WANT THE CAPITAL

PORTLAND, March 6.—A petition is being freely signed in Portland for the removal of the State Capitol from Salem to Portland.

Social Session

WASHINGTON, March 6.—President Taft issued a call for a special session of congress on March 15. Six cabinet members were sworn in today. The Senate adjourned until March 15.

Will Stand by Young

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Senator Boorne announces he will stand by J. C. Young for the postmastership. No appointment is likely before March 15, but a decision of the department president is likely to be reached earlier.

YOUNG MEN'S SUNDAY.

Tomorrow, March 7, will be observed as young men's Sunday in Albany. Representatives from the Portland Y. M. C. A. will occupy the pulpits of the Sunday churches.

In the afternoon, at 3:30, a special service will be held for men only. Dr. Pratt of Portland will deliver an address on the subject: "A Live Wire". The college quartette will furnish the music. The men of the city and all the boys over 14 are urged to make a special effort to attend that meeting.

Messrs. Klier and Vogt, musical entertainers, on a trip around the world, will be on the program, at the Opera house in the afternoon, giving some thing fine in music.

In the evening at 7:30 Secretary Rhodes will give an illustrated lecture at the United Presbyterian church on work of the Young Men's Christian Association in our country. The churches of the city will unite in this service. No plea will be made for money. A large attendance is expected.

HARRISBURG.

Bulletin: R. C. Shisler has purchased of J. C. Perin his interest in the hardware and harness business of Hill & Perin and the new firm will be known as Hill & Shisler.

Smith Bros, who sold their livery business here a week or two ago, have purchased the Komps livery barn at Junction city, and took possession Monday.

C. A. Carey of Sheffs writes that he believes a steamboat could be operated profitably between Harrisburg and Corvallis, and is wanting to get in communication with parties here who would be interested in building a boat of light draft.

For the first time in many years the price of oats has reached the four-bit mark and many of our farmers are marketing their surplus supply. The hauling of heavy loads is playing havoc with the roads.

The amusing farce-comedy, "Merchant of Venice, Up-to-date," presented at the Harrisburg opera house last Saturday evening by the juniors of the Halsey high school was all that could be desired as a laugh producer.

Pleased.

Last night the usual full houses greeted The Dreamland Stock Company's shows at the popular theatre. The show was extra good, Mr. Del Perry, Dreamland's popular comedian, put on a fine act, a Tramp Monologue. Mr. Del Perry sang a song and gave a fine recitation. The comedy sketch "Fresh Timothy Hay" was good. Jack Barry was a whole show himself. The picture program is the best seen here in some time.

OYSTERS, served in all styles, and by the pint or quart, at Hofflich's.

Last Chance Big Fun Show

Dreamland has the Best Show in town for 10c—ask anyone who seen the show last night.

Del Perry, the popular comedian in his great tramp act full of fun, an original act, good jokes, song and recitation, fine electrical stage effects. Dreamland Stock Co. in Fresh Timothy Hay with Jack Barry as Timothy, a laugh getter.

A Trip Through Death Valley.

An interesting entertainment was given at the opera house this afternoon and will be given again tonight at 7:30 and 8:30 and again Monday evening at 7:30 and 8:30.

A trip to Death Valley in moving picture films is shown. The pictures were taken from the front of a train, at great expense, going the entire length of Death Valley, an exact reproduction of this famous Valley. The trip begins at Ludlow and goes to the Amargosa canyon, to the largest borax mine in the world, the Lila G, which is shown in operation, including the Death Valley sink 278 feet below the sea level.

Tickets are free and can be secured of any grocer or druggist while the supply lasts.

Look See This.

The greatest moving picture show ever witnessed in Albany—four subjects, all good: Charlotte Corday, hand colored historical story picture, Tale of a Bag of Coal, Funny Pranks of a Bad Boy, Exacting Father-in-law, laugh from start to finish; "Now Your Here You'll Stay," a live illustrated song, "Grandma," goes to the heart. Don't fail to see this show tonight, it is the best in some time. Admission only 10c. Popular Family Theatre Dreamland.

An added feature—view slides of Cuba and Nassau—a feature all will enjoy. See them last time tonight.

Plenty of Money.

Lebanon E. A.—The sale of William N. Price, near Rock Hill, Wednesday, was well attended, considering the bad weather, and everything sold well. The sale amounted to about $800, and although eight months' time was offered on all sums over $10 only one note was given, and that amount was only for $10.00, everything else going for cash.

Death of S. R. Scott.

Samuel R. Scott died at Harrisburg Thursday night, at the age of 86 years. He was a prominent pioneer, a member of Oregon's last territorial legislature. The body was taken to Salem today for burial.
