THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Chas. B. Sternberg left for Portland, his home. He recently returned from San Francisco. He has become a writer of plays, some of which have been highly commended by critics, with prospects of presentation.

Capt. C. B. Winn went to the Bay again, taking charge of the express business. The new run of the morning train caught the company without an experienced express messenger and Mr Winn has been obliged to attend to the business himself.

W. H. Raymond, the insurance man went up the C. & E. He is a former Albany man, years ago an official in Albany's only fire insurance company.

H. K. Luger left for Walla Walla, where he will have charge of the installing of an electric light plant. He is one of the best experts in the Northwest and covers a wide field.

Miss Emma Sox went to Portland to meet a former Boston friend on her way to San Francisco.

Dr. M. M. Davis, of Eugene, went to Corvallis.

Mr. Silveragle, of near Kingdon, left for home after a visit at the home of his daughter Mrs. A. A. Bender.

Pleasant Annual Event.

This afternoon the Women's Missionary Society of the U. P. church met with Mrs. J. G. Gibson, of North Albany, with a good delegation present, an excellent program being arranged, with prospects of a fine feed following it in the evening. This has become an annual event looked forward to by the ladies of the church, the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson being a Mecca, and all are present who can possibly make the trip, being sure of a splendid time.

Across the Mts.

F. H. Pfeiffer and family, Frank Hackleman and family and John Isom and another man left this afternoon for the big Hackleman farm at Price, fifty miles southeast of Prineville, by the Lebanon wagon road now open. At the Pfeiffer farm, near Waterloo they will gather up a band of cattle and take across the mountains. Both families expect to remain during the coming season, looking after affairs there.

Bought a Ford.

W. W. Crawford, the local Ford agent delivered a model T yesterday to R. W. Tripp, the rustling real estate agent, of Brownsville. The Ford cars are leading the race from N. Y. to Seattle, in fact there is only one car mentioned as being in it with them.

Will Make Auto Runs.

Chas. H. Hoyt, of Jefferson, has been in the city with his automobile. He has been contemplating running to Cascadia the coming season; but on account of the change of the schedule on the S. P. a good many commercial men want to make the run to Salem in the evening, and he may make that trip, though he has not yet decided which it will be.

F. G. Will for watches

ICE Order it of the Albany Ice Co. West end of 3rd St. Both phones. Delivered anywhere in the city.

A Word!

Our Ice Cream is made of the best Jersey cream we can get, coming from the dairy of R. L. Burkhart, whose dairy is a model of cleanliness and sanitary conditions. We use the very best flavorings, and our modern methods of manufacture make our cream second to none.

DEATH OF G. F. SIMPSON.

A Prominent Pioneer of 1850.

George F. Simpson, one of Albany's best known and most worthy pioneer citizens, died last evening, June 22, 1909.

He was born June 29, 1835, at Winchester, Clark county, Ky., with his folks moved to Missouri five years later and crossed the plains with them to Oregon when fifteen years of age, in 1850.

He was married in 1855 to Miss Mary Nanny a native of Missouri, who came to Oregon in 1852, and survives him.

After his marriage Mr. Simpson settled on a farm four miles south of Albany and engaged in stock raising. In 1873 he moved to Albany with his family, since residing here.

He was superintendent of the Albany Farmers warehouse for seven years, afterwards engaging in grain buying for twelve years, when he was compelled to retire from business by a stroke of paralysis.

He was fraternally connected with Corinthian Lodge of Masons, of which he has been past master two terms, also of the Royal Arch Masons and the commandery of Odd Fellows, and has been a prominent member of the M. E. church.

Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, of whom the following, with their mother survive him. Geo. W. Simpson, Portland; where he is engaged in the wholesale produce business; a rank, bookkeeper at Eugene; Mrs. Ada Robson, of this city, and Miss Eva, a graduate of Albany college, now a teacher at Racine, Wis. Abner was killed at the Magnolia mill by an accident, and Miss Ora, a graduate of Albany college in the class of 1903, was drowned in the Calapooia in 1904. Four children died in infancy.

Funeral service will be held at the M. E. church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to which all friends are invited. The burial service will be under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

Get Your Letters Ready.

Bear in mind that FRIDAY, JUNE 23, is Albany Letter-writing Day. Don't fail to write a few lines about Albany to some friend at a distance, even if you do nothing more than to say, "Business is Good."

The Weather.

Range of temperature 67-50.
The river is 2.4 feet.
Prediction: showers tonight and Thursday.

If you have head and eye aches don't fail to consult Dr. Lowe at Hotel Revere July 2 and 3. Dozens of Albany references.

SOME PEOPLE CAN EAT

Anything that is set before them. Have you ever envied the good, hearty appetite and said to yourself: "I wish I could eat like that?"

You can. It is simply a question of very careful selection and not buying too big a variety or two much.

Whatever you decide upon, get good. It will taste twice as good when you know it is the best. Select some of the dainties that are prepared for the special purpose of sharpening the appetite—you will eat twice as heartily and with real relish.
