E. L. Umphrey and C. N. McKeay, cement contractors, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Umphrey's card appears elsewhere. He is a first-class workman and may be depended upon for a clean job.

Norman Gerky, Chas. Neely and four other Albany men left Saturday night for Spokane to register for a chance in the government land deal, with just as good a chance as any one else for a prize. Other Albany people are making arrangements to go also.

At the Jefferson picnic on Saturday the Jefferson club was beaten in a live game by Knox Battle 8 to 6. Baum and Patterson did splendid work for the Battle boys. There were numerous troubles through the contest, smoothed over in different ways.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, of New York City, and Mrs. Emerson, of the state, arrived yesterday on a visit with their cousins, Mr. Phil Goodwin, Mrs. Sarah Althouse, Mrs. S. E. Young and Mr. John Althouse. They came through California and like Albany the best of any place visited.

There were about four hundred people on the excursion to Newport yesterday, by the time the train reached the Bay. Constable John Catlin reports an orderly crowd. Hedonist is following anything else. At Newport, though it was Sunday, a good many were getting boozed at the rear door entrances of the saloons.

DOINGS OF THE B. S.

A large audience last night heard Rev. Milton G. Evans deliver an able sermon on "The Way Seems Straight," one of the treats of the Summer Bible School.

Most men want to do right, but fail through judgment.

Conscience is sovereign and governs men. It has been at the bottom of all the great reformatations and will continue to be. It is the pole star, the water level and perpendicular.

The simple rule is simply: Be ye holy as I am holy.

The best selling books in the history of the world have been those with conscience: the Bible, Pilgrim's Progress, Geo. Elliot's works.

Legitimate desires are getting wealth, getting learning, social status, but they must be in keeping with a clean conscience.

President Riley, of McMinnville college, delivered a splendid sermon at the park in the afternoon, greatly appreciated.

The classes this forenoon were conducted at the Presbyterian church. These are for everybody, but not many are taking advantage of the splendid privileges.

This afternoon at the park there is to be a conference led by Rev. W. P. White, of Albany, on Men and Boys, with addresses by H. H. Bushnell and E. C. Herlow of Portland, men who have made a specialty of the subject.

Tonight there will be a popular concert at the M. E. church by the Gilbert Sisters of Eugene, with an address by Dr. Foulkes on The Christ of Dare and Do. The building ought to be packed. It will be worth it.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

W. W. Crawford came down on the Lebanon train to meet a new Ford car, which just arrived from the East for Thad Sterling, of Lebanon. It is a 20 H. P. touring car and a fine one.

Lawyer Garland came down from Lebanon to attend court and Prof. Wiley to assist in the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Shaw returned to Mill City.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Lindsey died Saturday evening at her home in this city, after a useful life.

She was born Jan. 21, 1845, in Des Moines county, Iowa, and crossed the plains with her folks in 1846, her parents, with their young child, arriving at Dr. Whitman's in September, too late in the season. Dr. Whitman thought to come to the valley, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Burkhart, remained until next spring, when they arrived here, taking up a claim eight miles east of Albany. Only three months after occurred the horrible Whitman massacre. Elizabeth was married to M. T. Lindsey in December, 1874, and they lived happily together for 22 years, and she was a widow for thirteen years. Four children were born, three, Lulu, Belle and Guinne surviving.

Mrs. Lindsey was a devout Christian, trusting explicitly in Christ. She had been a member of the Presbyterian church, transferring her membership to the Grace Presbyterian church upon locating here.

She placed no confidence in her own work, her whole dependence being in Christ as shown by the selection of the text for her funeral, Titus 2:5: Not by works of righteousness we have done, but according to his mercy he has saved us; also the hymns selected by her: "Saved by Grace," "I Would Not Live Away," and "I Ask Not to Stay."

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this forenoon, with burial in the city cemetery.

The children and brothers and sisters of the late Mrs. E. Lindsey desire to express their sincere thanks for many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness of their mother and sister.

The P. E. and E. Coming North.

According to the Eugene Guard a prominent official of the Portland Eugene and Eastern Railway while in Eugene a few days ago stated that a portion of the proposed road between Eugene and Salem would be built this year as far north as Junction City. According to this it is to be built from Eugene northward through Albany. Can it be possible that Albany will have an electric line from Eugene before one reaches here from Salem.

DIRECTORY ISSUED.

The Albany City Directory for 1909, issued by the Albany City Directory Co., made its appearance this afternoon and by tomorrow will be in general circulation. The book is well printed and shows experience and care in its general make-up. It is something that Albany has long needed and will be welcomed by the business and professional men of the city.

Concert at Shedd.

The concert given by Mrs. Alice B. Marshall and her piano pupils, assisted by Prof. C. H. Palmer and the Shedd band, was one of the finest musical events Shedd ever enjoyed. "I am surprised on coming to a small place like this to hear such excellent playing as was done by the young ladies. There are few large towns or cities that could produce a class equal to this," said a visitor from a distance. Mr. Palmer sang in excellent voice and with great acceptance, Bedouin Love Song, Pin-suit, and as an encore, My Little Woman, Osgood. The Shedd band rendered a number of selections in their usual admirable manner.

Those who took part were Lois Yates, Ella Stockton, Meta Brown, Golda Wells, Edith Cooper, Marcia Cornett, Lucile Berry, Georgia Bayne and Mrs. Darwin. Mrs. Marshall closed the program with two numbers.

There was a large and appreciative audience, and a neat sum was realized, to be used in furnishing and beautifying a room for the primary department of the U. P. Sabbath School.

The President Coming.

Washington dispatches say that President Taft has abandoned his proposed trip to Alaska. He will, however, make a tour of this country. On his fifty-second birthday, September 17, he will leave Beverly, Mass., going direct to Seattle. He will stop enroute at Denver, Salt Lake and Spokane. He will stop at Portland and will then visit San Francisco, on his way passing through the hub city of Oregon. From there he will go to Los Angeles, then into Arizona and New Mexico. He will visit at El Paso, San Antonio, Austin, Dallas, Corpus Christi, New Orleans, Jackson, Miss, Montgomery and Birmingham, Ala., Augusta and Savannah, Ga., Wilmington, N. C., and Richmond, Va.

At the Fair.

Seattle, July 19.—The official day of the National Editorial Association at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, will be celebrated tomorrow. Exercises will be held in the auditorium and Fine Arts buildings, in which a number of the most prominent editors of the United States will deliver addresses.

Portland day on Tuesday will be one of the largest city days held at the Exposition. The Portland Commercial Club, accompanied by the Oregon Journal's band of 35 pieces will arrive on a special train today. A large number of Portland citizens are already at the Exposition and they will join with the official delegation in making the day a brilliant success.

Back from Medford.

Mr. Ledbetter and family, who went to Medford a year ago to reside have returned to Albany to make their home. The water there disagreed with Mr. Ledbetter. He has been working for the Albany Nurseries for several months and will continue with the Company here.

Albany Man Won.

The wrestling match at Bussard Hall, Saturday evening, between Van Dooser of this city, and Tandrup, of Salem was won by the Albany man in two straight falls, the first in ten minutes, the second in 7 1/2 minutes. It was a square deal, each man going in to win, and a good deal of skill was displayed.

Car Load of Melons.

The Albany Supply Co. has just received the first car load of melons of the season for their valley trade, and there will be something doing now among the lovers of this delicious mouth waterer.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 74-48. The river 1.6 feet. Prediction: fair tonight and Tuesday.

TUESDAY.

From C. H. Walker's Cherry Orchard.

The Democrat office appreciates a bucket of some fine Royal Ann cherries from C. H. Walker's cherry orchard. The crop was light this year, Mr. Walker having less than 200 gallons, where the crop is generally three or four tons. For eating, cherries should always be ripe.

DARE AND DO. INTERESTING FACTS.

Both Needed in Albany.

The entertainment at the M. E. church last night was particularly enjoyed. It was opened with a concert part by the Misses Gilbert, three young ladies, of Eugene, who were heard in trios, duets and solos, giving a delightful program. They have sweet, well blended voices, and the manner in which they were appreciated was shown by the warm encores.

Rev. W. H. Foulkes, the able pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, gave a gem number on the Christ of Dare and Do. He was a Christ of moral energy, not one of just bustle making a loud noise, but quietly accomplishing great things; he could be fathomed, for in him there was a unity of purpose, to do the will of the Father. He never dodged an issue: He always lifted events into a moral significance and has been hated by men who hate morality. He called men about him who are doers, and continues to want them, man of action and moral courage. He was always enthusiastic, hating and fighting sin and shams, ever seeking to find the best in men.

Those who are able to attend the morning sessions declare them to be the best, a splendid school for Bible learning, under Dr. Evans, Dr. Sherwood and Dr. Gesebracht.

This afternoon's session at the park is of particular interest, being a wifessional session, to be led by Manager Wallace R. Struble of the Commercial Club on women as boosters. Rdy. Jeanette O. Ferris of Sheridan speaking on women's clubs and the moral uplift.

Tonight's session at the M.E. church will be a good one. The Gilbert sisters will again be heard and Prof. Jos. Schafer, of the U. O. will speak on The Larger Aspects of Oregon History.

Born near Brownsville on July 28 to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Willbanks, a girl, weight 10 1/2 pounds.

Rev. Melvin Williams, of McMinnville, returned home this afternoon after attending the Bible school.

Peter Ruetner's present moving job is at the ice works, where he is moving the saw dust house to a new place.

The Ashland Chautauqua this year was a great success, closing with a profit of $800 for the Association.

The Presbyterians of Corvallis have ordered a fine pipe organ, an eighteen stop instrument, costing $3500 to $4,000.

Clarence Githen who was operated on at Dr. Dale's Hospital at Harrisburg, for pneumonia is still improving as well as could be expected.

Mrs. L. N. McKnight and son, of Los Gatos, Cal., arrived yesterday on a visit at the home of Mrs. McKnight's father, J. R. Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McKnight and son arrived this noon from Vale, where Mr. McKnight is deputy county clerk, on a visit with Linn county relatives.

Mrs. Chas. Childs returned today from Portland, accompanied by her daughter and family on a visit at the Childs home near Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blain and Mr. and Mrs. C. Irving will leave tomorrow for Seattle to be present on Albany day at the fair, and will be gone several days.

The name of Miss Nellie Hart was omitted by mistake from the list of those who took part in the Shedd concert an account of which was given in yesterday's Democrat.

The house of Henry Zastrow was burned near Lebanon. It was set on fire by a little child with some matches, which caught in some cotton clothes and spread rapidly. The child was barely saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Stewart returned home last evening from their summer's vacation, spent in the tall timber of the Sitka reservation, at the home of Mr. G. M. Payne, where they had a splendid time.

W. E. Goodrich, of the Pacific School for stammerers, of Seattle, was in the city today hunting up stammerers wishing to be cured. Among others he was sent to a flowery tongued high school orator, now clerking, by some of the young man's friends.

Mr. Belcher chief clerk for Master Mechanic Younger of the S. P. and family, returned this noon from the Bay. Mr. Belcher had received the sad news of the death of his father at Ogden, and was hastening there to be at the funeral if possible.

Country Fruit Inspector E. W. Cooper has at his place at Broadalbin and Sixth street, some of the finest Yellow Transparent apples to be found in the world, great for this early in the season. The Democrat appreciates a bag of them.

Gleaned From the New Directory.

There are 120 pages of names in the new directory as against 80 in the old. There are 2221 names which at the established ratio of 2 1/2 to 1 gives 5553 whereas the census shows 5636, showing how near correct the ratio is.

Every letter is represented by names except X. Q has but one name following it. Twelve pages are devoted to the letter S.

The name hardest to pronounce is the one third from the bottom on page 81. Try it.

A new feature in directory work is that of a list pointing out the names of subscribers.

34 firms have the prefix "Albany." The latest addition to Albany industries is the Albany glove factory.

Firms established but not yet opened for business are the Albany State Bank and the Paris Suit and Cloak House.

The best advertised firm is the Blain Clothing Co.

The American Cigar Store occupies the entire back cover. All but eight of the business and professional men of Albany appear as subscribers.

The book now sells for $2.00. A feature is five blank pages at the back for additional names.

The book is home printed and has a fine appearance. Church did it. The classified section gives a good insight as to the number of business firms in Albany.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

A special attraction were six special train loads of Elks bound from Los Angeles to the Seattle fair and thence home. One was made up mostly of New York men and women, the second almost entirely of New Jersey people.

"Any mosquitoes here?" asked an antlered gentleman, who wanted to be social.

"No, not in Oregon."

"Well, we have lots of them in New Jersey."

"And big trusts too."

The men bought out all the Oregonian boys, and asked what city it was.

"Albany, well, we're just 149 miles from New York, then."

Postal Clerk Whitlow, formerly of this city, and a dozen other Portland young people, a fine looking crowd of people, went up the C. & E. to Detroit, for an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Power, of Portland, returned home. Frank admitted that story about his long wade was true.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rankin left for Seattle to attend the fair, and then will go to Spokane and register for some government land.
