APPLE PRIZES A UNITED VALLEY.

Awarded in the Splendid Apple Show.

The awards in the apple show were made this forenoon by the judges, Prof. Lake, H. M. Williamson and Hon. Chas. Galloway, with a large display to select from, 153 boxes in all and a fine lot of plate exhibits. They were as follows:

Best county exhibit $100 cup presented by Linn county.—Marion.

Second best, cup presented by Brownsville commercial club.—Polk.

Best box Kings, cup presented by Harriaburg Development Co.—H. G. Rumbaugh, Albany.

Best box Northern Spies, cup presented by Linn county fair association of Seio.—Collins Bros., Independence.

Best five boxes, 3 or more varieties, cup presented by Ohling & Taylor—Dick Moore, Albany.

Second best, set of knives and forks, presented by Tomlinson & Holman.—L. Reynolds, Salem.

Best box Jonathans, cup presented by Bach & Buhl—John Goetz.

Best box Spitzbergs, cup presented by the Blain Clothing Co.—C. A. Park, Salem.

Best box Baldwins, $10 blankets presented by Hamilton's Bazaar.—L. T. Reynolds, Salem.

Best box Yellow Newton Pippins, cup presented by the Linn and Benton Real Estate Co.—F. R. Brown, Corvallis.

Best box Ben Davs, cup presented by P. M. Scroggin—R. Thompson, Albany.

Best box red cheeked Pippins, cup presented by Collins & Devine.—H. C. Bushnell, Junction.

Best box Grimes Golden, cup presented by First National Bank.—Henry Struckmier, Thomas.

Best box Wagners, carving set presented by Everett Epperly & Kyle.—H. G. Rumbaugh, Albany.

Best display on plates, 10 or more varieties, cup presented by H. Bryant.—Harold Rumbaugh.

Best box commercial packed apples, cup presented by J. A. Howard.—H. C. Bushnell, Junction.

Best display of chrysanthemums, cup presented by F. M. French.—Miss Lucy Gard. Mrs. E. F. Sox, second.

Best display of house plants, premium presented by F. G. Will.—Mrs. J. L. Tomlinson.

Best individual chrysanthemum, cup presented by Holt Again.—Mrs. Geo. Simpson. Second, Mrs. R. A. Murphy.

A Louis Bomher chrysanthemum brought in by Mrs. W. F. Heckman, too late for entry, is a beauty, and a myrtle from the Bermuda Islands, a genuine article, owned by F. B. Young attracted attention.

H. J. Moore has a fine display of English and almond nuts; O. M. Barton a very healthy lemon tree, with the green fruit, a good one; H. E. Mullen some late peaches and there is a good exhibit of vegetables.

A large number of Albany people and those from other places have attended the show, warm in their praise of the splendid showing made. It was far ahead of last year, and emphasizes the fact that this part of Oregon is in a position to be second to none in apple raising.

Every person in the city should see the exhibit, which is entirely free, one for everybody.

The jewelers of the city all closed their stores this afternoon during the funeral of Henry Ewart, attended by a large number of friends.

A Banquet Full of Good Will, Albany's Best.

The banquet given last night in honor of the opening of the new depot was the best in the history of Albany, a magnificent affair, splendidly managed and carried out, gotten up by our wives, daughters and sweethearts, as Toastmaster Van Winkle remarked. Set in the fine new gymnasium three hundred eighty seats were all filled but three or four.

At 5:30 the crowd took their places amid good natured hurrahs for different towns. The college girl's glee club sang, making a tremendous hit, and the banquet was on. The menu with some catchy hits was:

- Oyster cocktail
- Clam Bouillon
- Chicken pie
- Escaloped potatoes
- Baked apples
- Celery jolly olives
- Fruit salad
- Ice cream
- Cake
- Coffee
- Crackers
- Cigars

Interspersed as the banquet proceeded Postmaster Van Winkle officiated as toastmaster in a splendid manner, and responses were heard from Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Albany will grow; Lawyer W. Cotton, the depot a new spirit of growth; Gov. Geo. E. Chamberlain, who was given an ovation as he arose, who left the south 32 years ago today for the garden spot of the world and found it at Albany; President Crooks, Oregon the garden of eden with its apple pie; President Campbell, who appreciated this kind of Alco Hall; Boost-er Hartog, who admitted Albany had outdone Eugene's depot day; Senator C. W. Hodson, president of the Portland Commercial Club, a good roads man; the great and only Tom Richardson, Albany the center of the earth, and this banquet the most soul to it of any he ever attended, Eugene never having a banquet that would touch a fragment of it; Manager Bury I. Dasent, for whom the crowd stood and cheered, Albany is on the map to stay, and Mr. O'Brien we want the C. & E. extension and we will show the world; Secretary Fred Muller, of the Portland board of trade; C. C. Chapman, Portland's megaphone, one of the one hundred fifty Portland Albany boosters at the banquet; Judge H. H. Hewitt, Portland will have to look out; William McMurry, passenger agent, God bless the people of Albany; Ralph Hoyt, president of the rose fair; Rev. McDougall with enthusiasm to burn, suggesting that Mr. McMurry carry his gospel over the mountains to the poor people the other side; closing with thanks by Lawyer Cotton and three cheers for everybody.

Interspersed dispatches of a decided humorous nature were read from President Roosevelt denying that Eugene had been the center of the world; from Harriman on the C. & E. extension; a sure enough one from Mr. Kruttenitt, one from Harry Lane, too busy with the lid; from President elect Taft, W. J. Bryan, with regards to Milt Miller; Carrie Nation, whose hatchet was out of repair; Mrs. Woodcock, E. L. Smith, of Hood River, who objected to Albany being the apple center as well as the railroad center, and Theodore Shonts, wants to run a sub way from the St. Charles to the depot.

Another song and three cheers for the Portland ladies at a separate table and the happy crowd dispersed, Eugene first amid hurrahs for that place, in order to reach the train earlier.

Pushing the Line.

The rails have been laid a block on the new electric line. The top of the rails are exactly on line with the curbing. A splendid job is being done under the direction of Foreman Stewart, an experienced railroad builder who knows the business thoroughly. When Lyon street is reached much faster work will be done.

Land in Small Tracts.

For thirty days we have five 5-acre tracts and four 10-acre tracts, within a mile and a half of Albany. Fine land, at the right price and on easy terms. Get busy before it advances in price. Inquire of the Linn and Benton Real Estate Co., temporary offices over the P. O.

Albany Depot and football post cards at Meisers.

ALBANY CHAMPIONS

Of the Non-conference League, Beat Willamette II to 4.

On account of a long dispute over the playing of Dunlap properly certified the game between Albany and Willamette was not begun until about 4 o'clock, then without Dunlap, but Willamette's professional Sullivan remained in the game without any certifying. But it made no difference. Willamette started the game with the most life, and soon had the ball where a goal could be kicked from the field. Then Albany proceeded to do business and by some splendid runs and forward passes soon had a touchdown and a goal was kicked. In the next half Albany clearly outplayed the Methodists and another touchdown was soon on record, but the try at the goal was a failure. The game ended with the ball out of danger.

Beeson, Barry, Ward and Rogaway did splendid work carrying the ball, with good interference. The punting of Yates was very poor. With good kicking Albany would have been good for at least one more touchdown if not two, and Willamette's field goal would never have occurred.

It was about the most interesting contest played here. Under Coach Luck a splendid team has been developed, the best in Oregon for its weight, and the greenness of most of the men at the game.

Mr. Hockenbury, of Portland refereed the game in a professional way, with Prof Marquam as umpire. Fred Weatherford was head linesman and Prof. F. M. French local observer.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 50-36.
The river is 1.6 feet.
Prediction: fair tonight and Thursday.
