

THANKSGIVING

The president has issued his thanksgiving proclamation for Thursday, Nov. 26, and he did not wait to see how the election had gone. After referring to our prosperity he makes the following broad and timely remarks:

"For the very reason that in material wellbeing we have thus abounded, we owe to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things. With a nation, as with the individuals who make up a nation, material wellbeing is an indispensable foundation. But the foundation avails nothing by itself. That life is wasted and worse than wasted which is spent in piling heap on heap, those things which minister merely to the pleasures of the body and to the power that rests only on wealth.

Upon material wellbeing as a foundation must be raised the structure of the lofty life of the spirit, if this nation is properly to fulfill its great mission and accomplish all we so ardently hope and desire. The things of the body are good, but best of all are the things of the soul, for in the nation as in the individual, in the long run, it is character that counts.

"Let us, therefore, as a people, set our faces absolutely against evil and with broad charity, with friendliness and good will toward all men, but with unflinching determination to smite down wrong, strive with all the strength that is given us for righteousness in public and private life.

C. W. Tebault has returned from Roseburg, where he has been in the interest of a proposed milk condenser at that city.

MONDAY.

DEDICATED.

The Enlarged Sisters School.

The large sisters school building was formally dedicated yesterday. While not completed it was at this time in order to have Archbishop Christie present. The large four story addition well arranged in class rooms gives more dormitory room, badly needed in the older building. The school has been growing so fast as to make an enlarged building necessary, and Father Lane never stops with trifles, but keeps moving.

The dedication ceremony of blessing the different parts of the building were conducted by Bishop Christie assisted by Father Lane of this city and Fathers McDonald and Shrappe, the latter a Jesuit priest, accompanied by the choir boys and girls of the school, after which a public exercise was held on the front steps of the building, facing Ninth street.

Father Lane presided in a happy manner. Miss Savage, representing the students welcomed the Bishop and the large number of friends present.

Bishop Christie spoke upon the great importance of moral as well as intellectual training, which should be a part of all education, and the time will come, he prophesied, when in all schools there will be a moral and religious training with the intellectual, according to the pupils' religion.

He complimented Father Lane for his splendid work, and said he expects to see Albany become the Athens of Oregon.

A timely suggestion was that the graft blight prevailing in the country is due to a lack of moral training with the intellectual. In office we need pure and clean men above price.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford spoke feelingly upon the excellent work done by Father Lane and Father Shrappe declared that Albany had a treasure in its midst. The exercises closed with the Thanksgiving hymn.

Returned to Vandergrift.

Rev. C. R. Stevenson, who left Saturday afternoon for his home in Vandergrift Penn., preached yesterday in Portland three times, leaving this morning for home. Vandergrift is quite a remarkable city. The streets are all laid out in curves, not a corner anywhere. The main burrough is all paved, always clean. No liquor can ever be sold in the city, now a place of 8,000, and one policeman is enough for the city, and he has practically nothing to do, being on nights to look after things. None is needed day times. Kept up by the big steel mills everybody is prosperous, and there being no saloons there is plenty of money for the luxuries of life.

The Apple Fair.

The new Chambers & McCune store in the Elks building has been secured for the apple fair, a fine place. It will be in charge of a watchman nights, being open.

The dates are Nov. 10, 11, and 12. On account of Portland day having been changed to Tuesday, Nov. 10, all exhibitors are requested to have their apples at the room on the 9th, so that the display will be complete when the Portland crowd arrives at noon on the 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Elba Burnett, of Portland, have been visiting Albany relatives several days.

Mrs. A. L. Simpson and children returned this noon from a visit with her folks in Dallas.

Miss Amelia Miller, of Eugene, returned home last evening after a visit with her brother, George Miller.

Ralph Robinson, of Portland, passed through for Berkeley, to attend a reunion of one of the college societies.

Roy Wood, of the U. O., spent Saturday and Sunday in Albany on a visit with his father, just down from Nome.

W. H. Norris, of Salem, is the new O. C. T. agent. The first boat went up yesterday, going north this morning.

Mr. Shirley, who recently bought the Covets farm, has arrived with his family and will take charge of the place at once.

The telephone people are putting their phone poles inside the cement walks, pursuant to the order of the city council, made necessary by the paving contract.

The Albany college second team and the high school boys Saturday afternoon played a tie game, fast and furious. Neither scored. Some good material appeared.

Will & Stark and Mrs. Brenner are figuring on the construction of their buildings otherwise than by a general contract, and will know this week what they will do.

President William Baird, of Korea, who was expected to be at the Presbyterian church this week, will not be here for two or three weeks, and the date will be given later.

The Alleyites are rejoicing over the fact that one of their pioneer members is due to return from an extensive trip through the wilds of Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Coates will be home tonight or tomorrow.

Mr. N. Crites, of Aberdeen, Wash., has been in the city on business. He and his brother D. W. Crites, have bought the Danforth farm, but cannot get possession of it for a year, and so will not come here to reside until a year later.

U. of O. defeated Idaho Saturday, for the fifth time running, 27 to 21 in one of the most remarkable games ever played, it being rare that both sides score so heavily. Moulton saved the day by kicking four field goals, and Clarke played a great game.

CAPSIZED

A Couple of Albany Boys Had a Wet Experience

A couple of Albany boys, Tapper and Edholm, about eighteen years of age, yesterday had a live experience up the Willamette. They were hunting ducks down Dead Creek, which they had gotten into through some willows, when near the mouth they attempted to go under a log across the stream, pretty close to the water. The boat hit the log and was capsized, both boys going out of sight, one of them completely under the log. Being good swimmers they reached the shore forty or fifty feet away all right, after a close call and a hard struggle. They lost their guns, coats and ammunition and the boat. D. J. McLardy came along with his gasoline launch and helped them across the river near Mr. Edholm's home. Today the boys were hunting for their guns.

Married on the Santiam in 1858.

Statesman:—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elgin was celebrated Wednesday evening at their home on Saginaw street in South Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin were married in Jordan at the forks of the Santiam, October 28, 1858. Mrs. Elgin was Miss Josephine Humphreys, and with her parents crossed the plains in 1853. They settled in Linn county. Mr. Elgin came across the plains in 1852 with his parents and they settled in Marion county, taking up lands. They have raised a family of nine children, one child dying.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Elgin are natives of Tennessee. Present at the anniversary celebration Wednesday night were children of the couple as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie A. Moores, Mrs. Hewitt of Albany, and Miss Emma Elgin of Lincoln county.

Playing in Good Luck

Review: J. A. Aupperle, president of the Jefferson bank, has been playing in good luck of late. He sold a piece of land in Dakota for $18,000 and has a tract left that he refuses $5,600 for. Aside from this he has 300 acres of fine farm land in Minnesota and his water front property at Seattle has become very valuable. Mr. Aupperle had plenty of hard luck for a while, but he worked hard and brought his bank out in good shape, paid all the depositors their money and interest, and has a good fat stake left for himself. He has done much for the development of Jefferson.

Miller is Convicted.

George Miller, the Harney county rancher and stockman, was convicted of larceny of cattle at Burns two weeks ago and has already begun serving a four-year term in the penitentiary. Miller is the man who secured a third trial for murder on charge of venue to Crook county and was acquitted. Miller seems to have abandoned all hope and has not appealed the last case. Prineville Review. Miller is a former Linn county man.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. King were in Corvallis yesterday on a visit with Mr. King's mother, Mrs. W. E. Brinn and step-father. It was the anniversary of the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brinn, and the event was remembered with a fine dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Brinn were remembered with many fine silver gifts.

The Jeffersons All Right.

The Jeffersons pleased a large audience at the opera house Saturday night. The Rivals, an old-timer, was splendidly portrayed by these artists. Willie Jefferson was quite immense as Ben Acres. The part of Mrs. Malaprop, though, is the popular one of the show, her big, ill placed words causing amusement. The cast was all strong and satisfactory.

Big Missionary Offering.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the U. P. church last evening held its annual thanksgiving meeting with a large attendance. A pleasing program was presented. Rev. Mrs. Norton delivered the address, interesting and timely. A nice feature was an exercise by the girl's club, led by the president, Beatrice Sanders. The offering was the largest yet, $167.

At the Y. W. C. A.

Misses Rhoda Stalnaker, Kate Stewart, Nita Schultz, McWilliam and others have returned from the Y. W. C. A. convention, at Salem, which they report a fine affair. The meetings were religious, of a high order. The young people were delighted with Misses Conde and Gage, the eastern young women, attending.

An Albany Booster.

Mr. D. C. Burkhardt, the photographer and musician, has composed a two step, which is declared to be a fine thing. It will be presented at the Empire tonight by the orchestra, as well as during the week—the Albany Booster Two Step.

30rn.

On Monday morning, Nov. 2, 1908, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rumbaugh, a pointer, weight 8 pounds. All doing well.

HALLOWE'EN

The boys of Albany are entitled to credit for the most orderly Hallowe'en in the history of the city. While several crowds were out little damage was done, just little pranks causing people hardly any trouble. Not even were the piles of ties that have stood for months on Second street touched.

The city was full of jack-o'-lanterns, carried by little ghosts, who visited their friends, spook like, frightening them to a standstill, a pretty custom that is always appreciated.

A neat hallowe'en party was a surprise on Rev. Evans, but the surprise was the other way in the shape of a surgeon's skeleton which was well manipulated by the pastor himself. An interesting feature was a straw vote, and though the republicans are said to have outnumbered the democrats the vote was 21 to 15 in favor of Bryan.

Miss Carrie Sanders celebrated her 13th birthday Saturday evening by giving a Hallowe'en party. A witch opened the door and they were further greeted by two ghosts with cold and clammy hands.

The usual Hallowe'en games were indulged in and all departed at a late hour.

Miss Carrie received many pretty and useful presents.

Those present were: Vera Burnett, Hazel Thompson, Neva Hoflich, Cecile Borgs, Pearl Baker, Alzina Parker, Jesse Roberts, Flossie McGilvery, Mary Hall, Gertrude Swank, Sarah Watson, Hazel Hockensmith, Gladys White, Jess Hardy, and Vesta Sanders, Earl Douglas, Raymond Archibald, Vannie Marmer, Lile Ficklin, John Stevens, Melvin Williams, Earl Gilbert, Evert Cummings, Douglas Richie, Forest Wicks, Edmund Parker, Orville Monteth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winkley, of Corvallis, went down to the Winkley farm for a visit and hunt.

Mrs. J. C. Lowe came over from Corvallis.

Mr. Kasper Kropp went out to Busard to continue work on the new residence of Mrs. Gerber, the well known gardener, who has been making visits to Albany for several years. It will be a large eight room house, with modern conveniences, bath room etc., a credit to the country.

Mr. Archie McAlpin, after a visit with his brother M. McAlpin, of this city, left for home, desiring to get back in time to vote for Mr. Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Craft left on a visit with relatives around Seio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coughlin returned from a visit with their daughter Mrs. Newport, in Lebanon.

Leland Gilbert, with Wadhams & Co. of Portland, returned to that city after spending Sunday at home.

Mr. and J. S. Hughes, of Gresham, returned home. Mr. Hughes is pleased with his new location and thinks it will make a splendid place for a home.

A Great Day.

Large audiences greeted the evangelists at the Baptist church yesterday a all services. In the evening the gallery was thrown open to accommodate the crowd. Rev. Mr. Jones preached unusually strong sermons characterized by intense devotion to the Christ whose mission to a lost world is his one theme. Words of highest appreciation were spoken of the duets sung by Mr. and Mrs. Spear. A chorus choir materially helped to make this part of the services so pleasing to all. Close to 100 were present at the afternoon session for the young, and they were so highly pleased that they voted to continue them. It is hoped to reach all the young of the city in these song and talk meetings held each day after school. Mr. Jones announced at the evening service that he would be absent from the Monday night service in order to be at home and place his vote where it would count for righteousness and the putting down of that which is damning so many of our best citizens. Mr. Spear and Pastor Douglas will have charge to-night and a time of power is expected. 9 a. m. prayer-meeting; 3.45 boys and girls; 7.30 p. m. Song and preaching will be the order of the week.

Actual Work

Actual work was begun this afternoon on the electric line, two men under the foreman beginning at the St. Charles end, tearing up the old track, with some rails and ties on hand ready to place on grade. A gang of eight or ten men will be used in two or three days, and it is expected to have an electric car running in about a month.

A car labeled Albany, bought for the line, has been running in Vancouver for some time, and will be brought here when ready for it.

A Musical Lecture

On Tuesday night, Nov. 10, in First Presbyterian church will occur the first of this year's music lecture course. Dr. F. H. Geselbracht will speak on the subject of Music in Worship. No admission fee will be charged, but an offering will be taken. It is hoped that the church will be filled. The program will open and close with organ solos by Miss Hansen.

At the Presbyterian church at 5 o'clock yesterday the second vesper service was held, with a large attendance. It offers an excellent opportunity for the members of other churches to be present and enjoy the pleasing services with the members of the church. An excellent musical program was rendered, and Rev. J. K. N. Bell of Corvallis delivered the sermon.

TUESDAY.

A SHARP BURGLARY.

The store of Ohling & Taylor was entered last night by one of the rear high windows, which had been left unfastened, and about $200 worth of razors and knives and $2 or $3 in money were taken. Every razor but one, was taken, about one hundred, and only a few of a big case of knives, about twenty-five. The money was taken from the drawer, and the following note left, scribbled on an envelope:

"Please don't lock your money drawer, if you do the next time I come I will rip it out again."

A little safe deposit vault, not locked, was opened and the little drawer torn out, but it was empty.

It was evidently the work of an amateur, not a professional, who would have taken more of the fine case of knives.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Shannon and son, of Bremerton, Wash., left for Aberdeen, Wash., on a visit with Mrs. Shannon's sister, before returning to their home at the site of Uncle Sam's big yard, where Mr. Shannon is employed.

The carpenters began on their last day's work at the depot. Tonight the lights will be turned on for inspection. Those who have inspected the interior of the depot are delighted with it. The seating capacity is large, sufficient for Albany for years, even with large crowds.

Geo P. Warner, who has been visiting his Albany son and daughter, returned to Seio, to be there in time to vote.

Chaire Lee, brother of Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, and uncle of Hubert, left for Salem.

E. H. Rhodes went to Jefferson to ship a car load of spitzensbergs and Jonathans to London, where there is a splendid market for Oregon apples arriving in good condition. Mr. Rhodes has been shipping to London for many years, once sending a whole train load of apples there.

Harry Schlosser returned to Salem. John Harrison, formerly city engineer went to Salem.

Judge McFadden, of Corvallis, returned from Eugene, where he reported another local option clean-up. They are going for the blind pig there and will probably clean the varmint out entirely.

Two Farms Sold.

J. A. Howard reports the completion of a couple of important sales this week: the big B. H. Danforth farm of 480 acres, to Crites Bros., the deed for which was recorded yesterday, and the farm of A. E. Bell to D. W. Shirley, recently from the east 108 acres at $70 an acre.

The Danforth farm is now occupied by Gov. J. H. Goldman, whose lease will not expire for a year, and the Bell farm will be taken charge of at once, Mr. Shirley having arrived with his family for the purpose.

Another House.

Without waiting to see whether Taft or Bryan is elected Mr. L. C. Marshall yesterday began work on the foundation of a new house on his lot at Fourth and Washington streets, and will build it this winter if the weather permits. It will be for rental. This makes nine houses for Washington street this year, including two that have been practically rebuilt.

Will Raise $100,000.

Manager R. F. Shier and E. W. Angel returned last night from the Gold Creek mines, where Mr. Angel had been to inspect the properties. It is proposed to proceed to raise $100,000 for the smelter for the mines, which will take sometime. The work will be done from Portland as the headquarters.

WAS DELIRIOUS WITH ECZEMA

On Chest, Back, and Head—Pain; Heat, and Tingling Were Excruciating—Nerves in Exhausted Condition—Sleep Badly Broken.

CURE BY CUTICURA SEEMED LIKE MAGIC

"Words cannot express the gratitude I feel for what Cuticura Remedies have done for my daughter, Adelaide. She is fifteen years of age, and had never had anything the matter with her skin until four months ago, when an eruption broke out on her chest.

The first symptom was a redness, and then followed thickening and blisters, which would break and run matter. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it to be eczema of a very bad form. He treated her, but instead of being checked, the disease spread. It showed itself on her back, and then quickly spread upwards until the whole of her head was affected, and all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was excruciating, and what with that and the heat and tingling her life was almost unbearable. She became run down in health, and at times was very feverish, languid, and drowsy, and occasionally she was delirious. Her nerves were in such a low state that she could not bear to be left alone. In spite of the cold weather she would insist on having her bedroom window open, and would lean out on the window-sill. She did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The second doctor we tried afforded her just a little relief as the first, and I really do not know what we should have done if we had not read how Cuticura cured a similar case. I purchased Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, and before the Ointment was three-quarters finished every trace of the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Her hair is coming on nicely, and I still apply the Cuticura Ointment as I find it increases the growth wonderfully. Mrs. T. W. Hyde, 1 Ongar Place, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907."

Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin. Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Pills (50c.) for the Form of Choleraic Colic (the 25c. pills) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. U. S. Pat. 1,100,000.

According to the election returns Mr. Bryan has carried the solid south and Nebraska, and Mr. Taft the rest. New York it is said by nearly 200,000. Ohio and Indiana, considered doubtful are in the Taft line by safe pluralities. The electoral college is about 308 to 175. Oregon is for Taft by 20,000 to 25,000.

A Social Event.

The first social event of the season, in "Circle City," was given by Mrs. Heike Ohling, in the form of a hallowe'en party last Saturday night. Ghosts stationed at the entrances ushered in the guests. The rooms were tastefully decorated with festooning and jack-o'-lanterns. The evening was spent in games and music. The most enjoyable feature of the evening was studying the menu, it being on the European and geographical plan.

Those present were: Miss Thacker, Lillian Thacker, Emma, Bertha and Edna Laubner, Dorothy Enrel, Maggie Stewart, May Young, Lila Hulbert, Lorna Hulbert, Lucinda Albers, Mrs. D. B. Morrison, Mr. Thacker, Percy Davis, John Ruter, Geo. Anthony, Fred Caldwell, Roy Stewart, Albert Albers, Robert Hamilton, Leroy Ohling, E. Young, D. B. Morrison, Delmar Morrison and Heike Ohling.

Barn and Hay Burned.

Julius Miller, of Shedd, in the city this afternoon, reported the loss of his barn and contents last night by fire. About forty tons of hay, worth $8 a ton, was burned, a total loss of at least $400. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, and there are said to be suspicious as to the origin.

A Busy Place.

The Northwest Fruit Growers Association of this city, has already shipped several carloads of prunes east, packed for the eastern market, a neatly put up product, not excelled anywhere in the world. The packer is a busy place, well managed by Mr. Lasselle.

Earl Rhoten came up from Marion county this noon.

There is a whole volume in the following editorial in this morning's Oregonian.

"Now, then, let's all go to work again and make estates cheaper and have property. Never mind the farmer, nor the milkman."
