H. A. HECKER, Administrator.

MONDAY.

BOOSTERS.

A fine piece of cement walk building is that at the Sister's school, where H. C. Harkness has just completed about 3,000 square feet of walk, on the street and winding around the building, and 250 feet of curbing. It adds in a very striking manner to the appearance of the grounds, an attractive place. The brick work has been completed on the Brenner block, and now inside work is being pushed on that and the adjoining brick, the store rooms being in demand. Geo. T. Hockensmith has begun the erection of a fine residence on his lot just south of Peter Gilbert's on Ferry street.

Fenced a Street.

Upon complaint of a neighbor Mr. G. W. Canfield was taken before Recorder Redfield on the charge of fencing a street. Five days not having expired from the time of the notice he was permitted to go upon promise to take the fence down today. The street fenced was Front at Sherman and just west of Oak, making a lot where he had five horses pastured. Mr. Canfield's version is that he practically had the permission of the street superintendent and had seen some of the councilmen who had told him the matter would be settled by the council. It was the only place he could find for his horses. He is a newcomer and says that isn't an encouraging way to treat a person, and that anyway he wasn't violating the ordinance any more than others who staked their cows in the street, also prohibited. The ordinance is plain, though, and the city officials had no other alternative but to enforce it.

Fined $20.

The case of Oregon sgt. Jas. Blackburn, charged with pointing a revolver with assault and battery and with carrying a concealed weapon, was disposed of by Justice Swan this forenoon. Constable Catlin reported that the prosecuting witness, Thos. Sloan, had left the city and the two first charges were dismissed, the defendant pleading guilty to carrying a concealed weapon. He was fined $20 and costs, $29.55 in all, which was promptly paid. The case sgt. John Kruse was postponed until tomorrow morning, and the charge changed to carrying concealed weapons. Mr. Kruse explains that part of it by stating that he had been shooting gophers out at the city cemetery, and had forgotten to take the revolver out of his pocket when the trouble with Mr. Kroeschel occurred.

The Alcos Won.

The new Alco Club defeated the athletic team on a slippery field Saturday evening 14 to 9. Stevens and Driver did the battery work for the Alcos, with Stevens, Dooley and Lee on the bases, Baker at short and Archer, Kennedy and Shultz in the field. The athletic boys tried a couple of batteries, Barry and Yates and Patterson and Patterson. They have a good team that will do good work when developed. W. L. Marks umpired. The Alcos will play Dallas next Sunday at Dalles.

For the Johnson Revival.

The committees out to-day report a general response to their applications for funds for the big revival here beginning May 7. $1000 is the amount wanted for preliminary expenses in erecting the tabernacle, and it is thought it will be secured this week. Some say Johnson is the equal of Billy Sunday, under whom he was converted, and that he hits just about as hard, some telling blows against sin. S. S. Train and family returned from the Bay this noon. Mrs. Alfred Schmitt and son returned this noon from a visit with Mrs. Hoffman at Yajuma. J. C. Hammell has returned from a week's strenuous work on his Benton county farm. The Linn County Council met with Morning Star Grange Saturday. The proceedings will be given tomorrow. Eugene Latorest came up from Portland this noon accompanied by Gladys Hunter, who had visited at his home a week. The bids for the new Albany State Bank building were opened Saturday evening, three of them, which are being considered. Rev. John L. Acheson, of the third United Presbyterian church, Portland, arrived this noon on a visit at the home of his father, M. Acheson. W. H. Bell, wife and three children arrived today from Huntington, N. Y. Mr. Bell is a former grocer, but expects to buy suburban property and go into the chicken business. J. H. Thompson has bought the dray which W. D. Elkins has been running, and will hereafter do business in his own name. A reliable young man who may be depended upon.

COLLEGE BOOSTING

Rev. Dr. H. L. Nave has arrived in Albany to take up his duties as field representative of Albany College. Dr. Nave has been for thirty years a pastor and has spent more than fifteen years of his pastorate in college towns. He is especially acquainted with the work of Wabash College, Indiana, of which institution he is a graduate, and through which institution his three adult sons have passed with honor. Dr. Nave was peculiarly successful in the pastorate of this college town and has always been a favorite with young people. Primarily his work will be to increase the number of the student body of the college but he will also aid President Crooks in the work of increasing the financial strength of the college. The board of trustees of the college are to be congratulated on such an addition to the college faculty and the city of Albany has secured another good booster. President Crooks will be going, leaving Portland Wednesday morning April 7. He expects the uplication of the $25,000 the College raised in the state of Oregon and will in all probability, visit, working under the instructions of the College Board of the Presbyterian church, New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Cleveland and Chicago. He expects to return home in time for commencement, June 16. The outlook is encouraging and President Crooks is hopeful that he will be able to report at commencement time even more than the $50,000 endowment for which he has been working.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. Arthur Garrett went up to Gates and thence to the mines to see the Gold Creek proposition. He owns a three eighth interest in a mine at Leadville, a good gold producing property, which is paying well, and expects to return there in a few days. Carter Lee went to Scio to see about playing on the club the coming summer. Scio is getting together a fast team which promises to be heard from in the valley games. John Barrett went up the C. & E. Clarence Turner came down from Lebanon. Lawyer Garland, of Lebanon, came down for a few days business in the county seat. Auctioneer Flaherty, of Lebanon, arrived on a business trip. Miss Cooley returned from Brownsville. George Scanland came down from Brownsville. Dr. Bell, of many degree fame, arrived from Corvallis. Miss Margaret Dunlap returned from a Sunday visit with her folks near Shedd.

The Ideal Church.

Echoes from Rev. W. S. Gordon's morning sermon: Will believe "the Bible is indeed the word of God." Will possess the presence of God as real as the Shekinah. Will pray on entering the room. Will be bold and aggressive "not pleasing men." Will have the mothers and children in the morning service. Will run a parsonage nursery for the noisy ones. Will possess a family pride and mutual forbearance. Will take country members home to dinner. Will provide for the three-fold nature of man. Will not divorce religion from practical life. Will help a man to get work as well as to get religion. Will learn the old hymns and help to sing them. Will be open day and night with some one always in charge. It will care for its poor and sick. Will have a basement containing the following: A hall for League, dining room and lectures—a reading room and information bureau—all rooms to be used for Sunday School. It will be furnished with two lavatories and a kitchen. It will not forget the service of God in the service of humanity, but will use these methods as means of saving souls. The value of the "Institutional church" has been demonstrated by the most successful missions at home and abroad.

Albany's Shetlands.

The Salem horse show was a great success. Albany's little Shetlands helped. Mrs. Eagles won first on Sneezer, first on Nellie, as stallion and mare, then first on Sneezer ridden boy or girl, first on Sunshine, and second on Nellie driven with appropriate vehicle, Troy Wood of Salem being first. Maurice Winter's team was first on pair of ponies with appropriate vehicle, and F. E. Anderson's Don second on Shetland pony under one year.

The New Depot Walk

The cement work around the Union Depot is soon to be started. The S. P. Contractor was looking the proposition over today and stated the work would be undertaken very shortly. The work includes a walk on Lyon street down to the Brewery corner.

Death of Martin Hedges.

Martin V. Hedges, an old resident of Linn county, died at his home, a few miles from this city yesterday, and was buried today. He was born in Indiana, and was about seventy years of age. He was never married, living almost the life of a recluse, being intimately known by few.

OAK GROVE

Mr. John Harris, a leading hop grower, was transacting business in Albany Friday. Paul Johnson made a trip to the county seat of Benton on special business Saturday. Dr. Bailey, of Palestine, who has been quite sick for some time is able to be around again. L. W. Delancey is getting the material on the ground preparatory to beginning the erection of his new barn. Mr. J. G. Gibson has been remodeling his residence which adds much to the general appearance of his beautiful country home. Mr. and Mrs. C. Anthony returned home the latter part of the week from Riverside, where they had been visiting their daughters Mrs. Colwell and Mrs. Adkinson. Mrs. W. D. Prettyman is spending a short time visiting at the home of her son, Perry, at Springfield. After visiting a short time there she will go to Cottage Grove to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Parker, before returning home.

At the Hotels.

Ward, C. W. Taylor, D. M. Watson, Frank Nickerson. Ashland—E. L. Shea. Eugene—G. M. White, L. B. Hoover.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 51-59. The river is 4 feet. The rainfall was .10 inch. Prediction: showers tonight, Tuesday fair.

Son.

On Monday morning, April 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holloway, near Albany, a girl. All doing well. This is Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shaw's first grandchild.

TUESDAY.

A Fine Team.

R. C. Farwell, of Shedd, was in the city to-day with a fine team of striking horses, which he sold to Bud Williams, of Seattle, for $750. They are a decidedly striking span of whites, with black spots, as sound as a dollar, and are bound to attract attention in Seattle. Mr. Williams is a former Albany man, years ago running with Albany's famous horse team when it broke the record at the tournament in Seattle.

A dust storm played havoc at Pendleton yesterday.

President Rossler, of Monmouth, passed through this noon. Miss Mamie Montgomery came up from Salem this noon. Father O'Farrell, of Eugene, arrived this noon on a visit with Father Lane. Job was elected mayor of Cottage Grove yesterday, defeating Jones by 39 votes. Rev. W. P. White will give a free lecture on Japan in the North Albany school house tonight. A recall on Mayor Huston of Junction is to be tried out next Friday, with F. A. Saylor against him. O. P. Coshov, of Roseburg, stopped off this noon to attend the session of Knight's Templars tonight. Mr. Tom Swan, of Richmond, Va., arrived last night on a visit with his cousin, Mr. L. L. Swan. Roseburg had a big booster meeting last night with Richardson and Hartog present with their boost spirit. The Eugene post office receipts the past year were $26,807.78, an increase of $5,890.49 over the previous year. Rev. Burs, who has been at Soda-ville several years, returned this noon from his conference. The coming year he is to be at Brooks. A blind pig is said to have been burned in a fire at Cottage Grove last night. The owner has not yet squealed or applied for insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Coates, J. M. French and Miss Ima Redfield returned this noon from their Bay trip, bringing home a fine string of salmon trout. The city election at Eugene has brought out the statement that the net warrant indebtedness has increased $18,000 in a year, and the bonded indebtedness $300,000. The big Nome dog race, on which $100,000 was bet, has ended, the Ferrer dogs making the distance of 412 miles in 82 hours and 2 minutes over the snow. The winners were common dogs. Mr. Geo. L. Rees, of Cottage Grove, a former Albany man, has been in the city today on a business trip. Mr. Rees was a candidate for councilman in the election yesterday, not being elected. Miss Lena Story has returned from a Portland visit, and is at Mr. John Althouse's. Mr. Nat Stevens, of Portland, who has just returned from a California trip, is also visiting at Mr. Althouse's. Mr. Frantz, of Frantz Bros., Hoskins, has been in the city making arrangements for his stallion Amiral to come to Albany every Friday and Saturday. He will be in charge of W. A. Boone, and will be at the Peaceco stables. The report from Yaquina Bay is that the native oyster is doing splendidly in all the beds, while the imported oysters are not. That the Japanese oysters is about a failure there, and that the low temperature of the water prevents the propagation of the eastern oyster. Esther Mitchell, the Holy Roller who shot her brother who killed Crutfield, has been discharged from the asylum at Seattle and sent to her home at Waldport. O. V. Hurt took her back to her home. It is to be hoped she has had enough of Holy Rollers.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the First Presbyterian Church.

The annual meeting of the First Presbyterian church last night was splendidly attended, 130 answering to the roll call. The enrollment is 232, receipts for year $3072.85 general expenses, $712.45 missions, total $3785.30. Everything was reported paid with $57 in the treasury. President Crooks and J. P. Martin were re-elected elders, M. H. Chase a new elder, Geo. Sanders elected a deacon, C. W. Sears re-elected a trustee and J. H. Simpson, Owen Beam and W. H. Stover new trustees; A. C. Schmitt superintendent of the S. S., Miss Jennie Gordon secretary and J. W. Ellison treasurer, all re-elected. A fine repast was served. The showing is an excellent one.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

The Corvallis train reached the depot without a single passenger on board, but a few had walked in. Generally there is a good sized crowd on board. A young man, with an old fashioned Swedish suit case, peculiar to that country arrived on the Brownsville train, and, sure enough, his name was Olsen, in plain letters on the outside. Perhaps a brother of Ole. J. F. Reilly, the detective, was around. John Barry, of Foster, went to Jefferson. Geo. P. Warner returned to Scio. G. B. Whitcomb, of Whitcomb, in the Big Bottom country, arrived on the Lebanon train. He is getting ready for the summer stage business. Rev. J. Sherman Wallace, wife and child, of Puyallup, left for home, after being at Lebanon with the remains of Mrs. Wallace, mother of Rev. Wallace. Rev. Wallace is a former student of Albany college, a leading orator when in school. J. H. McConnell went to Jefferson on mining business.

For Civic Improvement.

At the session of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Commercial Club held yesterday afternoon the recommendations of the executive committee were adopted, providing for a general civic improvement in the city, in which the council will be asked to cooperate. Among other things the Auxiliary will have charge of the depot grounds improvement, and there will be a general campaign for a beautiful city. The feature of the session was the talk by Mrs. Geselbract, a very interesting one along improvement lines, in which some useful ideas were presented and numerous civic problems enlarged upon. The mayor will be asked to name next Monday as a general clean up day for Albany, by a committee from the Auxiliary. Mrs. J. C. Irvine was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Schmitt, who resigned.

New Books.

About two hundred fifty new books for the Albany Library arrived yesterday and will be catalogued as soon as possible, a job that will take some time. These books have been anticipated for some time, and will be welcome by the many patrons of the library. They cover a wide field. The Democrat will give the list from time to time until completed. Following are some of them: Best Hart. Colonel Starbottle's Client Holland—Bay Path. Ingelod—Of the Skellings. King—Between the Lines. De Massant—The Old Number. Dye—The Conquest. Beach—The Spoilers. Conner—The Doctor. Herrick—The Common Lot. Martin—The Lore of Cathay. Wallace—The Fair God. Douglas—Confucianism and Taoism. Little—The Lady of the Decoration. Tolstoi—Anna Karenina. Monroe—Campmates. Tomlinson—Cruising on the St. Lawrence. Hamp Treasures of Mushroom Rock. Alden—Moral pirates. Stoddard—On the old Frontier. Monroe—Big Cypress. Brydalen—Young Supercargo. Allen—Navy Blue. Kingsley—Westward Ho. Mathews—Tom Paulding. Tomlinson—Tocumseh's young braves. Cabot—David Crockett. Johnson—Neighbors with wings and fins. Beard—Out door handy book. Lucas—What shall we do now. Shaw—Castle Blir. Seton—Biography of a Grizzly. Vallee—Sue Orcutt. Wiggen—The New Chronicles of Rebecca. Foulke—Twilight stories. Grinnell—Jack, the young canoe man. Grover—The Sunbonnet babies.

Was Forty-Six.

Yesterday was the forty-sixth birthday of Rev. Stephen A. Douglas, of the Baptist church. The fact was remembered in the evening by a surprise party tendered by his congregation. The parsonage was crowded to the front door, and a fine time had. Rev. Douglas is a Missourian by birth and an Oregonian by adoption. He was named after his relative, the celebrated Stephen A. Douglas, who ran for president against Lincoln. The youngest member of the family is growing up with the same name, Stephen A. Rev. Douglas' many warm friends will hope to see the forty-six doubled.

Farewell Reception.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. last night at the home of Mrs. L. E. Blain, tendered Mr and Mrs. J. St. Marks a farewell reception previous to their leaving for Oakland, Calif., to reside, most of their children residing there. Mrs. Marks has been prominent in the work of the W. C. T. U. both building up a splendid reputation as citizens and Christian people. They will start tonight.

Will Run the Ice Works.

The sale of the Albany Ice Works to E. J. Seely and others, recently reported, has been given up, and the property has been leased to Mr. Glen Junkin, who will begin making ice tomorrow. He has been connected with the ice works for several years and may be depended upon.

COUNCIL

Field Session With Morning Star Grange.

The Linn Council P. of H. met last Saturday with Morning Star Grange with seven granges represented, including Banner grange lately organized. Reports from subordinate granges showed a very gratifying growth and prosperity. The resolution presented at the previous session to amend Oregon's constitution, as to provide for annual sessions of the state legislature, one to present bills and have them referred to the proper committee, and one year later to act upon the same was carried over until the May meeting. Also the resolution committing the council to the favoring of an initiative measure to be voted upon Nov. 1910, providing for state wide prohibition, all for more study. A circular letter to subordinate granges from State Master Austin T. Buxton, calling attention to the proposed referendum of the late legislature appropriations for the O. A. C. by the citizens of Jackson county, and denouncing the same and asking members of the grange not to sign the petitions therefor, was read. The council endorsed the action of McMinnville grange demanding a thorough investigation of the hazing of Ralph Bristol by some U. of O. students. The Lecturers program was as follows: Song by the Grange, recitation, Miss Gertrude Ashe; solo, Miss Mamie Ashe; remarks by Editor T. L. Dugger of the Scio News; recitation by Jack Bartlett; song by the Grange. Following this were short speeches by Uncle Charley Miller and F. J. Denny. The Council accepted the invitation of Banner grange, Scio, to meet with it the first Saturday in June. One of the most enjoyable features of this day's session was the magnificent banquet spread by the ladies of Morning Star Grange, with its hearty good cheer.

Eugene's Election.

The election at Eugene yesterday resulted in a tremendous victory for Jos. D. Matlock, the present mayor, by 261 votes, a splendid victory for Mr. Matlock, a man with a clean record, and it was also one for the Guard which championed his cause. The Matlock or municipal ownership was all elected but treasurer, Frank Reiser being re-elected by only 16. The new councilmen are T. H. Garrett first ward, R. B. Henderson second, Sherman Heller third and F. J. Berger fourth. The total vote was 1659, and everybody voted. This will mean the finishing of the McKenzie power plant at a cost of $130,000.

Death of Mrs. Looney.

Mrs. J. W. Looney died at Jefferson this morning at the age of 63 years, after an illness of some time. She was born in Illinois and came to Oregon in 1853, when a young girl. Her husband died on Christmas day. She was prominent in good works, esteemed by all. She leaves three sons residing in and around Jefferson. Among her sisters is Mrs. J. R. Metzger, of this city. Senator A. J. Johnson, of Corvallis, is a nephew. The funeral will be held at Jefferson tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock.

Eugene Men Here.

Twelve or fifteen prominent Eugene men came down this noon to attend the session of the Knights Templars tonight. They will be made Knights of Malta. Among them are Mayor Matlock, re-elected by an immense majority, Lark Bilyeu and T. F. Hendricks.

A Military Suit.

Lieutenant S. C. Worrell to-day received from Lily, O. his full dress suit for his new office, for which he recently received his commission. It is of course regulation, and a beauty. With it is a late pattern sword.

Fines Paid.

The fines against Lee Morgan, of $290, H. E. Hulbert $150 and C. A. Curran of $100, were today paid Sheriff Smith, who received the execution from the supreme court last evening.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 60-59. The river 4.5 feet. Prediction: fair tonight and Wednesday, light frost tonight.
