FORGIVENESS IN CHRISTIANITY
Without the Spirit There is Failure.
Forgiveness—that attribute of earthly happiness and heavenly peace, which all men need and few possess—was the subject of Evangelist Robert E. Johnson's sermon at the big tabernacle last night. He preached the doctrine of turn the other cheek and kill enmity with kindness and the 1500 people who were at the meeting gave him careful and thoughtful attention.
The sermon was one of the most interesting in its portrayal of human character that the noted evangelist has yet presented here. And the music was especially good last evening. The choir sang the liveliest of the blood-stirring revival songs and sang them well. Professor Wagner was at his best in the solo which closed the service and Miss Willard, of this city, sang a splendid vocal solo also.
With the group of local ministers on the platform last night were Rev. J. T. Abbott, former pastor of the Methodist Church of Albany, who is now Sunday School Secretary of the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Church, with headquarters in Portland; and Rev. Geo. C. Rounds, pastor of the Methodist Church at Jefferson. Both of these ministers remained in Albany yesterday especially to attend the tabernacle meetings and were present both in the afternoon and evening.
Rev. Johnson announced last evening that he will probably deliver his famous sermon on "The Second Coming of our Lord" at tonight's meeting. This sermon has attracted attention throughout the entire Middle West and will probably rank as one of the greatest sermons ever delivered in Oregon. Rev. Johnson said that the second coming of Christ is seldom mentioned in churches—now notwithstanding that it is mentioned 385 times in the Old Testament and 319 times in the New Testament. It is a question of vital importance, and, he said, Bible students believe that Christ's second coming to this earth is imminently near.
A special meeting is in progress at the tabernacle this afternoon. Miss Marcus is leading it. This special meeting was the only other service today besides the big meeting tonight.
Five big meetings are planned for tomorrow. There will be public services at the tabernacle at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 7:30 in the evening with special music. At three o'clock there will be a meeting for men only at the tabernacle and at the same hour a meeting for women only at the Methodist Episcopal Church and a meeting for girls under the age of 16 years at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Johnson will conduct the men's meeting, while Mrs. Johnson will have charge of the women's meeting and Miss Shaffer will address the gathering of girls.
Rev. Johnson took his text last night from Colossians 3:12-13. "Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, vows of mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, long-suffering, forbearing one another and forgiving one another."
"I believe forgiveness is needed badly in this town," said Rev. Johnson in introducing his discourse. "A good many people here are like the old darkey who lay on his deathbed. His pastor was visiting him and comforting him and asked him if he felt that everything in his life was right with God and man. He finally confessed that he had an enemy. 'You'll have to forgive him,' said the minister. He studied a long time and finally said, 'If I dies I forgive him. But if I get well take care of dat nigger.' There are plenty of us willing to forgive but we want it to be on that basis."
"It is God who says to forgive, the speaker says, and furthermore He says that if you do not forgive neither will your Father which is in Heaven forgive your trespasses. It is hard to forgive your enemies, the speaker said, but only in that way can a man secure Divine forgiveness. A true Christian must do good to all men, he said.
The evangelist commented at length on the natural characteristics of people to repeat the bad about other people and forget the good. He spoke of the habit of women to meet in their back-yards to exchange gossip or to rush to the telephone to ask of a friend, "Have you heard the latest?" They say when they are peddling the reports that they do not mean harm by them, he said. Then why do they tell them?
That people want to hear the bad rather than the good is shown conclusively by the newspapers, which print the kind of news people want.
"If there would be 500 conversions here tonight," Rev. Johnson said, "you would probably see a dispatch of 10 lines maybe less, carried on the Associated Press. But if one of these ministers would come up to this platform drunk or would get caught in a poker game, glaring headlines at the top of a column would greet you in every paper you picked up tomorrow from the Pacific to the Atlantic Coast."
The speaker pleaded with the audience to forgive their enemies, cease to tell the bad about others and do all men good.
Most of the trouble in churches is caused by lack of the spirit of forgiveness, he said. Petty troubles arise in a church which blight its growth and kill its influence for good. "The Devil can kick up more hell in a church choir than any other place," he said. "All such trouble can be healed easily by forgiveness."
Rev. Johnson gave instance after instance of the wonders the spirit of forgiveness has accomplished in church-work, in business and in politics. The spirit of Jesus Christ in man is what prompts forgiveness. Christian people

NEW ORDER OF THINGS.
Until our new home is completed Dreamland will run a straight moving picture and illustrated song show, running the very latest and best pictures obtainable. We also wish to bring very forcibly to your notice that we will show no pictures that are over six days old and very often will be only one to two days old coming as they do right off of the Portland house who has first run. This is made possible from the fact, that we have consolidated with the largest film supply house in Pacific Northwest. We aim to give the very best show possible and the only way that first run pictures could possibly be shown in Albany, is by a direct interest and connection with a film exchange which we have negotiated for just this last week. We are importing a first class lady illustrated singer to commence tomorrow, Sunday Matinee and some A 1 work is expected of her considering the high salary she demands.
A regular 10c adult admission and 5c for children under 12 years old, matinee only.
Special Notice.
