Miss Jennie Johnson went to Eugene this afternoon on a visit at A. L. Douglas.

Mrs. J. M. Kitchen, of Stayton, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Morgan.

More poisoned dogs are reported out in the country, ten in all. Poisoned meat was left at several farm yards.

Mrs. Rev. Wire, of Eugene, returned home this afternoon. She heard Billy Sunday and was wonderfully impressed.

Roy McFarland, of Lebanon, left for Portland this week and will play with the team of that city the coming year.

Walter Parker has been appointed chief counselor of the S. P. to succeed W. F. Herrin at $50000 year. Congratulations, Walter.

Rev. Handsaker, of Walla Walla, passed through this noon for Eugene. He has been holding special meetings in The Dalles.

Miss Jane Knox, daughter of J. E. Knox, of Portland, passed through this noon for Eugene. Her brother George has just entered a school in Wisconsin.

Postmaster J. S. Van Winkle and State Commanter J. W. Sherwood, of Portland, went to Cottage Grove this afternoon on a Maccabee trip.

The Apostolic Appeal, the paper of the Christian church of Oregon, is to be published at Salem instead of McMinnville. Rev. Swander is editor and Rev. Errett assistant.

Watch Inspector F. M. French has returned from a several days' trip up the road, looking after railroad watches. While gone he registered from the Hub, which attracted some attention, particularly in Eugene.

In mentioning Albany's industries the Democrat omitted the Albany saw mill just outside the city limits, but an Albany institution with the office in town. It has a pay roll of $50 a day and is doing a fine business.

Mr. Mart Bilyeu, who recently sold his farm near Scio, has bought the property of Mrs. Virginia Wynn, consisting of a lot and two houses, consideration $3500. He will make his home in the corner house now occupied by M. B. Craft.

S. G. Simons received a dispatch yesterday afternoon that his youngest brother, Louis, had been drowned in Siskiyou county, Calif., and he left by the next train from Montague to attend the matter. He was 22 years of age and single.

The Pacific Telephone Co. to day is sued a new directory, with its large list of patrons. The local management is an excellent one, and the directory shows a fine business in this part of the valley.

Since its last report the Oregonians of Dallas, defeated Decatur, 28 to 17, Princeville 37 to 25 and Shenandoah 40 to 14, 32 victories to 5 defeats. Total score 1276 to 596. They are playing in Iowa this week.

Cottage Grove Leader: J. H. O'Brien field editor of the Oregon Free Press, published at Salem, is a Cottage Grove visitor today and favored the Leader with a fraternal call. The Free Press will soon issue a special edition.

Another tall Eugene boy has run away, Homer Leep, son of Dr. Leep, aged 16 years, 6 feet 1 1/2 inches tall, wearing a brown suit and dark hat. He went to school Monday morning, only he didn't, and that is the last seen of him.

Eugene Guard:—Russell Welch, for several years manager of the local office of the Willamette Valley Co., has been transferred to Albany and A. B. Atkins, who recently came here from Corvallis, has taken his place. Mr. Welch and estimable wife will be greatly missed in society circles.

Lebanon E. A.—Chas. A. Smith after an absence of several years, arrived here yesterday from the Alberta country, Canada, to visit his mother and other relatives. Mr. Smith, like the other Lebanon men, who have gone there, has done well financially and owns a lot of good land in that country.

A. C. CLUB

Held an Informal Session Wednesday Night.

At the session of the Albany Commercial Club last evening eight members of the board were present, hardly a quorum, hence only an informal meeting was held.

Rev. Geselbracht, on behalf of the churches of the city asked for cooperation by the club in a big men's missionary banquet at this city on Feb. 26, when three prominent missionaries from the Orient, one of whom is Dr. Underwood, a brother of the Underwood Typewriter mfr., will be present.

It is intended to sell tickets to a banquet, and have the talks, which will be along the line of the commercial and political aspect of the Orient, presented after the feed.

Mr. G. B. Whitcomb, of near Foster, also was present and addressed the club in reference to a mining proposition he has in the Big Bottom country, urging the taking of $1,000 stock by each of five men, $5,000 in all, for promotion work.

The different matters will be thought about, until a quorum may act so as to bind the club.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mrs. Seeley, worthy matron, Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mrs. Griff King, Miss Pratt, Mrs. Phyllis Turner, Mrs. W. B. Chance, Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle, Mrs. J. B. Leatherman, Mrs. Knox Haight, Mrs. A. W. Bowersox and Mrs. C. V. Littler returned from Brownsville, where they had been to institute a new lodge of Eastern Star, which starts out with a good membership.

Mrs. J. A. Shaw went to Mill City. Mack Monteith left on a commercial trip to Kingston.

Lawyer E. E. Wilson came over from Corvallis.

J. T. Jordan returned from a trip to Corvallis.

Mr. Cecil Cathey returned from a Corvallis trip.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford left on a business trip to Portland.

John Stevens of the C. & E. went up the road to look after things, going as far as Niagara. He reported eight or ten inches of snow on the ground at Detroit yet, slushy stuff.

In a few days, the report is, a crowd is to come up the road to level up things in front of the depot on the yard side, with a big job ahead.

Austin and Laughead.

Messrs. O. D. Austin and Clyde Laughead have bought the business of the Albany Supply Co., at First and Washington streets, and will hereafter run it. Mr. Austin has been city solicitor for it since starting, and Mr. Laughead bookkeeper and office clerk, two good business men, who may be relied upon who know the field thoroughly and have the confidence of the business men of Albany and adjoining towns. The Albany Supply Co. is filling a field here well, a big convenience to grocers in this part of the state, and it will grow under the experienced management of Messrs. Austin and Laughead.

Library Social.

The young people of St. Mary's Church gave a very enjoyable entertainment and social last night in their Library hall on First street.

About sixty young people were out and many of the elders of the parish who enjoyed every feature of the evening's entertainment. The musical numbers contributed by Mr. James H. Fitzgerald were enthusiastically received. Mr. Fitzgerald is an artist at the piano. He has had the distinction of playing at the drawing room at Windsor Palace.

Five on One Block.

On a block near Main and First street, the Democrat is informed, there will be five residences erected the coming year for rental and residence. The third ward promises to take the lead the coming year in building. But other sections will be heard from, and at least one hundred houses will go up. The city needs them and more too.

Gov. Hanley.

Gov. J. Frank Hanley, one of the best known and ablest chief executives in the United States, will be in Oregon next week. He is billed for Roseburg on Feb. 19, and an effort is being made to secure him for Albany in place of Jacob Ritz, who did not appear. Albany people will pack the house for Gov. Hanley.

An Albany Popper.

Parker Bros., two reliable Albany boys, sons of E. E. Parker, have bought a modern scientific, up-to-date corn popper, a $1500 affair, and will furnish the people of this city with delicious poppers, popper, popper, popped, buttered and salted. Their headquarters will be near the Empire.

FRIDAY

SAVINGS BANK

To Be at Second and Broadalbin Streets. Property Secured.

The First National Bank has bought of Mrs. Henrietta Brown the property at the corner of Second and Broadalbin street, excepting the part covered by the brick building occupied by C. G. Rawlings and Dr. C. V. Littler, approximately 66 by 70 feet, for which it is said about $10,000 will be paid. The whole corner was wanted, but Mrs. Brown wishes to retain the brick. The Bank will erect one of the finest buildings in the city, covering the entire vacant space after the wooden building, known as the old Democrat building, is moved away, to be occupied by the new Albany Savings Bank, and other businesses, with offices on the second floor. Just when work will begin has not been decided. The savings bank will occupy the present office of Dr. C. V. Littler, which will be rearranged for the purpose, until the new building is ready for it. Mr. Rawlings has a several years lease on his printing office and will remain where he is. The corner is a splendid one, and the deal means a big boost for Second street.

The DeMosses.

The DeMoss family again gave Albany people a chance to see the changing condition of the DeMoss family. When the Democrat man first heard them about 25 years ago the father was the principal performer, and the only other one now with them was George. George is a stayer and continues to be quite a part of the family. Some new faces not here the last time are two youngsters, who do there parts well. The DeMosses have a way all their own, with a foot hill tone to it, which people like, and they always do a good business up and down the valleys of the coast.

Lincoln's Birthday.

The members of the G. A. R. this afternoon were remembering the one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln in a patriotic meeting at their hall, beginning at 3 o'clock. Bev. S. A. Douglas was down for the principal address, and the school children were to be present for some school songs.

At the college this forenoon Judge H. H. Hewitt gave a splendid talk on the life of Lincoln, greatly appreciated by the students and faculty.

A Piano Recital.

At a home recital Thursday afternoon given by the friends in Mrs. Worrell's music class the following played: Mrs. Will Tohl, Mrs. Rocky Willis, Mrs. Chas. Welch, Mrs. A. Stark, Mrs. J. J. Collins and Mrs. J. A. Leonard. Following the program were musical games, lunch and a social time. The first prize was won by Mrs. Collins, the consolation prizes by Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. School.
