THANKSGIVING TOMORROW

Churches to Unite in Service of Thanksgiving and Praise.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held tomorrow morning in the Baptist church of this city. The services will begin at 10:30 a. m. and last until noon. Rev. J. J. Evans, of the Christian church of this city will preach the sermon and have direct charge of the services. A thank offering will be taken to be used in caring for the poor and unfortunate.

The public is cordially invited to these services. Special music and great songs of praise and thanksgiving will be heard.

Albany Preserving Company.

The new building of the Albany Preserving Company is to be started on Monday of next week. Chris. Howland has the contract and will rush and expedite the work of construction as much as possible. The location of the new building will be on Seventh and Jackson streets, about one block from the prune packing establishment.

The establishing of a fruit cannery and preserver will mean much to the residents of this city and county. Practically every known kind of fruit and garden product will find a market here and thus their growing promoted.

Prof. Palmer of Albany College Thankful.

In the following lines I wish to express my hearty appreciation to those who so kindly assisted in transforming my studio into a place of harmonious and artistic beauty. It has been said of old that it is more blessed to give than to receive but in this particular case I am perfectly willing that those who gave should receive the blessing and I the benefit. CARROLL H PALMER

PRESIDENT CROOKS

Seeks Additional Endowment for Albany College.

President Harry Means Crooks of Albany College is on his way to Baker City, where he is to deliver an address before the sessions of the State Teachers' Association.

While in Portland President Crooks met and interviewed Dr. D. K. Pearsons, the great Chicago philanthropist, who has given about $4,000,000 to Christian Colleges in America. Dr. Pearsons gives "only to those colleges that are poor." He will do nothing for anybody before July 1, 1909, when twelve colleges now on his list must raise certain sums to meet the condition of his gifts which vary from $1,000 to $25,000.

The great philanthropist made inquiry concerning Albany College, of which he had heard before from both President Crooks and Alfred C. Schmitt, both by letter and also in person.

Twenty-four of Portland's business men interested in Albany College are to meet in the rooms of the Portland Commercial Club on Friday to perfect plans for the Portland canvass to raise that city's share of the fund. Much interest is expressed and the work made easy on account of a positive kindly feeling toward Albany College.

Missionary Society.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the church parlors. The program consists of the following: Bible study, Mrs. B. M. Payne; Immigration and the National Character, Mrs. C. B. Winn; Korea, Mrs. J. A. Shaw; Mexicans in the United States, Mrs. F. R. Zugg. All the ladies of the church are invited to attend.

Artisans Celebrate.

The United Artisans of this city recently held a district meeting at their hall and entertained 140 visitors from Corvallis, Eugene, Lebanon, Stayton and Salem. A class of twelve was initiated, the floor work was executed in a very creditable manner by the Corvallis team; after the initiatory work the guests were invited to the banquet room where they were served a banquet by the ladies of the Albany Artisans. The Corvallis Artisans arrived on a special train and did not reach home till after midnight.
