

NIGHT PROWLERS.

Most nights are quiet ones with the night police of Albany, with very little signs of life around town. This morning John Catlin varied the monotony of the night with quite a chase. A couple of men were discovered between 1 and 2 o'clock prowling around the corner of Ferry and Second streets, going down to the alley back of Beams and up towards the St. Charles. John's dog tracked them to the shed in the rear of Steven's store when they came out and took a shot at the policeman, which was returned. He was coming up the alley, they ran west, down the track and out Calapooia street towards the depot, where the men were seen, with a third, skipping down the track. There were signs of their being at the rear of Schrader's gun store, and were probably looking for an opportunity to get into some store.

Organizing a Homestead.

Mrs. Grace Woodard, district manager, and Mrs. Hill of Eugene, are in the city for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman. Homesteads have been organized in several places, but this is the first opportunity Albany people have had.

A fine cabbage left at the Democrat office this noon by Mr. E. B. Davidson makes the common affairs look small. It is a good one.

THURSDAY

$10,000 WANTED.

November 20 is "College Day" in Albany.

On that day Albany will raise at least $10,000 toward the $50,000 endowment fund for Albany College. The entire town will be canvassed by a committee of at least thirty men. The trustees and the Commercial Club are working hand in hand on this project.

The following resolution was passed last evening by the directors of the Commercial Club:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Albany Commercial Club request those citizens selected by the committee on Albany College to serve as canvassers for funds on November 20th, 1908, which day shall be known as College Day, and on which day the citizens of Albany are urged to give at least $10,000 toward the $50,000 endowment fund for Albany College.

All Albany subscriptions will be taken with the understanding that they are not collected before a fund of $20,000 is secured. This assures at least double the amount raised in Albany. However the possibility for the town and college is much greater than this; four dollars are expected from other sources for every dollar Albany subscribes. Eastern sources have assured dollar for dollar for all raised in Oregon; in other words, friends in the east will duplicate what friends in Oregon give, up to $25,000.

Albany thus receives four dollars for one at interest. $50,000 will bring at least $2,500 annually, and, as this amount will all be spent in Albany, the $10,000 given by Albany will be returned through trade channels in the short space of four years.

This proposition means much to Albany. To have Albany College on a firm financial footing will add as much to the development of the town as any of the big commercial enterprises proposed in recent years.

Where Will It Be.

A report of the location of the new post office building is being looked for any time. The department is at work on the proposition, Mr. Yoakim having filed his report the first of the month, but there has been no action. There are several hints, but they are probably guess work. One is that it will be the Wright corner at Second and Broadbald, a splendid place, another the Woodin corner, another good place close to the business district and others the Wolverton corner, further down which is a popular place with east end people. Only the official report from Washington will settle it.

Is Preaching in Okanogan.

Rev. James Thomson, a former popular Albany college student, is now located at Okanogan, Wash., where he is pastor of the Presbyterian church. A letter received from Thomson indicates that it must be an apple country. On the envelope is a picture of a red apple, with Uncle Sam with his hands full of apples, and the inscription, "Watch U. S. make Okanogan great," signed by the Okanogan Commercial Club, while on the back is this in red ink: "Only incorporated city in Okanogan county, gateway to the Colville reservation, home of first government irrigation project in the state of Washington."

Fine Workmanship.

Probably the finest pieces of wood work ever done in Albany, not surpassed anywhere, may be seen in the show window at Dawson's, several bowls and cups, in ash and other woods, made by W. S. Richards of this city, and finished in the highest style of art. Mr. Richards is a genius in wood working. The articles are not for sale, or they wouldn't be in the window, for there have been many calls for them. Why not establish a factory. The goods would sell.

Rev. McKee, of McMinnville, is in the city.

S. A. King is ill with typhoid fever at his home on Ferry street.

Rev. J. T. Abbott, now state missionary, is in the city.

Mrs. Elsie Brooks, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her father, County Treasurer Francis.

A. P. Alernatt, of Grant, arrived yesterday on a visit at the home of his father.

H. M. Rober and daughter and Mr. Tom Grimes were among the Harrisburg people here.

Mrs. A. Linebeck and daughter, Mrs. Johnson, left for Roseburg, where Mr. Linebeck has located.

Work has been begun on the second block of the new street car track to be electrified as a standard gauge.

The Carlisle foot ball team will make a western tour. The O. A. C. team would make them know they were in the game.

Miss Saily Cowan, the milliner, has finished the season in Eugene, and is visiting in Albany before going to Portland for a short season in the wholesale houses.

The indications are that O. A. C. will again be champions of the Northwest. Perhaps by the 21st, though U. of O. will have sufficiently braced up to stop the procession.

Mr. Paul Schmitt, of Portland, a former Albany man, was in an automobile accident this week, resulting in some bad bruises. The Portland papers have an extended account of the mishap.

The town of Taft, named after the president-elect, in Montana, has been entirely destroyed. A gambler is accused of having done it. A mob wanted to lynch the gambler. One girl has died and another is seriously injured.

SALEM DAY

The Fair A Great Thing for Apple Culture in the Valley.

A crowd of over three hundred Salem people today added their praise to those of hundreds of others, for the apple fair and flower display at the armory. The verdict is universal that it is a fine affair and a splendid thing for the whole valley, for it is showing what can be done in apple raising.

In his talk at the W. C. T. U. hall last evening before a small audience of people who appreciate a good thing H. M. Williamson stated that there was a better display of apples this year in the show windows of the street than last year in the show itself, showing the apple development here: 20 boxes last year, 153 this year.

Mr. Peck gave a demonstration in flower culture during the afternoon, complimenting the flower display, which he declared was remarkable for the season. One chrysanthemum shown by Miss Lucy Gard, a Pom Pom, is said to be the only one in the state, a rare variety.

The name is the Mrs. Tom Lawson, and it cost Tom $10,000 to develop it. Some new plants today are a couple beautiful begonias shown by Mrs. J. A. Shaw, a Jerusalem chervil by Mrs. Conrad Meyers, an immense and odd fern by Mrs. Snelling, a cascade start and variegated grass by Mrs. Edna Barton.

In the apple prizes Harold G. Rumbaugh a native of Linn county certainly carried off the honors, with Mr. H. C. Bushnell, of Junction, a gentleman of the genuine article, a close second.

In the interest of the cause and the show E. L. McKoever and Henry Struckmier, two Santiam gardeners, have made a fine display of vegetables, showing what can be done with care, and without any idea of a show ahead.

The fair has been a booster which will be felt all through the valley. It is a valley fair with Albany as the center, and will mean much for fruit development in the entire Willamette, which in a few years will be asking no odds of Hood River or any other apple section.

The splendid delegation of Salem men and women, headed by the able mayor of the city, Mr. Geo. Rogers and the secretary of the chamber of commerce, Mr. A. F. Hoffer, were met by the reception committee, the mayor of the city, a good many Albany people and the Elks Band, marching to the Alcega Club, which was thrown open as headquarters. The crowd visited the Apple fair and has since been doing the city. Among those are a few former Albany people, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mr. Frank W. Power, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Will and Mr. W. B. Gilson.

A couple yells were good ones.
Apples, apples, apples.
What apples,
Red apples,
Where?
A L B A N Y.

Ann, Ann, Ann,
What Ann?
Royal Ann,
Where?
S A L E M.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon on a pile of wood in front of the armory an informal program was rendered, with President E. W. Langdon of the Commercial Club in the chair. Hon. P. R. Kelly gave an address of welcome and was responded to by J. H. Albert, Col. Hofer, Senator Tom Bay and others.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

The pressure was too much and this morning saw Gus Barker with his full equipment and coterie of assistants in the new baggage room, where the new tip is in keeping with the surroundings. That grants Pass send is frightful for truck hauling, but it will be one of the evils of life until the cement platform goes down.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, of Santiago, Calif., left for home by way of Portland, after a visit with J. B. Roberts and family.

W. Bryon came down from his farm near Plainview.

Rev. W. P. White returned from Lebanon, where last night he presented an illustrated lecture on the South American missions of the M. E. church, with a good attendance.

Mr. Omer Hendricson, of Heppner, left for home after completing the settlement of his father's estate. Under the settlement he and his brother secure the corner lot and the Frank residence.

Joe H. Raiston left on a business trip to Stayton.

A Theater Party.

Last evening Deputy District Attorney Gale S. Hill gave a theater party in honor of his 31st birthday, with several friends present. During the progress of the interesting film service, between acts, the large crowd present was surprised to see thrown on the canvass an announcement of the event, causing general amusement, and giving the Democrat a clue for this announcement of the pleasant social event.

RESOLVED.

The Commercial Club Appreciative.

The regular meeting of the Commercial Club was held last night, when the following resolutions were passed.

Resolved, that the Albany Commercial Club hereby expresses its gratitude, admiration and sincere appreciation of the valuable work of the Committee of Ladies of Albany in carrying to success the magnificent banquet given for Albany's guests on "Portland Day" of the Albany Apple Fair and on the occasion of the Dedication of the new depot of the Southern Pacific Company, and that the thanks of the Albany Commercial Club be, and are hereby tendered to the Ladies of Albany for their splendid work of co-operation.

Also in reference to the college endowment, given elsewhere.

Arrangements were made for a reception for the Salem delegation coming to the apple fair.

House Robbed.

The residence of Mrs. J. R. Stewart, at 1735 east second street was robbed yesterday afternoon between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock while Mrs. Stewart was up town. The thief went through drawers and seemed to be hunting for money and jewelry, things that cannot be identified. He secured some rings and a small amount of money belonging to Walter Stewart, which was taken from a pair of pants in his room, and then skipped. No one seems to have seen the fellow around the neighborhood.

FRIDAY.

Chrysanthemums Surprised People.

The chrysanthemums, shown at the fair, were all raised out doors, in Albany. People attending the show are surprised at the splendid display made, many not realizing that so much attention had been paid to this popular flower in Albany. There was a report that the Chrysanthemums were hot house affairs, but not one was raised in a hot house.

The Modern Travellers, under whose auspices the display of flowers at the apple fair was made, announce that next year they will give a regular flower fair, which it is proposed to make an annual event.

Prof. Geo. Coot, a member of the faculty of the O. A. C. for thirty years died at Yaquina yesterday at the age of 66 years.

Miss Maud Shaw, with Hamilton's Bazaar, was taken seriously ill yesterday and last evening was taken to St. Mary's hospital for care.

"One B. F. Jones" is the way the Oregonian refers to Senator Jones because he uses some horse-sense in reference to statement number one.

J. Williams, H. Smyth and Joe Jacobs were indicted by the grand jury at Eugene yesterday on the charge of violation of the local option law.

The Pickle Club are now on top. Their name in green adorns the football fence and numerous other places. Where are the Fudge Club people.

The H. D. W. C. were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle in a delightful manner. A good time was had all the time, and the excellent refreshments were a part of it.

Jim Zurcher, the Roseburg booster, was in the city on his way home from Corvallis. He is a graduate of the O. A. C., and once was a foot ball star, now a booster star, and a good one.

A. J. Miller and son Del, of Portland, are in the city, having come up to attend the funeral of the former's father, Mart Miller. The latter has become a young giant, weighing 192 pounds.

Oregon's complete returns are now in and are as follows: Taft electors 62,118, Bryan electors 37,775, Chaffin electors 2,686, Debs electors 7,098, Higgen electors 327. Taft's plurality is 24,343, under 25,000.

A farmer's team this noon took a run from the Holt corner to the Anderson corner, where the horses were stopped. A couple boxes of chickens were dumped out, and they kept going, scattering in various directions.

At last the Chinese exclusion squabble has been settled. Have them come in by Niagara Falls. Yesterday six of them in going so were swept over the falls. Four others were saved from the river and fell into the clutches of the officers watching for them.

Dr. I. T. Marks and wife of Halsey returned home this afternoon from an Albany visit. Dr. Marks will continue to practice in Halsey, but on Monday will leave for the east on a two or three month's trip for the purpose of taking post graduate courses at Chicago and New York.

APPLE FAIR A SUCCESS.

The apple fair ended last night. It was in charge of two committees, one appointed by the horticultural society, Messrs. E. C. Roberts, fruit inspector, who did great work for it; D. W. Rumbaugh, C. H. Stewart, I. A. Munkers and J. L. Tomlinson, the other by the Albany Commercial Club, Messrs. Owen Beam, J. A. Howard, W. A. Eastburn, H. Bryant and E. H. McCune.

For the splendid flower display Mrs. E. W. Cooper is particularly entitled to credit, well assisted by others.

Portland day was a great event; but Salem day was one, and that city certainly did itself proud.

Before the program closed yesterday afternoon Mayor Rogers was called upon and made a fine talk, introducing a good one when he told about how the wife of the Salem mayor had stopped him at an Albany millinery store (Hamilton's) to buy a latest style hat.

J. H. Albert in his talk told a pleasant reminiscence about coming around the Horn with Dr. G. W. Grey, of this city, then making his second trip to Oregon, whose stories about Oregon's fine apples had been made good.

Other speakers were Hon. J. K. Weatherford whose remarks are always to the point. Secretary Hofer and August Huestein president of the Salem Business Men's League.

Late yesterday afternoon a new record was made in the price of apples in Oregon. When M. McDonald, of Salem paid $10 for the box of Northern Spies which won first prize. It was packed by H. C. Bushnell of Junction, and raised by A. J. Wolcott of Independence. J. A. Howard presented the cup.

The Salem crowd left for home on the 8:18 train last night, amidst the cheers of Albany people for the cherry city. The fine Salem band played several selections, and there was an occasion to admire the splendid depot. Salem will be satisfied to have as good a one, though Col. Hofer declared that if Albany keeps growing the way it has been growing, it will soon have to be enlarged.

News from Six of Albany's 26 Passenger Trains.

Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, went to Portland on a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Miles, who is now getting in a home of her own. Mr. Miller thinks just as much of Mrs. Bryan as ever, and with reason. He has the satisfaction of having done his best in the interest of the Nebraskan.

Ex-County Commissioner D. C. Swan, of Crawfordville, came down on a visit with his daughter, Miss Mattie Swan, one of Albany's efficient and popular teachers.

Mr. Henry Stanard, of Brownsville, came down on his way to Newberg, on a visit with his brother, Rev. Stanard.

Mr. Frank O'Neill left for Portland. Miss Beatrice Reed of Lebanon, came down on an Albany visit.

Miss Bessie Bach left for Portland on her regular music trip. Next week she will be in Albany to help in the programs of the Catholic fair.

With the terminous of the street car line at the Young corner today it became necessary for the St. Charles to put on its bus, and it is now running and will continue to until the line is completed. An old-time appearance.

Albany college and Eugene high school will play at this city on Friday of next week.

COLLEGE DAY COMMITTEE.

The following committee has been selected to hustle on Nov. 20th, for the $10,000, Albany's share of the $50,000 endowment to be raised for the college. A great cause.

How it Will be Done.

People have been wondering how the C. & E. trains are going to get in front of the union depot. It is easy enough. A Y is to be built at the junction on the property bought ostensibly for a depot, it is said really for this purpose and there is where the main line will be reached. The Brownsville and Lebanon trains, it is said will back up on a spur in front of the present freight depot, which is to be moved.

Highly Complimented.

The Democrat has heard a good many compliments for Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, chairman of the ladies' committee, which did such splendid service during Portland day. The value of excellent organization was shown. It is not often the members of a banquet are served by such a company; forty-four women and forty-four girls well trained in their duties.

His Mouth Watered.

Gazette: Casper Zierolf, of southern Benton, came home Wednesday. He attended the Albany Apple Show and says it made his mouth water as he stood and looked at the elegant display. A large crowd was constantly passing thus showing the deeper interest now being taken by our people in the production of fruit. The time is fast coming when the big red apple will cut an important figure in the commercial industries of the Willamette valley.

A Changing Terminous.

The terminous of the horse car keeps getting further and further east being now down near the Young corner. Foreman Stewart, undoubtedly a very competent man in the work, is pushing things as fast as possible, and before we know it there will be the buzz of electric cars along the boulevard.
