MEISER & MEISER

Home and Abroad.

A blizzard has been raging in Penn. Dallas beat Ellensburg 57 to 3 at basket ball last night.

The wholesale quotations of mistletoe by the Portland houses is $2.75 a barrel. The mercury was 3 degrees below zero over the other side of the hills yesterday at Prineville.

Aeronaut Wright yesterday in France remained in the air about two hours with his aeroplane, a new record.

Mrs. Phile who died at Corvallis this week, was a member of the German Lutheran church, instead of the Catholic church, as the Democrat reported.

Six jurors secured the first day in the Finch trial. No trouble to secure twelve men who will do justice in his case.

At Salem last night, the Salem high school team defeated Lebanon on the first round. Last year Lebanon defeated all comers.

836 votes were recently cast in the Ashland election, showing a healthy growth, but it was a live election and everybody voted.

Brownsville defeated Corvallis at foot ball 5 to 2; but the boys upon returning home made a different report, and the score given was 2 to 0 in favor of Corvallis. The Times says that was gall.

The Sunday school classes of the Holy Trinity church at Brownsville will have their Christmas tree festival tomorrow. The Sisters of the Academy will have charge of the exercises and Father Lane will distribute the several prizes. The Christmas tree exercises at the Academy will be held on Dec. 23.

A NEW DEAL

By Taft in His Cabinet.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 19.—A message to a paper here says Taft has selected his cabinet and will submit the list to Knox when the latter arrives from Augusta in a few days. The list practically eliminates the supporters of Roosevelt, in the late campaign, from the cabinet.

Oregon P. M.'s.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The President sent to the senate the following nominations of Oregon postmasters: Wm. M. Brown, Lebanon; J. E. Beezley, Fall City. The senate will adjourn today until Jan. 4.

Mrs. Phillip Phile.

Corvallis Times: Mrs. Phillip Phile, age 74 years, passed away rather unexpectedly Thursday night. About a year ago this lady suffered a paralytic stroke that partially disabled her, but it did not break her spirit. A week or so ago she went to Portland to attend a funeral. Since that time she had been ailing more or less, and was fatally stricken Thursday night. The Philes are sturdy Germans who have been in this city many years and they have been respected by all, and appreciated particularly by neighbors. The funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Phile will be held Sunday at 2 o'clock, J. R. N. Bell officiating.

LEBANON

Several New Buildings Projected

The E. A.:

Mr. E. L. Gilbert and Miss Josephine McKinney were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in this city Monday evening by the pastor, Rev. F. Lacy. Mr. Gilbert is the junior member of the firm of Gilbert Brothers, merchants of Berlin, and is an excellent young man. The bride is a popular young lady of the same neighborhood.

Miss Ora Harkness, a popular young lady of Albany, was in Lebanon two days this week soliciting subscriptions to the Sunset Magazine. If she succeeds in getting 250 subscribers to the magazine she will be given a free trip through the South and East, during next February and March. She secured thirteen subscribers in this place, which is thirteen miles from Albany, but we hope this number will give her good luck instead of bad luck, as some would think.

J. C. Devine is having one of his buildings near the Hotel Lebanon moved back and will have a new concrete building erected on the site. One of the rooms in the building will be occupied by D. A. Reeves and Wayne Green, who will open a new clothing store when the building is completed. T. C. Case, who owns the adjoining lot, is thinking of putting up a two-story concrete building, and N. D. Kufhaber is also contemplating the erection of a one-story two-room concrete building.

A Distributing Center.

Brownsville Times:—

Uncle Sam has also been struck with a streak or chunk of economy, judging by the fact that the services of a mail clerk on this line of the Southern Pacific has been dispensed with. The new order of things went into effect Tuesday, since which time the express messenger is entrusted with the duty of kicking off a sack of mail at this station labeled "Brownsville." All letter mail now goes direct to the Albany post office where it is sorted and then sent out, very likely causing at least one day's delay in transmission of the mail.

At the Empire.

Tonight and tomorrow there will be a fine program at the Empire, with good music. Everything is working in fine shape.

Next week there will be an extra attraction shown on the new stage, the smallest house in the world, which will be at the theater all the week.

A Wagon Accident

Mr. Fred Bergman, with Barrett Bros., met with a small accident yesterday afternoon. He was at work putting up a heavy wagon, when the props slipped; letting the wagon down upon him, mashing him some, so that he will be laid up for a few days.
