A SHRIEK AFTER PAVEMENT.

Roseburg has completed its first paving contract of seventeen blocks, the roller engine shrieked, and the paving outfit was moved elsewhere in a manner to indicate that this will be the extent of the paving there for awhile, until the city gets up to a position where it can afford some more. Under the Roseburg system the city pays half the cost, the property owner the other half, making it apparently easier on the tax payer.

Just how much a city of six or seven thousand should pave is a problem that needs to be studied seriously. A city government should be run like a private business from a business standpoint. That is, it should only do things within its means. Improvements should not be burdensome; but they should be progressive in keeping with the times. A city, like an individual, might as well be out of the world as out of fashion, but just how extensive it should be is a question for investigation, particularly during the present very high price of pavement.

DURING THE WINTER.

The indications are that house building will go on this winter just the same as during the summer, which is the spirit of the age. With two good dry kilns in the city this is made possible. It will mean a good deal for Albany if this plan is followed during the entire winter, for the city is certainly in need of many new houses. It is particularly in need of places for rental. People residing here do well to have their own homes as soon as possible. When this is done it always makes a vacant house for some renter just coming to town, and thus water seeks its level.

CITY EXTENSION.

Noting a piece in your most worthy paper for a bigger Albany, would say that we farmers do not agree with the attorney general in his opinion, suggesting a vote in the referendum by the people of the entire city as covered by the extension, as we do not feel the need of city government and regulation. We suggest to the most honorable Commercial club that the city make use of the vacant lots it already has and the land that is ready at any time to be laid out in lots or sold in small tracts, and it will have more than it can do in the next 40 years. Build your town out to us and then we will talk about extending further, or when we see that it will benefit us as it does the town to be incorporated we are ready to incorporate. But as it is our taxes, which are high enough, would be increased to pay for your conveniences, while we would go without. And any time the city dads saw fit to deprive us from keeping any stock and compel us to lay sidewalks, put in sewerage, or anything that goes to make a city, we would have to do it. There is no justice, nothing honorable in that kind of extension. It puts a stamp on freedom. Whatever the city does, it is a one-sided affair. We ask only for justice and are capable of knowing when justice is done, for our brains are not all hayseed yet.

Don't drive the pay-roll institutions away, but let them in and build up

St. Mary's Library.

The Library Society of St. Mary's Church met last evening with the president Miss M. Luggger and transacted its regular business besides enjoying a pleasant evening in the beautiful new home. The Society has decided to vacate its rented quarters in the Kelly building and make its home hereafter in the old Rectory parlors.

The club is entering upon its fourth year of life and has been a prominent factor in the social life of the parish. It has a number of non-Catholic members and its object was to offer select reading matter to all who might call at a time when Albany was without a public library. Father Lane announced last evening that his entire library would hereafter be at the disposal of the society, besides a large portion of Father Metayer's books.

Team Ran Away.

The team of A. R. Luther, of North Albany, ran away this afternoon, starting on the pavement and going south, turning at Ninth street.

Your city honorably. Then the extension part will come without any voting. Most of the factories Albany has have had to struggle like a drowning man to get a start.

Yours for a bigger and better Albany in an honorable way.
MR. and MRS. LOUIS SCHRINER.

HOW ABOUT YOUR HEATER?

Is it all right and ready for the Winter? If not this is the best time to have it cleaned and put in repair before you start your winter's fire. Or possibly you need a new one? In any case you will find our work in this line of the best. We will put in steam heating apparatus, hot air furnace or hot water heating at a reasonable cost.
