THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

There were two extra trains for news, sections of No. 16 arriving at 7:15 and 7:30.

On the first section of 16 was a special car of horses from the celebrated Lafayette Stock farm of J. Crouch & Son. One horse weighing 2500 pounds was said to be the biggest horse in the world, a monster, gray and immense.

George Finley passed, through from Crawfordsville to Portland. Mr. Finley recently returned from a trip on timber land business to old Mexico, land of wonderful possibilities, undeveloped, offering many advantages for investment.

A. M. Templeton, of Brownsville, left for Prineville, where a brother recently died.

Mrs. W. H. Lee left for her home at Seattle, leaving her aunt, Mrs. John Althouse slightly improved.

Architect Hand went to Portland. I. A. Phelps, manager of the telephone office at Lebanon, came down on a business trip.

M. McAlpin went to Portland. Marvin Turner left for Seattle, where he expects to reside.

Rev. Evans went to Portland. Curran an old time hat drummer, who used to come to Albany as early as thirty years ago, left for points north, being on the road again, after being off for seven or eight years.

Albany and Eugene.

The game of basket ball which will interest Albany people most is probably the one to be played Friday night at the Alco gym between the Eugene high school and Albany high school. The teams had a tie on their former contest, when Eugene refused to play it off and it was given to Albany by the referee. Both teams have improved since then, which will mean something doing from the blow of the whistle.

Albany Leads.

In the Telegram's Alaska contest Miss Tillie Eckert, of this city, has the highest vote of any one in the whole ten districts, indicating Albany's importance as a business center. Our people should see that she remains at the head. The Telegram gives a wheel of pictures of the young ladies, but Miss Eckert is not in it.

A Recital

Will be given at the Baptist church on Friday evening, Feb. 26, given by Mrs. H. Wyse Jones, assisted by Miss Nina Paddock, of McMinnville. Admission 25 cents. Children under 8 years of age free.

Knew Where They Were Going.

J. I. Applegate, residing near this city, came to town this morning with some eggs and other things for Owen Beam's grocery, a can of cream, etc., on the way stopping at J. H. Simpson's; but the horses got in a hurry to get to Beam's and ran away starting south, turning at Ferry and then down that street directly to the Beam corner, landing against the telephone pole at the corner, which stopped proceedings. Only a small amount of damage was done.

Store Burglarized.

Three $6 revolvers, a $16 colt and a cheap watch were stolen from Ohling & Taylor's store last night, the things being in the front show window. Entrance was effected by breaking a window at the rear of the store. It was evidently the work of some boy or boys, all the signs indicating that no professional did it.

Talk of a Big hotel.

There is said to be a splendid prospect of a big four story brick hotel at the present site of Chinatown, and the report is so strong that some one says the plans have been drawn for it. It sounds good anyway, a fine building in place of the Celestial rookeries being a boost that will please Albany people generally.

See the Soda Fountain.

OREGONS

MARCH 10.

Walter E. Critchlow, advance man for the famous Oregons of Dallas, arrived this morning from the South and made arrangements with the high school team for a game at the Alco gym on March 10. This will give Albany people an opportunity to see the best basket ball players in the United States play, and no doubt the gym will be packed.

On their eastern trip the men have lost only six games, playing in all manner of halls, climate, etc., against the crack teams of the country. Their lineup is Edward Shaw center and captain, W. A. Reed and Carl Fenton forwards, Claud Shaw and Alvie Morton guards.

The team is in Utah to-day. On the way home the men will play Ashland, Roseburg, Eugene and a few other Oregon teams.

In and Around Albany.

Fisk tires. Spray at $6.50 per barrel at Stewart & Sox Hdw. Co.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be at the Revere House Friday and Saturday.

The Democrat has added a picture of Miss Oran Harkness to its art gallery. It was in this morning's Oregonian.

Friday and Saturday of this week will be lucky days for weak eyed people. Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in town.

A letter coming into the hands of Judge C. H. Stewart of this city, today was from Judge C. H. Stewart, of Delta county, Colorado. It was for another Stewart and was returned to the post office for a further journey.

Lemke's new store in Wright's addition, carries family groceries, the latest and best. No finer quality in all the nation. Come one, come all, and give him a test. Both phones, and free delivery. t26

Always Draws.

As usual Uncle Tom's Cabin last night drew a big house. It always does, like a circus being an attraction that never grows old, warm in the hearts of the people, regardless of the freak additions to the original story. Little Eva was said to be particularly good. Opinions varied as to the general merit of the cast; but it was Uncle Tom and full of interest.
