RUNAWAY ALBANY

In Which Two Women Get a Spill.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon Miss Ethel Bray and Mrs. Claud Bray were on their way home from a picnic dinner in Bryant's Park, when the shaft of their buggy came down while on Lyon street, and the horse proceeded to run, tipping the buggy over at the J. W. Hart corner, throwing both out upon the curb, covering them with dust and bruising them some, then dragging the buggy to the corner of Fifth street, where it was left against a pile of wood and ran to the Bray home in the southern suburbs. The contents were all spilled out, but the buggy is not in very bad shape after all.

Doing In and Around It

How about THAT chair? Have you ordered that chair yet? Boost the Albany made chair. Sit down in one of those Albany made chairs. Fifty more of these chairs started at the Union Furniture Factory. Ice cream and lunches at the Vienna Bakery. Call and try them. Chew Cadillac and King Corn tobacco, not made by the trust. Leave orders with G. Messman for Cascadia soda water. Home phone Black 111.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

The Albany Elevator Co. is now prepared to furnish sacks and store grain for farmers the same as last year. Our dealings last year were so satisfactory both to the farmers and to ourselves that we solicit the patronage again this year and we will guarantee the same satisfactory and square dealing which has received such a kind endorsement from those who patronized us the past year. We solicit your exchange work, giving forty pounds of 'Johnson's Best' Flour to the bushel of wheat and will pay the highest market price for grain. ALBANY MILL & ELEVATOR CO.

WHEN WE PUT UP OUR SIGN

inscribed 'high class sanitary plumbing' it meant exactly what it said. Nickel pipes, marble basins, or porcelain tubs do not of themselves make sanitary plumbing. It is how they are put in that makes for health and comfort. Have us do your plumbing and it will be the real sanitary kind, not a mere trade name for ordinary work.

Say "ELECTRIC FAN"

To the man who is hot—and notice how quick his tired, overheated expression will change to one of anticipatory enjoyment.

An electric fan will make that hot oven, store or home wonderfully cool and agreeable.

How would you like a steady 30 mile cooling breeze at your command? You could have it for $9.00 N.C.W.

Lawlessness.

Harriman plans another Merger, is the report from the east, and the United States has an anti-trust law. This merger is simply a trust, nevertheless Mr. Harriman forms all of them that he pleases, and so does Mr. Rockefeller, and likewise Mr. Frick and the sugar men and all the other fellows. Then they snap their fingers at Mr. Sam and laugh. It can hardly be wondered at that all over the country men in smaller stations are also lawless and ignore the laws of their country when they do not suit them. But it is no excuse. Good citizens should take a pride in being law-abiding, from the smallest city ordinance to the most important law in the national government, regardless of what other people do. Because one man is lawless there is no excuse for another to be. Character is the greatest thing a man can have, it is individual, and should be kept inviolate. This should be just as true of men in high positions, like Harriman, as those in humble places, and they have no more right to be lawless.

Jim Finch's Career.

The supreme court has decided that Jas. A. Finch, a former Albany man, must hang by the neck until dead. People generally think this is just. He shot down in cold blood a man with a good record, who had simply sought to raise the standard of a splendid profession, who deserved commendation rather than condemnation. Finch will simply reap what he sowed. His career ought to be a warning to men who think they can do as they please and regulate law rather than be regulated by it. In any business it pays to be honorable. Finch was simply a pettifogger in his profession from the start, even before he went into the law business, and the result is simply in keeping with the course of his life. This is not a pleasant thing to say about one; but it needs to be said for the good of society and in the interest of a better manhood. As Finch will hang and his future reputation is a matter of no concern to him personally in a business way, one may well consider his case from purely a moral standpoint and with propriety draw lessons from it for the good of our fellow men.

The Kind that Counts.

The kind of exercise that counts is that taken as one goes along regularly and systematically. Occasionally we see one who tries to get enough in a vacation of two or three weeks to last the rest of the year, and the result is bound to be disastrous. Regularity is what builds up health. Daily exercise, kept at, is worth a dozen summer vacations, not because it has been the writer's plan all his life, but because there is a foundation to the idea. One does well to also take the vacation, but do it in a sensible way.

Reduced rates to Cascadia by G. Messman. See him, or phone Black 111 Home.
