

COME--Inspect the Waist Showing at this store. All new Spring 1909 Styles are here. Careful study should be devoted to this early Waist display.

There are dozens of the most unusual things to be seen--each model has its own decidedly new and charming touches. The airy "Lingerie" family, including the lace and net affairs was never more bewitching. The silk waists are smart and colorful. The tailored models never so dressy and tasteful. Long sleeves and high collars largely predominate. But we will not attempt a detailed style description. This is intended simply as an invitation to everyone to come and see the largest and best Waist showing we have ever presented. And this one feature we especially emphasize. The values are exceptional--the very best that the same prices can possibly buy anywhere.

THIS MORNING PROPOSED HOTEL.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

A good natured crowd of Knights Templars went down the road after a night with the Albany Knights, among them being Lot Pierce, A. E. Strang and several other De Molay men, of Salem, and J. F. Steiwen of Jefferson, with their swords and grips.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Brien and daughter Frances went to Portland on a short trip. Among other things they are looking for a baby buggy big enough to hold twins, and perhaps also Frances, who also has to ride some.

C. H. Burggraf went down the road with his architect's case. George Finley returned to Portland after a Crawfordville trip. County Commissioner Russell came down on the Lebanon train. Mrs. Louis Morgan, of Astoria, left for home, stopping at Jefferson a short time.

G. W. Laubner, of Halsey, went to Corvallis. Frank E. Jackson, of Portland, now a commercial traveller, formerly an Albany hop man, arrived. H. N. Cokerline left on an insurance trip down the road.

Judge George Passed Through.

Judge M. C. George and family, of Portland, passed through the city this noon for Southern California, where they will spend a few weeks for a winter's outing. They are traveling by day intending to stop off nights, so that they will see the entire country by day light. Judge George is one of the former Linn county school teachers who have met with much success in the world, having been in congress and now a judge in high standing.

The LaForest Residence.

E. H. Rhodes has bought the fine residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaForest, 238 E. 5th street, and will make it the Rhodes home hereafter. It is one of the finest places in the city, covering two splendid lots, in good surroundings, and Mr. Rhodes is to be congratulated upon securing it.

The plans are about completed by architect Hand for the proposed hotel at the corner of Second and Lyon streets, showing a fine building, modern in all its appointments, brick four stories, 88 feet by 102 feet, steamheated, etc. According to it there will be a store in the corner, the rest hotel. There will be sixty-five bed rooms. The cost of the land and building is estimated at about $60,000. The plan is to sell stock for the structure, which it is figured will pay a fair income from the start.

Walked from Corvallis.

H. A. Hinshaw and C. A. Malbeauf, two Portland young men, came to Albany last evening from Corvallis on the tie, the S. P. men declare because they lacked the wherewithal for transportation. They arrived here at 7 o'clock, making the trip in 3 hours and 5 minutes, according to the watch of W. H. Jenkins, who came on the cars and stood off the conductor. The train passed the men at Granger near the track gasping for breath. The weather was good, and the popular freight men are said to have enjoyed every minute of the trip, taken on a banter. They left over wheels for other points in charge of Jenkins.

Manager O'Brien Says.

Manager Daset received a letter from Manager O'Brien last evening stating that the depot arrangements will be made to the entire satisfaction of Albany people, and work will be begun before long.

THE PIONEERS.

The Pioneers, a pretty cantata, was presented at the Presbyterian church last night to a crowded and appreciative house. It was given under the direction of Mrs. F. H. Geselbracht, with Miss Evelyn Merrill at the piano and was well presented. The narration brought out in song the story of the life of the pioneer, his war with the Indians, final victory and peace, introducing many excellent solo parts, taken by Rev. Geselbracht, Gil Ogden, Mabel Becker, Verna Burton, M. R. DeLong, Winifred McNaair, Victor Yates, W. F. Heckman, Karl Thuneman and Madeline Rawlings, backed by a strong chorus of voices, with a chorus of girls in old fashioned costumes.

Doug. hamilton in Town.

The great and only Doug. (S. A. D.) Hamilton, of Scio, has been in the city to-day. He recently sold the most of his farm and was looking for Albany property, perhaps. Doug has played a prominent part in some of the doings of Linn county, in various ways, once being the center of attraction in what would have been a tame affair at the University of Oregon, a ducking in a water trough, afterwards playing a part in a county election; but was not held down until the bubbles came, and no one was defeated on account of it. Doug was remarkable quiet to-day.

CAN YOU TRUTHFULLY ANSWER YES?

During the past year have you been absolutely satisfied with all your groceries--your teas and coffee, your butter, canned goods and flavoring extracts?

Can you truthfully answer yes? These things are all within the control of the merchant, and as long as painstaking care is exercised in their selection, you are pretty certain to get first class quality and flavor.

We do not claim to be perfection--we are only human and sometimes make mistakes--but there isn't a store in town that strives more faithfully to have its customers absolutely satisfied, or that will so gladly and quickly rectify a mistake. We deem it a favor to have an error called to our attention and to have any goods returned that are not everything they should be in quality and freshness.
