children from Linn county alone in charge of the Society. $67,000 in bequests show the popularity of the work. The Linn county board consists of the county judge, John Poshay, Mrs. L. E. Blain, Rev. McDougall, Mrs. A. H. Martin.

Another Albany Auto.

Through W. W. Crawford, the local agent, Mr. J. L. Irvine, the painter, has ordered a Ford Model T touring car, for his own use, a fine $950 machine, a $6,000 car in service being claimed for it by the manufacturers. The recent trip of Dr. Davis' car to Brownsville through the mud, coming back in an hour and a half, is a sample of the way the Ford goes.

Minn' to Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Altermatt arrived this week from Minnesota, where Mr. Altermatt has been cashier in his uncle's store for a year or two. He is a son of Mr. P. F. Altermatt of this city. Since going he was married to a popular young lady of Springfield, who will now become an Oregonian. Mr. Altermatt has eight children, of whom five are married.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 45-28. Prediction: generally fair tonight and Thursday. The river is 3.6 feet. Why don't the steamers come. F. M. French local observer.

Two big kicks were registered with the equalization board: one by F. S. Rieder for Chas. Altschul, of the Willamette Valley and Cascade Wagon road, who wants the assessment of $9 cut down. Altschul last year paid about $7,000 taxes. The land, being a grant is very mixed. The other is by G. W. Marshall for the Weyerhaeuser Co., who last year paid $3,925 taxes, and are assessed this year at $16 an acre, which it is claimed is the highest this side the Siskiyouous.

SILK GOWN OPENING

At Hamilton's Bazaar on Friday, October, 23.

Something which will without doubt interest all of the women of Albany and vicinity will take place in the shape of a Grand Opening of beautiful silk gowns at Hamilton's Bazaar on next Friday, the 23rd. While in New York this fall Mr. Hamilton secured a splendid line of these handsome costumes, in the new silks and in the prevailing Princess, Empire and Directoire styles. The showing is something new for Albany and it is the desire of the Bazaar to encourage the women in the buying of these ready-to-wear garments. There are no two garments alike and all are from French designers. The Opening will be held in the new Drapery Department on the third floor. To enable you to inspect them better, some of the young ladies of the store will try them for you between the hours of 2 to 4 p. m.

Albany ladies, as well as those from out of town, will not miss this splendid opportunity. Watch for the Bazaar's Ad in Thursday's issue of the Democrat, which will give you further information concerning the Opening.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received until 5 p. m., Oct. 23, 1908, for the erection and completion of brick store buildings for Frank Will, Dr. A. Stark and Miss Fannie Brenner. Plans may be seen at architect's office. Owners reserve the right to reject any or all bids. BURGRAFF, architect.

A TROPHY

SHOOT.

A squad of shooters from G Co. left this afternoon for Knox's Butte, to have a regimental shoot at the range, under the charge of Col. Yorlan and Capt. G. E. Houck, range officers, who superintend the contest. The contest is for a regimental trophy. Each contestant fires two sighting shots and ten record shots on each of the ranges, 200 yards of hand, slow and rapid firing; 500 yards slow fire and 600 yards slow fire. A medal will go to the man of the regiment making the highest score and the regimental trophy to the Company having the team making the highest aggregate score.

McKinville had its trial on the 19th. Dallas yesterday, Albany today, A Co. of Eugene tomorrow, C Co. Friday, E Co. of Cottage Grove, which won the trophy last year, on the 26th, Roseburg on the 27 and Ashland on the 28th.

Capt. Hammell for several weeks has been training the Albany team. Following is the squad, the team trying for the trophy, consisting of ten and four men, to be selected at the range: Sergt. Frank Horsky, and Privates L. A. Marquam, O. C. Karstens, R. J. Karstens, A. T. Bond, Willis Peery, R. C. Townes, Chas. Reed, A. Abraham, John Powell, E. W. McGhee, E.
